Horse Killed By An Engine.

While on his way home about 1 o'clock Monday morning, Jonas H. Nissley, who resides with his grandfather, Daniel Herr, on the Fruitville turnpike, made a narrow escape from being killed at a grade crossing on the P. R. R. The young man was driving and was crossing the railroad at the grade crossing midway between Landisville and Dillerville when the team was struck by No. 18, a west bound passenger.

Nissley saw that he could not cross the track and jumping from the wagon escaped injured. The engine struck the horse, throwing the animal from the track and killing it instantly. The wagon was demolished.

Public Watering Trough.

It may not be generally known that any farmer who maintains a watering trough on the ground along the public road, with flowing water, will be allowed two dollars off his road tax every year, while if the trough is high enough so that a horse can drink without being unreined, four dollars a year reduction is allowed off the road tax.

Plover Season Opens.

Monday was the first day of the plover season and from then on until the winter months the guns of local sportsmen will be heard from the fields about here. Only the gunners who are averse to the hard chase will pursue the wily, but toothsome, bird, as it is one of the hardest to bag in the whole feathered family.

Big Bread Business.

Last Wednesday S. S. Gingrich sold from his bakery in this place, fifty loaves of bread within three hours. This is something unusual and especially in a town the size of this, but we feel justified in saying that this demand was entirely due to the quality of his product. He truly deserves a large patronage.

Sixth Annual Outing.

The sixth annual outing of the "Tall Symamores from Three Counties" was held at Comac Tuesday. About fifty of the "Tall Symamores" were in attendance. Harrisburg, York, Columbia, Maytown and Marietta were all represented at the gathering.

Opening at Glen Orchard.

We are in receipt of an invitation to the opening of Glen Orchard, at Wild Cat Falls on Thursday, July 18, and were very sorry indeed that we were not represented as a very fine time was had by all present. Any person desirous of spending a vacation will go amiss if they do not take Glen Orchard into consideration. The place can be easily reached by boat from Marietta, and when there the congenial proprietor, Mr. Flowers will do everything in his power to please his guests.

Manheim Borough Notes.

Four Head of Cattle Killed.

Four cows belonging to Mr. Ezra Engle, a well-known farmer residing near Marietta, broke out of a pasture field on Sunday night and wandered on the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad. They were struck by a train. Three were killed outright and one was so badly mangled that it had to be killed.

Sues for Alleged Unpaid Rent.

Simon P. Eby and A. F. Hostetter, attorneys for Amos G. Hamaker, this morning brought suit in Common Pleas Court against the Manheim Light Heat and Power Company for $550. The plaintiff alleges that this sum is due as rent for power derived from a dam on Chickies creek near Manheim borough.

Big Chestnut Crop.

Judging from present indications, the prospects are for a very large chestnut crop this year. Wherever trees are visible they present a beautiful appearance with their many blossoms. Many of the farmers throughout the country will harvest an immense crop if nothing interferes.

valves. It is "dry heat" and the sudden checking of the sweat that is dangerous.

Don't drink "cool" alcoholic beverages under the idea that they will reduce your temperature of that of the atmosphere. You are simply adding fuel to the fire. Paradoxical though it may sound, hot drinks are in the end often more cooling than cold drinks.

A Mist.

"That engagement of young Mr. Dolley and Miss Kittish is broken off."

"What was the cause?"

"Oh, Dolley put his foot in it, as usual."

"How?"

"He was trying to pay her a compliment and said she'd been looking pretty the last few days."—Dee Press.

The cottages on the camp are well occupied and there will be special services on Sunday morning.

Will Cassel and daughter Winnie of Mt. Joy, spent Sunday here.

The excellent work of last week has been continued during the present one. The weather has been rather disagreeable because of much rain but the attendance at the meetings has been large and the enthusiasm manifested has more than counterbalanced any disagreeable weather.

The Sunday services were very impressive. In the morning Dr. May delivered a very able sermon on the words "Mine Eyes have seen the King." The Sunday school in charge of Supt. Gibson of Lancaster was largely attended by the young people on the ground.

The work of this week has been very good indeed. Prof. Green gave another of his interesting talks on "Life's Musical Scale." Dr. N. C. Shaeffer gave an educational talk on Tuesday on the subject "Modes of Thinking." He spoke to the Chautauqua several times during the week. Miss Crawford gave a Browning recital on Tuesday afternoon.

The Imperial Hand-bell Ringers and Instrumentalists entertained the Chautauqua in two concerts. The people were charmed by the seventeen of the bells and the splendid execution of the performers.

This week the Sunday school Assembly meets here. Each morning from 9 to 11 addresses are made by noted Sabbath School workers, including Chas. Rhoads and others.

Wednesday was given over to W. C. T. U. There were several conferences during the day and Mrs. Ruth Shaffner Etnier gave a very instructive talk on "Porto Rico, its new value." "The New Man" was the subject of the evening's lecture delivered by Rev. Anna Shaw.

The remaining events of the week were equally pleasing and entertaining in character.
