Mrs. Christiana Creider died in Bethlehem, aged 95 years. She was the oldest female member of the Moravian church in Bethlehem.

Dr. Herman Strecker, a sculptor and entomologist of world-wide fame, died in Reading, aged 65 years. He was 50 years in gathering his superb collection of butterflies, which contains 200,000 specimens, the largest collection in America, and upon which he expended $25,000.

Miss Bridget Lavelle was arrested at Scranton charged with setting fire to her house in that place to secure insurance money. She was committed to jail. She occupied the house until a few weeks ago, when she moved all of her goods out except a few articles of small value. Late Thursday night, it is alleged, she was seen entering the house and wandering about in it. A short time later flames broke out and the house had a narrow escape from complete destruction.

As a result of the death of Miles Jenkins, a teamster in the employ of the Union Tanning Company, at Hillsgrove, all the other teamsters employed by the company have quit work. Jenkins' death was due to anthrax, the disease first appearing on his neck in the form of a small pimple. It spread rapidly, and he died in great agony. This is the second death from the disease among the teamsters, and the others have concluded to find work elsewhere rather than run the risk of contracting the disease.

Seven masked men broke into the hotel of John Nealis, at Avoca, and after beating the proprietor into insensibility in his bed compelled his wife, at the point of a revolver, to show them where Nealis kept his money. They made their escape with $246, two gold watches and other jewelry. The methods of the marauders are identical with those used in the Corcoran murder case two years ago, and the officials believe that the perpetrators of the two crimes are the same.

Cleveland, (Special).—The prayers and pleading of a little girl checked two burglars who were in the act of robbing her father's house in this city. The child is Edith Golden, daughter of Levi Golden, treasurer of the Vandom Iron Company.

Edith's father and mother were away and the servants were in bed. She came upon the burglars when she went to the dining-room for a drink. She faced them boldly.

"It is wrong to steal," she said. "God will not love you. You have no right to take that silver. It belongs to my papa and mamma."

The burglars were amused at this, but when the child began to pray for them and sang a hymn they were touched and put the silver back.

Fell 700 Feet to the Bottom.
Masontown, Pa., (Special).—At the Lambert mines, near here, eight men, after dropping a distance of 700 feet down a mine shaft, were all brought up to the surface living, but with three dying and the others probably fatally hurt. Just as they got aboard the cage the cable parted and the cage dropped. The cage on the opposite side was immediately loaded with a rescue party, who on arriving at the bottom found the men lying unconscious on the floor of the cage with crushed chests, broken arms and legs and in some cases the bones protruding through the flesh. One man's skull was fractured.

Borrowed Book Leads to Murder.
Chicago, Ill., (Special).—A quarrel over a borrowed book was followed by a murder here, when George Johnson shot and killed Robert Newitt, a lifelong friend. Mrs. Johnson is authority for the statement that the shooting came on the heels of the quarrel over the book which was owned by Johnson. When Newitt fell to the floor Johnson, wearing neither coat nor hat, rushed from the house. After running two blocks he was seen by a policeman, who gave chase and arrested him.

Slept Himself to Death.
Hiawatha, Kan., (Special).—J. S. Lytle, a Kansas pioneer, died here. He slept himself to death. During the past three years he slept most of the time. While in Santa Ana, Cal., he slept from May 28 last to August 20. Then he awakened and was conscious until September 2, during which interval he was brought home. On September 2 he again went to sleep and slept continuously until today when he awoke and a few days later died. During his sleep he was supported by means of a rubber tube.
