'Corn has met with another setback. After passing through the vicissitudes of heat and drought it was subjected to the other extreme of temperature. How much injury was done by frost cannot yet be determined, but reports were sufficient to force prices to an exceptionally high point on Tuesday. It was not possible to retain the advance, and there was evidence of much manipulation during the movement. One result of inflated quotations was further reduction in exports from the Atlantic Coast to 290,801 bushels, against 1,318,820 a year

How He Got Even.

The members of the Traveler's Club were telling yarns, when the quiet man in the corner was asked to contribute. 'Well," said he, "I once entered a resturant where they weigh you before eating, and then charge you by weight. I had a good feed and was charged 10 shillings. The next time I went I took in my pocket bricks, weights, old iron and such. I was weighed, and then went upstairs and had a banquet three times as big as the last. I went down was weighed again, but they couldn't make it out.'

He paused. "Couldn't make what out?" asked the club members. "Why," answered the quiet man "they owed me four and tuppence."

If there is any truth in the saying that hap-piness is the absence of all pain, mental and physical, the enjoyment of it can only be found in heaven. But so far as the physical is concerned, it is within easy reach; at least measurably so, as far as cure will go. The sum of human misery in this line is made up of greater or less degrees of physical suffering. The minor aches and pains which afflict mankind are easy to reach and as easily cured. There are none in the whole category, which, if taken in time, cannot be cured. They must in some form afflict the nerves, the bones, the muscles and joints of the human body. They are all more or less hurtful and wasteful to the system. St. Jacobs Oil is made to cura them, to search cut hidden pain spots, and to cure promptly in a true remedial and lasting way. Very, very many have not known hapcause they don't use it. The diamond if laid in the sun and then carried into a dark room shows dis-

The woman had her arms in the tub, and was fiercely scrubbing one dirty garment after another. Book agents don't often penetrate to that part of Chicago, but this one did. He knocked on the front door until he was tired, and then he went around to the back door. The woman was bobbing up and down over the washboard.

"Good morning, madam," said the book agent, pleasantly.

"Good mornin'," said the woman, shortly. "Pleasant day," observed the book gent, sparring for an opening.

"Good enough," answered the woman. 'Excuse me, madam," said the book agent, "but I have here a work that I would like to show you."

"Have you?" answered the woman.

"Well, I've got a lot of work that I'd like to show you." She took one soapy hand out of the tub and waved it at a great pile of dirty clothes.

An Pacomplete Houses

We run wild over the furnishings of a house; ts furniture, carpets, hangings, pictures and music and always forget or neglect the most mportant requisite. Something there should be always on the shelf to provide against sud den casualties or attacks of pain. Such come like a thief in the night; a sprain, strain, sudden backache, toothache or neuralgic attack. There is nothing easier to get than a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, and nothing surer to cure quickly any form of pain. The house is incomplete without it. Complete it with a good supply.
