

THE NEW ENGLAND WOMAN

Not a Prepossessing Figure in Outline or Motion, According to This Writer.

ability of America to give and pay for the large orders recently executed in Europe. American individual ability and American power in the money market have been personified in the person of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, the most observed and talked about person in Europe for several weeks. His coming was heralded by the news of his successful formation of the $1,000,000,000 steel trust. He stopped a panic in the stock exchange by arriving just as the speculators of Wall street were wildest; he took up $50,000,000 of the British war loan; he set up a controlling interest in the great steamship lines and he realized the old dream of the Geographical society of Lisbon for a ship line to New York. The appearance of this man has caused public demonstrations. At a Guild Hall banquet he said not a word, yet he was the center of observation. At Windsor the king confessed his curiosity to see the "great reorganizer" and hoped he would not take a fancy to England's historic palace on the Thames and buy it. At Paris a mob thronged the square about the Gare du Nord when it was learned that Morgan was to leave on the Falaix-London Rapide. When he appeared at the station the crowd was a distinguished-looking man above the middle height, with a gray mustache and hair, in a light gray business suit and raglan, and with the rosette of the Legion of Honor in his buttonhole. There was a curt nod to the reporters who tried to get a word with him, and the "Atlantic Transport King," "Steel Magnate" and "Great Reorganizer" was gone.

In body she belongs to a people which has spent its physical force, and lacks vitality, says Kate Stephens, in Atlantic. She is slight. There is lack of adipose tissue—reserve force—throughout her frame. Her lungs are apt to be weak, waist normal and hips undersized.

She is awkward in movement. Her climate has not suffered her relaxation and the ease and curve of motion that more enervating air imparts. This is seen even in public. In walking she holds her elbows set in an angle, and sometimes she steps out in the tilt of the Cantabrigian man. In this is perhaps an unconscious imitation, a sympathetic copying, of an admirable norm, but it is graceless in petticoats. As she steps, she knocks her skirt with her knees, and gives you the impression that her leg is crooked, that she does not lock her knee joint. More often she toes in than out.

She has a marvelously delicate, brilliant, fine-grained skin. It is innocent of powder and purely natural. No beer in past generations has entered its making, and no port; also, little flesh.

An Old Institution.
The eight-hour day is not such a new thing. On April 2, 1792, the town of Partridgefield, Mass., now Peru, voted "to grant one hundred and fifty pounds for Repairing Highways in said town, to be worked out 2 thirds in June next at 3s 6d per Day, and the other third in September at 3s per day, Eight hours in a day to be Deemed a Day's Work."

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII, OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

SECTION 1—Be it resolved by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth in General Assembly met, That the following be proposed as Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Amendment One to Article Eight, Section One.
Add at the end of the first paragraph of said section after the words "shall be entitled to a vote at all elections" the words "subject, however, to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact," so that the said section shall read as follows:

SECTION 1—Qualifications of Electors. Every male citizen, twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject, however, to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

1—He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

2—He shall have resided in the State one year, or, having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

3—He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

4—If twenty-two years of age and upwards, he shall have paid within two years a State or County tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

Amendment Two to Article Eight, Section Seven.
Strike out from said section the words "that no elector shall be deprived of the privilege of voting by reason of his name not being registered," and add to said section the following words, "but laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class," so that the said section shall read as follows:

SECTION 7—Uniformity of Election Laws. All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens or for the registration of electors shall be uniform throughout the State, but laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class.

country the big cats are to be found in larger numbers than in any other locality in Arizona, and the warden expects to bag several hundred.

At one time the California lion was to be found in all parts of Arizona, but large territorial and county bounties have caused his extermination in many places. Many thousand dollars have been paid by each county for lion scalps, and at $20 per head hunters have found it profitable business, some of them in times past killing a score of lions in a week's time, and a total of over $100,000 has been paid in Arizona for scalps in the last ten years. Hundreds of lions, though, have been shot by cattle, horse and sheep men who have not claimed the bounties, taking as their rewards the fact that they have disposed of the cause of the slaughter of their calves, colts and lambs.

While the lions have grown less common in the southern part of the territory, there has been no perceptible decrease in their numbers in the wilder northern regions. Sheepmen in the San Francisco mountains have complained of late that the lions are killing off their lambs in such numbers that their raids were proving ruinous to the sheep industry. Warden McCarty has taken the matter in hand and organized the hunting party.

Smallest City in America.
The smallest incorporated city in the world is Fenton, Mo. It has an incorporated population of 25 persons, but has a population of but 10 persons. This little city is about 100 miles from St. Louis.
