THE

WEEKLY BULLETIN

NO. 3. VOL. II.

FLORIN, PENNA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1901.

50 CENTS A YEAR

NEWS TOLD IN BRIEF,

Local Happenings as Reported by Our Many Reporters.

All the news, 50 cents a year. The Florin Hotel will be sold on Saturday.

Ed Booth was off duty four days last week.

Norman Menaugh spent Sunday at Middletown.

Alliance, Nebraska.

J. M. Raymond visited friends at Maytown on Sunday.

Miss Ida Easton of Lansaster' was home on Sunday.

H. L. Stoll and family were Lancaster last Thursday.

The BULLETIN would be a good Xmas present to a friend.

A. L. Yellets and wife were a Manheim on Wednesday.

David Wolgemuth was at Elizabethtown last Wednesday.

some time at Elizabethtown.

Ephraim Balmer of Lancaster, was in town last Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Brandt of Salunga, was in town visiting friends.

John Hambright left for Lebanon Valley college on Monday.

Harry Lutz and wife of Harrisburg, were in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Fraley of Harrisburg, visited Mrs. Henry Baer, on Saturday

John Mumma and family of Salunga, were in the village on Sun-

C. A. Wiley and Frank Mitchel attended the institute at York on

A. C. Grubb, of Ohio, spent several days the guest of George C.

John Menaugh of Philadelphia, was home with his family over

George Dierolf of Ephrata, was the guest of J. S. Carmany last

Al. Haines moved from the Cut- Baer's Sons, at Lancaster. r property to the Jacob Seitz them for holiday bargains.

n Houck and wife of Co-

B. church on Thanksgiving even-

Miss Miriam Baer of Harrisburg is spending the week with her grandparents, Henry P. Baer and Fred Snyder witnessed the F. & M.-Gettysburg foot ball game at Lancaster on Thanksgiving after- Monday was very largely attended.

Frances Arndt and wife of this place and Jesse Heisey and wife of John S. Widman is home from near town, visited relatives at Lawn on Sunday.

Christ Charles, who is attending college at Lancaster, will hereafter board in the city instead of coming urday.

Christia well have go near Bain-bridge, moved into the south side of the new doublehouse in the east end of town.

The spelling bee and entertainment at the Donegal school on Saturday evening, proved to be a grand success.

S. S. Gingrich wishes to express Miss Stella Ishler is spending his thanks to Senator J. A. Stober for a copy of the 1901 edition of the Laws of Pennsylvania.

> Presiding Elder D. D. Lowery, of Harrisburg, held a quarterly conference meeting in the United Brethren church last evening.

> J. Y. Kline and his force of masons finished the mason work on the new building which is being erected near the Farmers' creamery.

75 first-class apple trees for Fall planting. Smith's Cider, York Imperial and Smokehonse. Will be sold at wholesale prices. Inquire at this office.

A certain resident of this place went to Highspire recently aud had the misfortune of losing his hat. That's why a new cap adorns his head of late.

Any one desirous of purchasing a fine, up-to-date dwelling in Mt. Joy, should lose no time in calling on A, S. Flowers. Read the ad. in

We call the attention of our read ers to the new advertisements of L. B. Herr, W. C. Sapp and John Henry B. Musser of this place, feet wide, several hundry was last Saturday informed of the risited Harry Stoll and death of his son's wife, Mrs. Amos new street and two alle Musser, in Franklin county can a Condensed Form.

MOUNT JOY ITEMS.

Charles Ricksecker is confined The funeral of Irvin Kraybill on

J. F. Fenstermacher was appoint ed Mercantile Appraiser for 1902.

Borough Council held its regular monthly meeting on Monday even-

The boilers at the cotton mills were cleaned last Friday and Sat- prizes will be given the successful con-

Mrs. Elizabeth Owens will offer public sale next Monday, place to the country on Monday.

Benjamin Connelly jr. has improved to such an extent that he visited Amos Baker near Maytown

Emanuel Greiner bought the property of the estate of J. L. Ammay, deceased, at public sale, for

A surprise party was held at the residence of Amos Shelly on the Manheim road east of town last No bones were broken. Thursday in honor of Miss Ellen Services will be held in the Unmeeting the same evening at the perfume may be taken out. residence of Mrs. Mary Eby.

Lookout For a Borough.

The latest and largest addition to the village of Florin was made last week and to Henry B. Nissley lies all the credit. Mr. Nissley resides in the eastern end of town and owns the large tract of land between Green alley eastward 670 feet to the property of Chriswas surveyed and divided off into thirty-two lots, the majority of which are 200 feet deep and 40 feet wide. The Read land is laid off very conveniently and extends Square street w is forty

By the laying out of Isaac Herr, attorney for John S. The News of our Neighboring Borough in Heisey, has issued an execution for $350 against John H. Heisey, of Mt. Joy township.

Mrs. Lillie E. Nissley, of Lobata, to his home with a spell of sickness sent President Roosevelt a turkey for Thanksgiving that weighed thirty-two pounds dressed.

Tuesday noon while playing with his schoolmates, Frank Spicker, a Mastersonville lad, fell and fractured the small bone of his right leg.

A monster spelling bee will be held in the Manheim opera house on Saturday evening. Twenty-five valuable

The machinery for the new industry a large lot of household goods at at the Farmers' Creamery, is being erected under the supervision of Mr. Sheriff McMichael of Lancaster, Roltheuser. The waste milk of creammade a business trip from this eries will be used in the manufacture of > John Lindsay, a well known resident of Maytown, died last Tuesday at the County Hospital, death resulting from a cancerous affection of the neck. The remains were interred at Maytown on > George Gould while engaged in taking out clay at Lenhart's brick yard near Maytown, on Wednesday, way injured by the bank caving in on top of him. Dr. G. A, Harter attended him.

An East Donegal man undertook to pick up a stray kitten while he was at work about his barn last week, but the ion U. B. church on Sunday morn-kitten proved to be of the wrong breed ing conducted by Rev. Martin of cats and now his clothes are buried chaps, bein' good natured, showed 'em Groff, of Safe Harbor. Prayer in the garden in the hope that thus the Death of Irvin Kraybill.

Irvin Kravbill died at his home Harrisburg on Friday morning, of typhoid fever. Deceased was a son of B. W. Kraybill, deceased, late of Mt. Joy borough, and is survived by a widow, daughter of Lewis Seeman and two children. Mr. Kraybill was a printer and for a number of years was foreman tian Shatz. This entire tract of land of McFarland's printing office at Harrisburg. The body was brought to Mount Joy on Monday forenoon. The funeral was held on Monday at 1.30 p. m., with services in the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran church and interment in the Mount Toy cemetery.

A Good Cough Medicine.

I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in exellent medicine. I have been suffer

He Ran Away With an Auto

First Machine in Carson County Tempted Piute Bill

HILE the talk had stuck to horses the ex-sheriff of Carson county had enjoyed the society of the party of visitors whose liquid hospital ity he had been invited to share. When it took an up-to-date turn and switched to automobiles he began to be bored The conversation wandered among the intricacies of explosion chambers notors, gears, and the like, and al though the ex-sheriff's glass was filled and emptied with the rest, a tired, faraway expression crept over his face and he spat at more frequent intervals into the sawdust box beneath the

"The only machine of that kind tha ever come through here," he reflectiveonsiderable."

Whereupon the entire company, hav ing expressed its interest by the usua invitation, the sheriff removed the superfluous moisture from his sweep ing mustache with the back of his hand and told how the first automobile came into Carson county.

"'Twas a couple o' years ago last spring. A couple of fellers came through goin' to Chicago, at least the was their intention when they struck this camp. The boys was naturally in terested in the machine they had, rather big, clumsly lookin' rig at that, but it sure could throw dust. Some of the boys wanted t' race it first off with th' fastest horses in camp, but after the machine did the snake dance all the way around th' speediest broncho in th' bunch, the gang natcher'lly wanted t' be put on how it was done. Well, the where t' pull a handle t' set her goin' how t' let her out or check her in, 'n what an easy mouth she had.

"It panned out that t'was a dern fool trick t' put th' gang on, cause next mornin' when th' two fellers got up bright 'n early fer a long day's run; no machine! Mike, that keeps th' hoel, and a few of th' early birds was standin' lookin' at th' broken look on th' door of th' little shack where it had been put over night. A couple o' wide sure treed, an' the boys went at him kinder careful, havin' him cinched as they tho't. We gets into th' bushes an' covers th' road an' th' ford with our guns. Horny Bill and Dave Smith sneaks down stream a little ways from th' bank 'n lays quiet. Then every-body waits awhile, cussin' a bit an' weatin' like th' devil. "Of a suddint up pops a Winchester over th' bank. He lets fly six times up range, because you'll see there was ne tellin' when lead might be comin' over

th' bank in chunks. The game

th' road, hit er miss, an' by good luck it was miss. Then he dodges down.

"'Pinte Bill!' we all yells as we sees his ugly jaw just over th' bank. So it was, the skunk. In a minute th' machine begins t' chug 'n gurgle dowr there. Twas queer if he was startin up, fer th' creek was full high an' rushin' at a gait over. But Bill an' Dave from behind a tree down th' shore lets out a whoop an' begins shootin'. Then we jumps out t' see th' fun. The foo was sittin' in th' seat with a laria round his waist, one end tied t' th wagon body, an' steerin' her straight into deep water.

"Of course, th' dern thing didn't float but she was so heavy she run right lown inter th' water an' disappeared under, runnin' along th' botton. Bili he stays on top an' it pulls him along like a fish on a line. Funny? Lord, how we did howl! We was laughin' so hard an' most of us was so unsartin' handed from th' booze that not a man could shoot straight enough t' pop th floater. So there was th' machine getting away safe an' sound downstream an' takin' Plute with it.

"Then Horny Bill steps out down th bank an' th' gang quit shootin' t' see what was goin' t' happen next. Piute was quite a little ways from shore by this time an' pullin' away fast. Horny whips out his rope. He wasn't no slouch with it neither, an' though 'twas a long distance throw he lands th' noose square over Piute's head 'n shoulders. Pi tries t' fight it off, but twas no go.

"What with th' machine an' th' creek pullin' one way an' Horny an' Bill t'other t'was a tight squeeze fer ol' Pi an' no mistake. Th' air tires on th' machine, though, kinder lifted her little off th' bottom, I suppose, an' th' steady pull swings her head in t'shore. Then they pulls Pi in, black in th' face an' dead gone from th' squeezin an' bein' under water off 'n on for several minutes. Then comes th' machine climbin' slow up th' bank after Pi, all by itself an' sorter 'shamed like. The paint was most all off her from th' sand an' rock in the creek, an' th' shirt an' th' hide was most all off of Pi 'count of th' two ropes. Th' machine had barely 'nough spokes left t' hold 'er

"Well, say! Th' gang just lay down an' rolled over with joy an' gasped fer breath t' see th' pair of them. When they got through they was so weak couldn't hev strung Pi up ef on Pi an' then

His wife hastened into the hall to

"What is it dear?" she cried as he came springing up the stairs, two steps at a time.

"Come inside, dear, and I'll tell you, although I feel like taking the whole world into my confidence.

"Oh, what is it. Paul? Have you sold the water-colors?"

"Better than that, my dear. I have sold the oil that I did last summer! And what do you suppose I received

"Oh, I don't know. Fifty dollars?" "Pouf! I received every cent of $500! Now I can face the world."

And the twain went dancing around the room like crazy marionettes. Five hundred dollars! Prosperity! Plutocratic wealth! The p of joy bubbling over!

What Jane Said

"Jane, did you say that George had no strength of character?"

"Do you mean George Strickland?" "Yes, I mean George Strickland, the man I am going to marry

"Well, you see, dear, I had just heard that George proposed to you, and what I said was that he was very suited."-Cleveland

A Professional Twister

"Dr. Bingham's badly used up by nis last case, eh?"

"I should say. He pronounced the patient dead and sent for the underaker, when she came to life.

"He ought to be glad of it." "Not at all, Having pronounced the girl dead, he considered her recovery a reflection on his kill."-Denver Times.

Blair-There goes Smith's widow. See how bad she looks? Poor Smith has been dead two months now and his widow does nothing else but weep from morning till night! That's what call devotion!

Syre-Devotion? Why, man, that's what I would call perpetual emotion. -Judge.

Only Natural,

Subbubs-I suppose you would scoff if I told you that a man who used to live in our town, but afterward moved to Colorado, had come back to our town in search of his health.

Citiman-No; that's reasonable. I suppose that's where he lost it,-Philadelphia Press.

A Family Affair,

De Note (at the theater)-That orchestra that plays between the acts is excrutiating. It's enough to drive folks out.

Lobblounger-The leader is a brother of the man who has the saloon next door .- N. Y. Weekly.

The Height of Improvidence,

Mrs. Lakeside-Mrs. Breezy has applied for a divorce, and yet she tells me that she has no plans for marrying again, and no one in particular

Mrs, Packingham-Dear me! How very imprudent!-Town Topics.