It Cost Him Just Fifty Dollars.
 Mr. Justwed—I found this paper of tobacco in your room. What does it mean, madam?
 Mrs. Justwed—Why, I use it—
 Mr. Justwed—Oh, you do! Why don't you tell me that before marriage?
 Mrs. Justwed—Why, I didn't suppose you were whether I used tobacco or not. I use it to keep the moths out of my clothes.—Judge.

Heatable.
 "You must tell your husband to change his diet," said the physician. "Tell him to eat more beef and potatoes."
 "Oh, well," said Mr. Cumcox, after a moment's consideration. "I suppose it is just as well. Beef and potatoes are getting so expensive that even the wealthiest families need not be ashamed to eat them."—Washington Star.

To Cleanse the Anarchists.
 Stranger—Why are those dirty anarchists so howling mad at that inoffensive-looking minister?
 Resident—He wants them to join his church.
 "Hum! I don't see anything in such an invitation to rave over."
 "Yes, but he's a Baptist, and knows that a wash would do them good."—N. Y. Weekly.

Sufficient to the Day.
 Deacon Medders—Yes, ho, ho, ha, ha! I got the best o' Deacon Plunket in that horse trade yistid'y.
 Mrs. Medders—Well, Josiah, do ye think that wuz Christian-like conduct?
 Deacon Medders—Why, wats the matter. Yistid'y wuzin' Sund'y.—Philadelphia Press.

Recommendations.
 Mrs. Knowles—That is a beautiful recommendation you gave to your cook. Of course she deserved it?
 Mrs. Milton—Of course.
 Mrs. Knowles—But what do you really think about the girl? I have written recommendations myself, you know.—Boston Transcript.

Woman-Like.
 He—I think a woman's club, to be successful, should aim at something far removed from "Female Suffrage."
 She—I can't agree with you. I believe that should be its sole object.
 He—Exactly, but if it aims at something else it is more likely to hit that.—Philadelphia Press.

Result to Injury.
 Patches—I tell you, Weary, don't particularly object to having a dog set on me, for it is one of the risks of the business and I am willing to take my chances, but when that dog is a water spaniel it's just a little too much."—N. Y. Herald.

Roll Call.
 A pugilist who makes his pile
 And then to congress goes
 Would be right in his glory when
 He strikes the eyes and nose.
 Philadelphia Press.
