A GOOD START.

First Spinster—And who gave the bride away?
Second Spinster—Her youngest brother; just after the ceremony he was heard to say: "Wait till he finds her hair is false, her teeth are false, and she suffers from chronic indigestion."—Ally Sloper.

Partially True.
A person of an investigating turn of mind had taken the trouble to run down one of the miraculous cures.

"Is it true," he asked, "that you have been a sufferer from neuralgia for 17 years?"
"Yes, sir," replied the man.
"Is it true that you have been cured of it by taking six bottles of Dr. Rybold's celebrated Extract of Umptygump?"
"Well, that's partly true. I've taken the six bottles."—Chicago Tribune.

Retrospect.
With Miss DeVine I played to-day on Brassyway links.
and as I played my memory sped to roller-skating rinks where I went with her mother more than twenty years ago.
I further did the current of my reminiscence flow.
I look me to the days when I, a happy swain, did play,
Miss DeVine's dear grandmamma,
some of lawn gossamer,
Brooklyn Lake.
