It was near this pier that Nell Cropsey's body came to the surface, through natural causes, thirty-seven days after the dog had unerringly shown where she had gone. In those thirty-seven days detectives had followed unnumbered clues leading to twenty different cities, the police chiefs of a hundred towns worked on the case, and in the end the sagacity of the bloodhound, a descendant of famous dogs employed to hunt runaway slaves, proved to be right, while the manifold workings of hundreds of human minds were wrong.

Siberia and America.
Frederick Palmer was being visiting the Russian convicts and exiles in Siberia, and he finds that neither their treatment nor their rations are relatively any worse to the convict class than those of our own. "At first," he says, "I would not believe the statement that Siberian convicts who had run away to America returned with the conviction that they would rather be convicts in Siberia than free men in America. Afterward I verified it. Their reasons were simple: 'Here we have time to drink our tea, to talk, and we get enough to eat. In America you have to be a slave for ten hours a day. Every minute a terrible man called the boss has his eye on you, or else you can't get any job at all. Yes, in America either you have to work too hard or starve.'"

Largest Farm Implement Depot.
The city of Dallas, Tex., is said to be the largest depot of farm implement supplies in the world. Every big wholesale house in the United States which engages in the business of manufacturing tools for the farmer has its branch at Dallas. There are twenty-five nine store buildings devoted to this trade. Dallas lies in the very heart of the choicest farming region of Texas. It is the trading point of the great black land belt of the northern and central counties, which contain two-thirds of the people and three-fourths of the wealth of the state.

Not Permitted to Circulate There.
An error of a new clerk in the mailing department of an eastern publisher was responsible for the mailing of a prospectus to a world famous statesman who had been dead for some years. The letter was returned a few days later, with the following indorsement:
IN HEAVEN, — 1901.
Gentlemen—As your publications are not permitted to circulate here I believe it would be useless for me to subscribe for them. Yours respectfully—
And here followed the name of the famous statesman.

Budapest's Street Car System.
The street car system of Budapest is considered the best in the world and has been imitated by several American cities, including Washington. The underground railway is also a model. The stations are built of porcelain tiles inside and out. The cars hold forty-two people, they run by the electric third rail system, and the fare is 4 cents, the stations being at intervals of a quarter of a mile.

Manufactured Comb (?) Honey.
It was recently announced in a Chicago paper that a carload of manufactured honey in the comb had been received in that city from California. In reply to this the publisher of The American Bee Journal has offered $1,000 for the sight of a single pound of manufactured comb honey. He adds that he has been making this offer for twenty years without finding a...

Remarkable Cure for Croup.
I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine my boy would not be on earth today—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by J. S. Armany Florin Pa.

Methodist Episcopal Church—Preaching every Sunday evening at 7 p. m. by the pastor and Rev. John Boehm on alternate evenings. Epworth League at 6 p. m. Sabbath School at 9 a. m., Amos Elser Superintendent. Class meeting Sunday morning at 10 a. m. Prayer-meeting Thursday 7 p. m. Rev. Wayne Channell pastor, Rev. John Fochm assistant pastor.

J. S. Carmany guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the bottle for lagrippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Doubled as Alimony.
"Oh, yes, daughter's fully twice as happy as she was with her husband."
"How so?"
"Why, he used to give her an allowance of only $10, and now he has to pay her $20."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Cure for Lumbago.
W. C. Williamson, of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies had failed to do. Sold by J. S. Carmany, Florin, Pa."
