

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN

NUMBER 42.

FLORIN, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12, 1902.

50 CENTS A YEAR

MOUNT JOY BOROUGH.

Happenings of the Week Told in a Brief Yet Interesting Manner.

D. F. Gable will erect a store building on North Barbara street.

Walter Kreiner and family of Lancaster, spent Sunday in town.

Edgar Martin of Lancaster, made a pleasant call at this office on Monday.

The social party in the Mount Joy Hall was well attended on Saturday evening.

Samuel Materer quit his job at the Grey Iron Works and is working at Rollman's.

Sarah Shrader was attacked with vertigo on Friday but at this writing is improving.

H. S. Newcomer will have another sale of wagons and implements on Saturday, March 29.

R. v. A. R. King was re-appointed pastor of the Evangelical church by the conference on Tuesday.

Nathan Shank on New Haven street is prepared to accommodate boarders at very reasonable charges.

The cellar wall at Silas Stoner's residence on Varietta street was undermined and on Friday it caved in.

The Landis Coach Works built the mail delivery wagons for Messrs. Evans and Hoffer who are the carriers for the routes from this borough.

J. N. Stauffer, who lives in one of E. F. Baker's houses on New Haven street, will move into Widow Wolgemuth's house on North Barbara street, April 1st.

Our local lumber dealers each have under consideration a bid for supplying the material for the large barn of Mrs. Hoffman to take the place of the one recently destroyed by fire.

The breast at Horst's mill was washed away as was also the one at Snyder's mill but the one at the Borough Water Works stood the 'blunt' and Borough Council may well feel proud of it.

John H. Dierolf appeared before Court and stated that allegations concerning his violation of the law was untrue. He proved that his place was properly conducted, and the license was granted.

Alois Bube is enlarging the cellars at his brewery for the purpose of installing larger hogsheds, which the steady expansion of his business demands. He was in Philadelphia on Thursday on business in this connection.

On Monday we were favored by a remittance from C. N. Gerber who paid his subscription a year and a half in advance thus winning the blue ribbon for cash in advance subscribers.

at the passenger starting to run the trolley, tearing the harness from the horse from the street down Main street at Bowman's store.

the enterprising coach place, whose ad. appears in the Bulletin, sold five new tires, four of which will be made on Saturday.

erson Council No. 98 of this borough. Enclosed find a copy of this issue. Enclosed find a copy of the Bulletin, who was a member of the D. The visitors were Harry Smith Thurscker, son of Amos town, has been his son, who was seriously injured. Dr. Thome took the train from this place.

Miss Sarah Moyer, formerly employed by Samuel E. Hoffman near town has entered upon her duties as house-keeper for Daniel Kramer, baggage master, for the P. R. R. Co. at Mount Joy.

Frank White, who had been employed for the past three months on the farm of Amos Shearer, near Breneman's school house, is now at home with his parents, preparatory to enter upon his duties for next Summer.

Happenings at Rheems Station.

J. G. Enterline, is recovering from a long spell on sickness.

Phares Landis, bought two horses of H. K. Alwine on Saturday.

Isaac Groff is digging a ditch from his house to the pike for draining the water out of his cellar.

Millard Weaver, of Pleasant Hill, purchased a fine driving horse from Albert Hahn near Elizabethtown.

Harry K. Heisey, a resident of this place, returned home from Ebbystone where he had a position with B. B. Gonder, contractor.

Irvin Fridy, oldest son of Amos Fridy, who is employed as machinist in York, returned home last Wednesday with a stiff arm, caused by vaccination.

Amos Mumma, first noticed a sink hole twenty feet deep along the railroad tracks east of this place on Sunday. The Middletown wrecking crew made the necessary repairs.

Tuesday E. H. Hirsh and William Erisman removed the wind wheel and tore down the tower for John E. Garber. They reported it a severe task for two men while the storm was raging.

E. S. Heisey narrowly escaped being drowned in Conoy creek last Thursday afternoon. The whole team was taken through underneath the bridge at Christ Gish's. All landed safely on shore a short distance below the bridge.

Wednesday William Evans of this place received a letter from his son Ephraim who went to the Philippine Islands as a soldier. It was very near a year since they received the last letter and had given up all hopes for him yet living.

W. L. Heisey received one of the largest cars loaded with Bituminous coal ever received at this place, it being a 100,000 capacity steel car. He is busy delivering coal to Reist & Nissley's creamery near this place regardless of the condition of roads and weather.

Elmer Witmer, aged about 15 years, residing on the Shank farm in West Donegal, had his left arm broken yesterday morning while currying a horse. The horse squeezed him against a wall with the result as above stated. Dr. Blough was summoned and dressed the injuries.

Milton Grove

Boston has 15 churches which are maintained by colored people.

The quarrymen at Meckley's quarry will resume work next week.

Mount Joy township officers are all Republicans except three election inspectors.

Amos Good moved last Thursday into the house recently occupied by Jessie Harbold.

Mrs. Cyrus Heisey is improving very fast and we are sure that the people are glad to hear it.

Public roads are in a dangerous condition for night traveling on account of many washouts.

The people of town and vicinity are trying to organize a creamery. A meeting was held last night for that purpose.

Andrew Fry, this place, has rented the Samuel Lehman farm, near the Hill church, and will occupy the same in a few weeks.

Dr. W. B. Thome, was on Tuesday summoned to Baltimore to visit his son, who was seriously injured. Dr. Thome took the train from this place.

Miss Sarah Moyer, formerly employed by Samuel E. Hoffman near town has entered upon her duties as house-keeper for Daniel Kramer, baggage master, for the P. R. R. Co. at Mount Joy.

Frank White, who had been employed for the past three months on the farm of Amos Shearer, near Breneman's school house, is now at home with his parents, preparatory to enter upon his duties for next Summer.

MANY LOCAL NOTES.

What Transpired in Our Busy Village Since the Last Issue.

H. B. Musser is about again.

Harold Buller is aiding his father at painting.

Rudolph Mark of Palmyra visited in town on Sunday.

J. H. Menaugh of Philadelphia, is home with his family.

Ed. Gish and wife of Elizabethtown, were here on Sunday.

Joe McGarvey is working for J. R. Griesinger at Mount Joy.

James Schlegelmilch of Wrightsville was in town on Monday.

H. B. Lutz and wife of Harrisburg, were in town on Sunday.

A son John is the latest addition to the family of Joe McGarvey.

Dennis Barnhart captured a skunk at Jacob Newcomer's on Monday.

Ann Deyer returned to town after a several months stay at Mount Joy.

John Roads is the apprentice baker at S. S. Gingrich's since last Tuesday.

Harold Buller had the misfortune of losing a silver dollar on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Erin Buller visited her daughter Mrs. Jacob Stokes at Lancaster this week.

O. K. Snyder found a key and chain Owner can have same by calling on him.

Beulah, the 4-year old daughter of Jacob Loraw and wife, is ill at her home.

Charles Nissley has secured employment in Hager's store at Lancaster as cash boy.

Fine imported planting potatoes at $1.25 a bu. Call and see them. Jno. E. Longenecker.

Philip Frank's sale of farm stock on the Good farm was postponed until the coming Friday.

Do you appreciate good and cheap job printing? If you do, this office is the place to get it.

Watches and clocks repaired promptly by Harry People, Mount Joy, and all work guaranteed.

For sale—An old walnut bed room suite in good condition. Apply to Mrs. Anna Myers, Mount Joy, Pa.

William Winters will leave next Tuesday for Pittsburg, where he has secured employment as a book-keeper.

Elmer Schlegelmilch is no more working for E. L. Nissley as he has secured employment with Jacob Snyder.

John Kautz and wife and Frank Nissley, wife and two children of Maytown took dinner at Metzroth's on Sunday.

Mrs. Wertz returned home after spending three weeks at Mount Joy with her daughter Mrs. Amaziah Good.

Mrs. Amos Hartzbright and daughter Irene, have gone to Bachmanville, for a three week's visit to the former's parents.

'If we only had the trolleys' was uttered many times since the pike is so muddy.

Prof. M. J. Brecht visited the Washington Grammar and Primary schools this week.

Harry Dietrich of Palmyra, has secured a job at the Grey Iron at Mount Joy. He is staying at F. D. Reider's.

David Barnhart and Henry Flowers delivered their tobacco in this place. It was loaded on a car and shipped to Petersburg.

A. B. Eicherly left town for the Blue mountains in Lebanon county, 1st Tuesday, and on account of the deep snow only returned on Monday.

Chas. Bishop, Walter Hostetter, Victor Halderan, Gabriel Easton, Chas. Carson and Elvin Baker were at Wrightsville on Sunday viewing the river.

Mrs. Martha Greenleaf of Rowenna, while here attending the funeral of Ivan Wallick was taken sick and is now lying at the home of William McGarvey with pleurisy.

A large rock rolled into the cut east of here on Sunday night and was slightly struck by a passenger train, breaking a step off. It was removed by Harry Stoll's repair gang.

More Florin Items

G. C. Martin was on the sick list last month.

William Schutte offers his store stand for sale or rent.

Lizzie Gantz left for Lancaster, where she will remain for several months.

The remaining stock of the Rack-et store was shipped to Lewistown on Friday.

David B. Landis contemplates taking a course at some Normal in the near future.

A 'hot box' caused a delay of 20 minutes to a mail train a short distance west of town on Saturday.

Any person needing a 2 or 4-horse wagon or a market wagon should apply at once at this office. See ad.

The engine attached to Chicago Limited broke an eccentric pin on Wednesday and was detained over an hour at this place.

I wish to inform the public that I am prepared to make cane seating for chairs at very reasonable prices. Call on Aggie Zink, Mount Joy.

Jerome Yocum, the Manheim pretzel baker, broke the tongue of his wagon at Shumaker's bridge on Saturday and had to borrow one to finish his journey.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the fact that J. M. Erb of near Newtown, is ever ready to sell good baled hay, product of the Adams county farmers. He sold 30 carloads since Christmas.

Manheim Mites

Thunderstorms in February are an unusual occurrence, yet this is what this section experienced last Friday.

Walter Garner, of Elstonville, on Monday entered upon his duties as apprentice in the saddler shop of E. S. Shook.

John H. Hostetter, at present occupying the S. S. Fasnacht farm on Tuesday moved on his father's farm near Fontana.

Master Lloyd Richard, son of Hiram Richard, on Thursday accidentally fell from a sofa and dislocated his shoulder.

Heavy rains of last week was the cause of numerous washouts and destruction of bridges throughout the country districts.

The snowstorms of Wednesday morning came as a surprise and caught many of our citizens napping, especially those who had thought Spring had set in earnest.

The persons who were so enthusiastic to divide the township into three supervisory districts are rather mum since the almost unanimous vote against the proposition at the last election.

The Misses Mary and Leah Shely moved into S. S. Gible's house, on East Main street, on Tuesday, and Mr. Clayt S. Brubaker, also on Tuesday, moved from Back Run to his father, Mr. Joseph W. Brubaker.

Donegal Springs

John Martin is through stripping tobacco.

A. C. Rutherford was at Harrisburg on Sunday.

William Walker was at Cumberland over Sunday.

Frank Spidel moved on the farm with David Hollenbaugh on Friday.

The recent rain and snow made the country roads almost impassible.

About all the farmers have to do at present is attend the numerous sales.

Ephraim Shearer, tenant farmer on one of Hon. J. D. Cameron's farms, lost a fine steer. It left the farm for fairer fields and pasture about a month ago. Mr. Shearer was notified by Office Wittick the other day that a strange steer was on a farm below Columbia. Mr. Shearer went down and saw it, but did not claim the animal, as it did not blend in color with his lost one.

General News of the Community.

The Columbia pipe mill to be will cover 18 acres and cost $250,000.

Mr. Hall of Kinderhook had his gray horse killed by the trolley cars at Marietta on Saturday night.

Herman E. Geib, of Mastersonville, and Lizzie S. Souders, of Mount Joy, were granted a marriage license.

Pev. S. H. Titzel of Cavetown, Md., has a unanimous call to the pastorate of Maytown Reformed church.

A bank building will shortly be erected by the directors of the Deaver National Bank on the site now occupied by the post office.

The Postmaster General has issued a general order announcing the increase of pay of rural free delivery mail carriers $100 per annum.

On Tuesday morning Mrs. Abram Herr, residing a mill east of Elizabethtown, fell down the stair steps and broke an arm and badly sprained her neck.

Former Governor Robert E. Pattison has accepted the invitation to deliver the oration at the dedication of the monument to be erected to the memory of Revolutionary soldiers, at Ephrata.

Alexander Brown, a middle aged colored man, whose home was in Middletown, was killed shortly after six o'clock on Friday evening on the Pennsylvania railroad, a short distance east of Banbridge.

The ground hog believer continues to remind us that the little animal saw his shadow on Feb. 2, hence the weather we have since experienced. And it will continue until the 17th inst. Then an early Spring is promised.

In Hayti a new species of tobacco has been produced by cross fertilization, which grows from five to seven feet in height, bearing a leaf 25 inches long by 15 in. width. Three or even four cuttings can be made from one plant between November and March.

David Brubaker of Mount Joy, has taken charge of Nissley's grist mill, one mile north of that place, successor to Abram Rider. This mill is one that is patronized by many farmers in that district. Mr. Brubaker is an experienced man at the business and we all wish him success.

The Manheim Sentinel Says:

For State Senator, Ezra Miller, of Landisville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses G. Miller of this borough. He is a graduate of our High school, and a prominent member of the alumni, and is at present successfully engaged in the coal and lumber business. Mr. Miller has for several years past taken an active interest in Republican politics, is well known throughout the county and should be nominated and elected to the office to which he now aspires he will be a credit both to himself and the district he would represent.

Who Can Beat This?

In last week's issue we noted two old books which are owned by H. Coble and wife at Elizabethtown. Mrs. William Shires of Mount Joy brought to this office a German hymn book printed by Christopher Souer in 1764 and another printed by J. F. Steinkopf in 1680 which is a German prayer book. The books were both printed in Germany and belonged to Mrs. Shire's great-grand mother Mrs. Apple Born and she has them in her possession for the past 30 years.

Oyster Supper

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Trinity United Evangelical church, at Mount Joy, will hold an oyster supper in Mount Joy Hall, Friday and Saturday evenings, March 14 and 15. Tickets 25 cents. Ice cream and cake extra.

Joint and Vicinity.

Henry Zeiger delivered his tobacco to Landisville last week.

One of our farmers made application for tobacco seed to the government.

Reuben Stauffer and Jacob Horst were the guests of Harry Zeiger on Sunday.

Harry Hossler is making ready to move to his new home, which he bought of Jacob Newcomer.

Never mind Joint will soon be a city, we have already a gasworks and all we want yet is a hotel.

The sale of Jacob Newcomer, was well attended both Saturday and Monday and the stock sold for good prices.

Allen Randolph Beard Zumbrum, who was hired with Martin E. Shank, west of here the past year, accepted a similar position with Peter R. Nissley on Monday.

Sporting Hill Items

The spelling bee at the Junction on Saturday evening was well attended.

The closing session of the Rapho Teachers' Institute was held in the school house here on Saturday.

The heavy rain of last Friday caused the Chiques to rise to such proportions as has not been the case in thirty years.

After the session of the Sunday school on Sunday afternoon Rev. Welsh, of Manheim, preached in the Union church.

Miss Hillie, daughter of H. C. Metzler, died at the County Hospital on Saturday evening, aged twenty years, 9 months and 5 days. The funeral services were held in the Sporting Hill Union church Thursday morning with interment in the Kauffman cemetery.

You have good reason to fear an attack of pneumonia, when you have a severe cold, accompanied by pains in the chest or in the back between the shoulders. Get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it as directed and it will prevent the threatened attack. Among the tens of thousands who have used this Remedy for colds and influenza, we have yet to learn of a single case that has resulted in pneumonia, which shows that this Remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. For sale by J. S. Carmany, Florin.

Better Buy Coal Now

It is possible that the price of hard coal will be affected by damage done to mines by the recent floods, on the ground that the supply will not equal the demand. A reduction in price was planned to go into effect after April 1st, but it may now be postponed.

Pneumonia Can be Prevented

This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of influenza of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. For sale by J. S. Carmany.

Our Sale Register.

When sale bills are printed at this office, we will insert a notice same as the following, in the BULLETIN each week from the time the bills are ordered until the sale, FREE of charge: Send in your dates.

Friday, Mar. 14—At Union Square horses, cows, bulls, heifers, hogs, etc., by E. S. Farver.

Wednesday, March 19—In Florin, horses, wagons, buggies, surrey, trotting wagon, lot of new and second-hand harness, etc., by A. B. Eicherly. J. G. Beatty, auctioneer.

How to Cure the Grip

Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip, not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by J. S. Carmany.

Chronio Diarrhoea

Mr. C. B. Wingfield, of Fair Play, Mo. who suffered from chronic dysentery for thirty five years, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy did him more good than any other medicine he had ever used. For sale by J. S. Carmany, Florin.

Interesting Local News

E. S. Weaver, has a horse that has locked jaw.

Robert Menaugh quit his job at Lancaster and is home.

Harry Stoll, had the kitchen at his dwelling remodeled.

Spencer Baugh, of Downingtown, was in town on Sunday.

Birt Fisher and family, of Lancaster, were in town on Sunday.

H. G. Stacke, of Lancaster, paid his parents a visit on Sunday.

Bertha Kraybill, of Mount Joy, visited her parents in town on Sunday.

J. S. Carmany and wife, were at Landisville and Salunga, on Thursday.

William Able, has already started moving minor articles to the Florin Hotel.

Alice Eyer, of Philadelphia, was the guest of John Miller and wife on Sunday.

Monday was a political day at Lancaster, and our leaders were all on deck from both sides.

Rev. Hamell, delivered his farewell address in the Methodist church in this place on Sunday evening.

Peter Kraybill, was at Millersville, on Friday afternoon to visit his son who is a student at the Normal school.

Jos. McGarvy sr. Benjamin Mickey, and Hiest Shelly started working at Nissley's warehouse on Monday morning.

All Michael Myers, could say on Monday evening when met by our reporter was "Muddy Roads" and his appearance proved it.

Benjamin Musser's horse frightened a short distance east of town the other day, became unmanageable, breaking the buggy shafts.

Alphens Morton, of this place has a hen that takes a notion at intervals to lay several large eggs and we were shown one recently which measured 7 1/2 inches around its lengthwise and 6 1/2 inches around the other way.

A social gathering was held at the home of Chas Good, on Saturday evening in honor of Florence Bailey and was fairly well attended in spite of the inclement weather. All present greatly enjoyed the excellent banquet.

For Girls.

Schoolgirls' dresses are mostly made with bodices and not worn with blouses. Belted bodices are preferred, but those who wear blouses mostly supplement them by boleros, with cloth bell sleeves hardly covering the elbow.

The frock here sketched is of gray cashmere, with the middle of the front of the skirt enriched with a cluster of small plaits. The bodice opens in the middle of the front on a plaited plastron of white silk and is rounded out at the neck and trimmed with two cashmere flounces bordered with white silk. The white silk collar band and silk cuffs are ornamented with lace applique, while the cashmere sleeves are plaited and the belt is white silk.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A GRAY CASHMERE FROCK.

Church Chronicle.

United Brethren Church—Praching Sun day morning at 10 a. m. Sunday School at 1.15 p. m. Junior Endeavor at 6.30 p. m. Prayers-meeting Thursday evening at 7.15 p. m. Rev. H. M. Miller, pastor.

Methodist Episcopal Church—Praching every Sunday evening at 7 p. m. by the pastor and Rev. John Boehm on alternate evenings. Epworth League at 6 p. m. Sabbath School at 9 a. m., Amos Riser Superintendent. Class meeting Sunday morning at 10 a. m. Prayer-meeting Thursday 7 p. m. Rev. Wayne Channell pastor, Rev. John Boehm assistant pastor.

Primary on Saturday

At the Peppubican Primary to be held Saturday afternoon, March 15, this district will nominate one senator, three representatives and six delegates. Go to the polls and express your choice.