

THE WEEKLY BULL

NUMBER 47.

FLORIN, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 190

MOUNT JOY BOROUGH.

Happenings of the Week Told in a Brief Yet Interesting Manner.

Christian Nissley received a car-load of lumber for his new barn.

A daughter was born to Norman Grissinger and wife on Thursday.

The Willing Workers' entertainment in the hall was a grand success.

Frank Groff had a finger mashed at the Farmers' Creamery the other day.

Otsego Tribe No. 59, of this place, purchased a new Council brand.

Elmer Garber will open his soda water season at his drug store on Friday.

Will we soon have a Sunday mail? The present probabilities are that we will.

B. S. Dillinger is painting his house which is occupied by his son William.

The recent storm removed part of the roof on C. Seitz's barn near the borough.

Rev. Roth of Elizabethtown, visited Rey. W. Penn Barr and family on Thursday.

April 17 the Street committee will commence removing all ashes placed on the alleys.

Amos Kaylor and wife received company the other day that came to stay—a daughter.

The American Tobacco Company shipped nine carloads of tobacco from this place on Thursday.

150 shoats and 15 fresh cows and

Donegal Springs

Frank Spidel says he was burning brush—he singed his whiskers.

John Martin and William Wintermoyer delivered their tobacco on Monday.

Ephraim Shearer lost his pocket book containing a check for 5.00, but found it again.

The hum of the thresher was heard in the vicinity of Ephraim Shearer's on Thursday.

The stone crusher was kept busy the fore part of last week crushing stone for the new road.

When told he would better get out his straw hat, one of our residents remarked, "I'd sooner have the old black slouch." The slouch may be all right but if he don't soon discard it his hair might get mouldy.

Rosy Schroll, Clara Handson, and Elmer Ruhl, returned to the Cameron homestead here on Saturday after spending the winter with J. D. Cameron at his resort at Frogmore, Beaufort county, South Carolina. They say they all enjoyed the mild breezes of the sunny south during the cold spell here last winter and report the trees at that place in blossom over a month ago. Ex-Senator Don Cameron is on his way north from his South Carolina sea island home and it was rumored that he would be in Washington to meet Senator Quay. This is a mistake. Mr. Cameron will go to New York and then to his home at Donegal Springs. According to a letter received from him, he has

OBITUARY NOTES.

Deaths That Occurred in This Vicinity During the Past Week.

Mrs. Barbara Longenecker, wife of Ira Longenecker, died at her home, in East Donegal township, from convulsions. She was twenty-eight years of age, and was a daughter of Jacob Newcomer, of Salunga. Deceased was a member of the old Mennonite Church.

David H. Brandt, a prominent farmer of East Donegal, died at his residence, one mile north of Marietta, on Wednesday, of progressive paralysis, after an illness covering one week. The deceased was 75 years of age and was twice married his first wife being Elizabeth Longenecker, of Dauphin county. His second wife was Mary P. Breneman, of near Mount Joy. The children of the first marriage survive as follows: Simon L. Brandt, of Marietta, Alpheus S. Brandt, of Salunga, and Tillie, at home. There were no children by the second marriage. Michael Brandt, of Mount Joy, is a brother.

General News of the Community.

Lancaster may not get the Shepherd engine works after all.

The contract for the Columbia Pipe mill is awarded to a Pittsburg firm.

Lancaster cotton mills will have Saturday half holidays after May 10.

Milton Grove

Harvey Wittle has gone to house keeping with his spouse.

Our blacksmith, Lia Lehman, is kept very busy at present.

Our merchant, E. F. Grosh transacted business in Lancaster last Friday.

A. S. Sprout, of Lawn, moved to this place on Tuesday, having rented Hiram Stern's property.

The separator and its accoutrements for the new creamery in this place arrived here last week.

Christopher, the youngest son of John H. Martin, is seriously sick with a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Louisa Gingrich is home after a week's sojourn to Seelton, Hummelstown and Harrisburg.

Farmers are active in their farm labor—some are hauling manure, some plowing and others sowing oats.

The lime stone quarry at Meckley's lime kilns present a hive of industry since operation has been resumed.

Peter Brehm, the well-known miller at Keener's mill, moved on the B. Z. Witmer farm near Elizabethtown.

D. M. Hiestand, of Elm, has a force of men employed repairing his mill dam which was partly destroyed by the recent freshets.

MANY LOCAL NOTES

What Transpired in Our Since the Last

John Dunk quit his day.

Mrs. Christ Nissley list.

Ella Easton left for Saturday.

E. G. Miller is digging Herman Ishler.

Daniel Kieffer was in town Monday.

John Long and son was in the village Saturday.

Wm. Gantz and wife were in town on Monday.

A good tinsmith employed at T. F. Stone.

John Raymond was on list several days last week.

John Masterson made appearance here on Sunday.

The mason work on property is already completed.

A nearly new piano for Address box 275, Mount Joy.

Abbie Walters is fencing lots which he purchased Nissley.

Eli Menaugh lost knife and would get its return.