

THE WEEKLY BU

NUMBER 48.

FLORIN, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL

OBITUARY NOTES.

Deaths That Occurred in This Vicinity During the Past Week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Loucks, widow of Charles Loucks, died at her late home in Maytown, Friday night of heart failure, in the eighty-fourth year of her age. She was a member of the Church of God for sixty-eight years.

The remains of Forest Kautz, the six year old son of Andrew and Sallie Welsh Kautz, of Chicago, were brought to town last Wednesday afternoon and on Thursday forenoon the funeral services were held at the home of Abraham Welsh and wife, who are the grand parents of the deceased.

Mrs. Mary Smith, widow of the late M. W. Smith, of Bainbridge, and who three weeks ago left Bainbridge to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Mattis, at Royalton, died at the latter place on Sunday morning at nine o'clock from old age. The deceased was born in Elizabethtown 84 years ago and lived for many years in Bainbridge. Her husband died in 1895. The body was brought to Bainbridge yesterday and the funeral was held from the old homestead at two o'clock.

Mrs. Matilda Nissley, widow of Joseph W. Nissley, died at her home on West Donegal street, Mt. Joy, on Sunday evening, death resulting from rheumatism of the heart. She was 73 years of age and is survived by one son Clinton Bonnum, and two step-children, Rev. Ephraim Nissley and Mrs. H. S. Kraybill. She was a daughter of the late Dayid Zook, for many years proprietor of Zook's woolen mills. The funeral will be held this afternoon with interment at Kraybill's burial grounds.

Anna Weller Shaeffer, wife of John Shaeffer, of Bainbridge, died at her home, in that place, on Thursday morning at ten o'clock, in the thirty-fifth year of her age. The deceased suffered from an attack of typhoid fever, which was followed by peritonitis. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Stella. The funeral was held on Sunday, with services in the Methodist Church, Bainbridge, at two o'clock and at the U. B. Church, at Mountville, on Monday morning at nine o'clock. Interment in the Mountville Cemetery.

The dead body of George Ashton was found at his home, in Bainbridge, about eight o'clock Friday evening. The man had been dead several hours. He was last seen alive during the morning, when he had been in the National Hotel. Ashton lived alone and as he had not been seen since morning his friends became alarmed and A. R. Landis, proprietor of the hotel, and a number of others decided to force an entrance into his house. This was done, and Ashton, partly undressed, was found lying across the bed. The deceased had been in ill health for some time, and his death was not entirely unexpected. Deputy Coroner S. S. Steffy was notified, and an investigation was held. The deceased was born in Bainbridge fifty-three years ago, and lived there all his life. Twenty-five years ago he was married. A wife and child died a number of years ago. For the past eight years he had resided alone in a house near the National Hotel.

A Prosperous Mount Joyian.

Our ever busy marble dealer Jas. Glatfelter, improved his marble yard, filling it up about six inches with ashes, which makes a neat appearance and avoids the mud after a rain. On Monday he erected a tombstone in the Florin cemetery in memory of Kate Arndt and yesterday he erected tombstones in the Henry Eberle cemetery over the remains of Henry Kraybill, John Wagner and Mrs. Lewis Diffenderfer.

East Donegal Items.

Henry Martin is burning a lime stack on his farm.

Farmers are busy planting potatoes and sowing oats.

Several cases of small pox are reported in this vicinity.

Mrs. Jacob Musser is confined to the house with the grip.

Jonas Mumma is now a student at Williamson Trade School.

John Simons, jr. received an appointment as railway clerk but has declined it on account of entering college.

A certain resident of this community wishes to thank the parties who donated a pair of cats one day last week.

Saturday evening while driving through Marietta P. Otto ran over a man by the name of Johnson, of Philadelphia, knocking him down causing concussion of the brain.

Joint and Vicinity.

The wheat fields around here are looking good.

Daniel Miller sold his crop of tobacco for 7 and 3-4 and 2.

Christ Snyder sold his tobacco last week for 8 and 1-4 and 2.

Several of our folks attended the funeral of Mr. Risser on Monday.

Samuel Landis was the guest of Jacob Horst and family on Sunday.

One of our sports claim it is very cool on the hill these spring nights.

Mr. Minnich bought both tobacco crops sold in this community this week.

Amos Garber and family were the guests of his brother Samuel on Sunday.

Messrs. Henry Zeager and Jacob Horst were the guests of Mrs. Jacob Hershey on Saturday.

Mastersonville Mites

Our tinsmith Joseph D. Hollinger, is busy this week making many repairs.

The farmers in this section are busy in getting ready to sow oats and plant potatoes.

Many in this section attended the love feast and District meeting at Elizabethtown last week.

The first session of the Chiques Sunday school held last Sunday morning was very largely attended. We trust the good attendance will continue and will increase.

B. T. Spickles has built a new fence around the yard of Mary Shearer's property and also repaired the other fence around the lot. Later in the week he set some posts preparatory to building a wire fence along the lot of F. E. Jones, our landlord.

The News of Newtown.

Reuben Nentwig is remodeling his house.

The farmers in this section are all very busy.

Wm. Hornafius, a P. R. R. brakeman, of Harrisburg, was in town on Friday.

A birthday surprise was held for Mrs. Eliza Gallagher on Tuesday it being her 84th birthday.

William Witmer and family of Steelton, spent last Sunday in this place the guest of his parents.

The people in this place are glad to hear that Mrs. Max Nentwig of Florin, nee Metzger of this place, presented her husband with a big boy one day last week.

The Alderman is Ready.

"If the 'Aldermanic' coaster champion of Mount Joy fears no 'short cut' of his laurels he should meet every defi with an acceptance. Come and try the mile coast on the Maytown pike against the A B C."

The foregoing article appeared in the Marietta Register, and he is only too glad to meet all comers, at present the A B C preferred, provided he is given ample time to clean and oil up his bike's winter stiffened joints.

MANY LOCAL NOTES.

What Transpired in Our Busy Village Since the Last Issue.

No oysters next month.

Frank Eby is making a new pavement this week.

Rudolph Mark of Palmyra, was in town Sunday.

C. A. Wiley is assisting John Widman at painting.

H. L. Stoll was repairing his property on Monday.

A son was born to Max Nentwig and wife on Thursday.

E. S. Dyer contemplates going to Atlantic City to work.

Mrs. Frank Eby of New York city, is visiting in town.

John Roads was promoted from the bake shop to the farm.

Mrs. J. D. Easton visited her parents at Enhaut this week.

Harry Flowers of near Philadelphia, was in town on Sunday.

Robert Coble and wife of Bellaire were in town on Sunday evening.

George Stoll and wife of Harrisburg, visited friends here Sunday.

H. B. Nissley is busily engaged vacating and grading Orange street.

Layna Witmer of near Donegal visited Mrs. Jacob Rider on Sunday.

O. D. Donaven of Mount Joy, was the guest of Jacob Rider on Sunday.

W. H. Schutte and family entertained Prof. Lowe and wife during their stay here.

Martin Weltmer and E. F. Heiner are serving as jurymen at Lancaster this week.

E. B. Young and family of Red Lion, York county, spent Sunday in town with his father.

Contractor Menaugh started remodeling Eli Nissley's property at Cross Roads this week.

Mrs. Annie Breneman of Elizabethtown, spent Sunday as the guest of Eli Menaugh and wife.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Long of Mount Joy, spent Thursday in town the guest of W. H. Schutte and family.

Howard Musselman, a P. R. R. brakeman, and train despatcher H. G. Musselman, visited their father in town.

Harry Musselman has embarked in the poultry business and is raising Brown Leghorns and White Wyandotts.

William Abel, our new and energetic landlord, is well pleased with the present patronage and is making many friends here.

J. S. Carmany is making marked improvements to his property which will be occupied by Frank Fornwalt when completed.

A friend here received a letter from J. H. Menaugh who moved to Philadelphia recently, states that they are well pleased with their new home.

Mr. Hershey of the firm of Hershey, Schwenk & Slaymaker, grocers at Philadelphia, stopped off in town on Monday and called on our grocerymen.

James Duffy and wife and Wm. Fendrich and wife of Marietta, Mr. Martin and lady friend of Lancaster took supper at Hotel Florin on Sunday evening.

General Notes.

Arbutus is blooming.

Butter is still very high.

Garden making has begun.

Lovely spring is here at last.

Decoration Day is six weeks off.

The voice of the candidate is heard in the land.

The farmers cry, 'feed too dear.'

The workingmen say like wise.

The Ephrata monument is in position and ready for dedication.

Lancaster High school pupils planted 175 trees on Arbor day.

Hiestand's mill dam in Mount Joy township, is being repaired.

Fifteen million shad were caught in the Susquehanna river in 1901.

Farmers are finding 17-year locusts in the ground while plowing.

Since the first of April P. R. R. track repairs are receiving 13 cents per hour.

The Citizens' Band of Maytown, will hold a festival in their hall on the 28. Admission free.

Woolworth Roof garden at Lancaster, will open on April 28, much improved for the comfort of patrons.

Jacob Charles of near Rowenna, returned after a week's stay in Iowa singing 'There's no place like home.'

Johnathan Lewis, a Chester countian, husked his corn last week, having left the shocks in the field all winter.

Five-year-old Lillie Zwall, of Terry Hill, has made one comprised quilt and done the patchwork and four more.

Three large new show tents valued at 1,500, the property of Forepaugh & Sells Bros. went up in smoke at Philadelphia on Thursday afternoon.

The muck talked of Tar Roofing Paper Plant at Cly, a village near York Haven, looks to be a reality.

Could not the promoters be induced to locate here in Florin? H. B. Nissley still has a few more lots for sale along the P. R. R. siding.

Rooster Guards House.

Justice of the Peace J. B. Wisegarber, of Rapho township, is the owner of a rooster that has developed such fighting proclivities that it is dangerous for strangers to enter the Wisegarber premises unless his roostership is penned up. The bird has assumed the duties of a guard for the household and on the approach of a visitor he shows fight. Recently a few visitors walked into the house, encountered the rooster and they had considerable difficulty in getting away from him.

Another Free Delivery.

A petition for a rural mail route from the Marietta post office has been forwarded to Congressman Cassel. The proposed route will be east toward Chickies, north as far as Book's mill on the Mount Joy pike; from there west via Ramsey's blacksmith shop and Beattie's corner; thence west on the Stacks-town road to the river road, and return through Rowenna to the starting point.

Cattle Cause Trouble.

Benjamin Nolt has brought suit

MOU

Happenings

Yet

Ed. Benn

on duty Mo

Ralph U

in Garber's

For Sale

buggy. Im

at

Mrs. Maria Hoffman had a dog at her property last week.

A nearly new piano for sale cheap

Address box 275, Mount Joy, Pa.

Jno. W. McGinnes and W. H.

Strickler were at Philadelphia last Tuesday.

Robert Conley, of Mount Joy, has been granted a pension of $10 per month.

Select Councilman J. Valentine

Wise, of Lancaster, was in town on Wednesday.

The smiling countenance of Chas.

Hemperly of York, was seen in town this week.

Watches and clocks repaired promptly by Harry Peopple, Mount Joy, and all work guaranteed

Fine apple trees for spring planting for sale very cheap at Baker's coal yard, Mount Joy.

Mrs. Wm. Dillinger returned home from a visit to her parents at Chester on Saturday evening.

Dierolf and wife celebrated their seventh wedding anniversary on Wednesday evening.

Spring

effort to this loca

last com

The h

day was prices pr

started

Mrs.

ent sojo

visiting

panied

A live

all the maple tr

day, and

The

$42.06

and fut

the late

Mrs.

Jno. Dic

trip to D

where they

Our post

and person

every Sun

12. Mail

but none is

Infirm, p

the world who, far

taken to co

He was unt

B. F. Bo

sued invita

marriage of

M., to Sim

on Tuesday

p. m.

The Penn

Company, u

of Mr. Roll

K. Petty &

Boiler Wo