

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN

OL II. NO. 4.

FLORIN, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 25, 1902.

50 CENTS A YEAR

MOUNT JOY BOROUGH.

Openings of the Week Told in a Brief Yet Interesting Manner.
 Many mules are being sent from the coal regions to this county.
 A gang of men are busy repainting the railroad bridges in this place.
 The old side track on the dump, west of here, was taken up last week.
 Samuel Bookman, wife and son Charlie, of York, spent Sunday in town.
 Meredith Hollenbaugh, of Tanawaca, spent Sunday with his parents near town.
 The adoption degree was conferred to a pale face by the Red Men on Friday evening.
 Jacob Schroll and wife attended the funeral of James Heiser at Newport on Thursday.
 Next Saturday the Olympics of Lancaster will be the local team's opponents on the diamond.
 J. E. Longenecker, the green grocer, has opened the water melon season with a fine lot of Jerseys.
 A key was found on the pavement at the Washington House, recently. Owner can have same by calling.
 Mr. Rollhauser shipped a ton of sugar from his establishment, to Bainbridge, N. Y. on Saturday.
 The dwelling occupied by Harvey Easton and Irvin Walters in the west end of town will wear a slate roof ere long.
 Dr. S. P. Lytle has purchased the Simon's property on East Main Street at present occupied by Eli Ebersole and Mrs. Shrader.
 Not quite satisfied with his drum corps reputation, Charles Dillinger has joined the Mount Joy band and is shaking the sticks.
 The Samuel Kurtz property on East Main street, is being remodeled and when completed will be occupied by Mr. Rollhauser and family.
 Philip Frank and grand children Frank and Frank, left for New York on Monday. They sailed yesterday on their trip across the pond.
 The Detwiler property on Manchester street which is tenanted by Henry Pinkerton and George Poff is being remodeled. Will Easton is also painting it.
 While unloading beer at Columbia on Saturday, Harry Shellenberger had the middle finger of his right hand mashed. It was treated at the Columbia hospital.
 Schlegelmilch & Welfley, blacksmiths in the east end of town, dissolved partnership on Wednesday and the business will hereafter be conducted by Jos. Welfley.
 Messrs Owen Brandt Frank Schock Edgar Hamaker and Ross Engle accompanied by their lady friends spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Howard Longenecker on Thursday.
 John M. Shiner, a baker for C. L. Eby and Miss Anna M. Heilig, were united in marriage at the parsonage of Grace Lutheran church in Lancaster, on Wednesday evening, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. C. E. Haupt.

Do you Need Any?

Seward A. Ricker, the progressive photographer at Mount Joy, has just completed the finest lot of pictures ever taken in this borough. They are 8x10 bromide enlargements from 4x5 negatives and represent the two farms of John M. Rrandt, about two miles north of Mount Joy namely Hillside and Clearview. He makes all sizes, styles and shaped photos at reasonable prices. Developing and printing for amateurs a specialty. He invites you to call and see his samples. Galley open every day.

A Fine Specimen.

J. Harry Roland, of Philadelphia has sent to his father John W. Roland, at Mount Joy, his thoroughbred beagle hound, "Judy". It is one of the handsomest specimens of that species ever seen in this vicinity and was whelped in a leading Philadelphia kennel.

Salunga Notes.

Jackson Wise has purchased a new horse which makes a fine appearance.
 Simon Hershey raised his new barn at Landisville on last Friday.
 Annie Miller, of Mount Joy, was the guest of Samuel Miller on Sunday.
 Henry Harry has treated his team in the ice wagon to a new set of bells.
 Samuel Eby, wife, daughter, have been visiting her sick mother at Brunnerville.
 John Frey, on Monday raised his new barn. It will be a neat building when completed.
 Henry Bear has his foundation walls built to erect a new corn barn and tobacco shed combined.
 Hiram Kauffman raised his new barn on Tuesday, which is being built by Albert Sheetz.
 William Cooper has again left home to work at Mountville, where he has been employed some time ago.
 Mrs. Ira Herr was enjoying the pleasure of planting sweet potatoes in the rain at Chiques on Monday evening.
 Amos Heistand's team of mules ran off in a sulkey Cultivator, completely demolishing it, also tearing the harness.
 Martin Nissley is again out of doors. He was confined to the house for some time, treating a felon on his thumb.
 R. D. Raffensberger just put out two pair of surrey harness, finished in nickle, to Alderman Rouch, of Lancaster, and has orders for several more sets.
 Lightning on Saturday evening struck into Norman Newcomer's barn, but did very little damage, only breaking a few rafters and tearing off some slats.
 Henry Weidman, has been laid off a few weeks at Landisville tobacco press factory on account of lack of coal and water.
 An accident occurred at raising of John Frey's barn on Monday, which might have been fatal, by the falling of a heavy plank from the scaffolding and striking Amos Kreider on the back and slightly bruising him.

Successful Shad Season.

The shad fishermen have summed up their season's catches. The Haines fishery leads with a total catch of 2,661, largest catch at a haul 64 and largest catch for a night May 22, 321. The Keesey fishery caught 1,600 during the season. Their largest catch for a night was 200, but they have the record, 134, at a single haul. From a standpoint of individual profit, there being but three men engaged in the work while the others had from 8 to 11, the gill netters were far in the lead. Their catch was: single float, 24; single night, 66; season, 1,074.

Hay Crop a Failure.

Farmers are hay making such as it is. A few weeks ago the crop promised well but the dry weather caused a collapse from which the grass and clover failed to recover and the crop is a dismal failure. The clover is in many sections not worth cutting. The second crop is looked forward to for better results should reasonable rains come. The rain during last week were greatly needed and it will take many more to advance the crops.

His Third Promotion.

Howard M. Musselman son of Harry Musselman who started on his railroad career as assistant baggage agent about twenty months ago was promoted to an extra brakeman on a passenger six months ago and last week was again promoted as flagman on a passenger train from Philadelphia to Paoli. We are glad to hear of his last jump and are sure that our former townsman has not reached the high prong on his ladder.

MANY LOCAL NOTES.

What Transpired in Our Busy Village Since the Last Issue.
 Mrs. George Shires is on the sick list.
 Charles Carson was at Lancaster on Friday.
 Mrs. John Hossler spent several days at York last week.
 Peter Kraybill and wife were visitors to Maytown Sunday.
 Emma and Tillie Widman were at Middletown over Sunday.
 Elias Carson, made a trip to Philadelphia last Wednesday.
 Harvey Risser and family of Lawn spent Sunday with C. A. Wiley.
 Mary Ann Easton and daughter Annie, were at Lancaster Saturday.
 Mrs. Hertzler of near town, spent several days in this place last week.
 Mrs. Bert Fisher and daughter of Lancaster spent Sunday in town.
 Jacob Kline and family spent Sunday at Landisville with friends.
 The floor of Schutte's new store was saturated with oil one day last week.
 Miss Annie Brandt, of Middletown, is visiting at William Widman's.
 John Hambright returned home from Lebanon Valley College on Friday.
 Mrs. Clara Barlow of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with the family of W. H. Schutte.
 It is rumored that Florin will have the third coach works before many days pass by.
 Mrs. John Musselman and Mrs. Barr, were callers at the home of S. S. Stacks on Sunday.
 A malsate cat strolled from the premises of H. H. Myers near town. Reward for its return.
 Martin Weltmer, William Dierolf Phares Kraybill and Charles Carson, were at Palmyra on Sunday.
 Messrs. Wm. Abel, Amos Eicherly, Wm. Widman jr., Chas. Shatz, spent Friday at York Haven.
 Watches and clocks repaired promptly by Harry Peopple, Mount Joy, and all work guaranteed.
 Charles Warner and wife left for Baltimore on Saturday after spending two weeks in town with friends.
 One hundred young folks enjoyed a basket bingo party at D. A. Hollenbaugh's farm, on Saturday evening.
 George Shillow of Columbia, bought one of Young Bros. new and latest style runabouts on Saturday.
 Young Bros. have just completed a rubber tired bike wagon with a very stylish body which was built for their own use.
 Mrs. Uriah Stoler showed us the largest cauliflower ever seen in this section. We would advise her to keep it for the county fair.
 Frank Widman accompanied by two gentlemen, H. G. Stacks and friend Mr. Swartz, and John Musselman and gentleman friend, all of Lancaster, were in town on Sunday.
 The improvements at E. L. Nissley's mansion at the Cross Roads are not all made yet. The house is being painted while the interior will be enameled white. The work is being done by Emlin Buller and his painters.
 Andrew Berder, of Dillsburg, York county, a former pupil of C. A. Wiley, now a student at Lebanon Valley College, was the guest of the latter on Sunday. Mr. Berder is now engaged in canvassing stereopticon views.
 Elvin Baker of this place, and Miss Margaret Ebersole of Mount Joy, were united in marriage at that place on Sunday. They went to housekeeping in their newly furnished home on West Donegal street and have our best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Rapho Gleanings.

Cherries are ripe—so are locusts.
 Mrs. U. Z. Geib was stung on the neck last Friday by a seventeen-year locust.
 Miss Rena Geib of near Old Line, spent Sunday with her parents and Miss Mamie Gibble.
 Where is the party that several weeks ago was through here selling free delivery mail boxes.
 Twenty-seven cents per pound is what Messrs. Reist, Nissley & Co. paid their patrons for butter fat.
 The Central Rapho Fishing Club eight strong, were out fishing on Friday night. Four eels were captured which were divided into eight shares.
 During the thunder storm last Thursday evening, lightning struck a tree on the farm of C. Good and reduced it to kindling wood. On Saturday evening a bolt of lightning struck a poplar tree on the farm of Samuel Gantz. Another bolt struck and spent its fury in the garden fence on the premises of Nathan Gibble.
East Donegal Items.
 Mrs. Christian Simons is on the sick list.
 Daniel Musser finished making hay last week.
 Jacob Hoffines just finished planting ten acres of tobacco.
 Jacob Strickler attended a picnic at Aecomac last Saturday.
 Daniel Arnold had his thumb cut off while chopping wood last week.
 Strickler Brothers have discontinued hauling stone for a week or two.
 Quite a number of farmers about here are taking advantage of the free market stalls at Marietta.
 Miss Phoebe Heisey, who is visiting relatives in this section, will leave for her home in Kansas this week.
 The people around here need not wonder any longer why Harry Heislet is wearing such a broad smile. A girl.
Must Take Their Medicine.
 Following are extracts from Columbia papers:
 Health Officer Paine is continuing his crusade against the citizens of Mount Joy who can not show certificates of vaccination. Thursday morning a coffee and tea peddler of Mount Joy, came to Columbia to dispose of his goods. He was captured and taken to a physicians office where he was vaccinated and allowed to go on his way. The man positively refused to divulge his name to the officer or to the physician. But that made no difference, he had to be vaccinated and was.
 Two more citizens came to Columbia on Tuesday and when they returned home each had a "birdie" on his arm.
 Others coming from Mount Joy to peddle about town will receive the same dose.
 "Next!"
Will Hold a Clinic.
 Prof. H. A. Hare, of Jefferson Medical College, of Philadelphia, will hold a clinic before the Lancaster City Pathological Society in the Lancaster City and County Medical Society rooms, in Malta Temple, 40 W. King street, on Friday afternoon, June 27, 1902. Lancaster City and County Medical Society has been invited to attend.—From a Lancaster Daily.
Trying to Defeat Strikers.
 The Marietta Casting Company is trying to defeat the strike of the moulders that left their work several weeks ago. The company has a large number of orders on hand and to fill them they have imported castings from another town. One car load arrived on Thursday morning. These will be finished in the Marietta shop and then reshipped.

BASE BALL.

Litzitz Carries Off Honors After a Hard Fought Game.
 Mount Joy was up against the real thing on Saturday which resulted in a very fine game. Both Carpenter and Henery pitched fine ball but the former had slightly the best of the argument. This was the article of ball that the spectators were looking for, as it was either side's game until the last man was out in the ninth. The score is appended:

Mount Joy	r	h	o	a	e
Engle, c f	2	0	2	0	0
Shreiner, 1 f	1	1	2	0	0
McElligott, 3b	1	0	0	0	2
Schock, c	0	0	5	0	0
Longenecker, 2b	0	0	0	4	1
Brandt, 1b	0	0	12	0	1
Brunner, ss	0	2	3	4	0
Hendrix, rf	0	0	0	0	0
Henery, p	0	0	0	0	0
Total	4	3	24	11	4

Litzitz	r	h	o	a	e
Loecheer, ss	1	1	0	3	1
Haines, rf	0	2	1	0	0
Carpenter, p	2	3	1	6	0
Miller, 3b	2	1	0	1	1
Kauffman, 1b	0	3	15	0	0
Brubaker 2b,	0	0	0	2	2
Evans, lf	0	1	1	0	0
Moyer, c	0	0	8	1	0
Plantz, cf	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	5	11	27	13	4

Mount Joy 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 1—4
 Litzitz 1 0 2 0 1 0 1 0 x—5
Diamond Dust.
 Bruner played well at short.
 Ross made a peach slide in the third.
 A hair-raising stop was made by Carpenter.
 The K has not yet lost his batting streak.
 Owen must have thought he was playing foot ball.
 Carpenter did what his heart ached him to do for years—beat Mount Joy.
 Litzitz's 200 pound third baseman said if Mount Joy gets to first they will "flop around de bases" whether or not the ball is hit.
Joint and Vicinity.
 Wheat fields look promising.
 The noise of the reaper is heard in the land.
 Farmers are done planting tobacco around here.
 Martin Buckwalter is kept busy taking pictures, having recently purchased a camera.
 Some of our folks think it would be a good idea to bottle a little of the present heat for this winter.
 John Iehler, of Florin, who is 66 years of age, pitched hay for Elmer Engle and said he wouldn't mind a race.
 Elias Eby and family, San Garber and family and Mrs. Nathaniel Garman were the guests of Henry Ziegler on Sunday evening.
Killed on the Railroad.
 James Heiser, of Newport, while returning home from the store with a basket of groceries, and accompanied by two men, on Tuesday evening, was struck and killed by a passenger train. Deceased is survived by a wife and six sons. The funeral was held on Thursday. This is the third uncle of the editor of this paper, that was killed within the past four years.
Transfers of Real Estate.
 Joseph B. Aldinger to Hallie W. Hoffer, dwelling and lot in Mount Joy township, consideration $1,000.
 Winfield L. Heisey to the Board of School Directors of West Donegal township, a lot of ground at Rheems, consideration, $200.
Fell From a Cherry Tree.
 Last Sunday John Heisey, son of Cyrus Heisey, fell a distance of about 20 feet from a cherry tree at home in Milton Grove and fractured both bones of his left arm between the elbow and wrist. Dr. W. B. Thome dressed the injuries, and the patient is doing well.

Donegal Springs

Harry Martin bought a fine horse on Wednesday.
 A. C. Rutherford sold a horse to E. S. Weaver of Florin, last week.
 C. H. Vanasland bought a new organ on Wednesday from the Weaver Organ Company's agent.
 William Geib and family of Donegal, and David Bishop of Elizabeth town, visited Cyrus Schroll on Sunday.
 A. B. Lutz, wife and two sons Harvey and David, visited Mrs. Lutz's parents near Harrisburg on Sunday.
 Cyrus Schroll, wife and the former's mother Mrs. Sarah Schroll, attended the funeral of James Heiser at Newport on Thursday.
 Hon. J. D. Cameron went to New York on Saturday and will sail for Europe today, where he will spend part of the summer.
 Clara Handson left for her home at Beverly Farms, Mass., on Monday, where she will remain this summer. She was accompanied to Philadelphia by Mrs. Cherry.
Sporting Hill.
 Henry Keener spent Sunday with friends at Annville.
 Miss Maria Vogel is spending several weeks in Columbia.
 D. A. Dissinger was appointed fourth-class post-master at this place.
 A festival was held in the school yard by the Sunday school on Saturday evening.
 The Union Sunday school observed Children's Day on Sunday evening. The title of the service was "Blue Skies and Sunny Hours."
 Clayton B. Erb and friend Miss Ida M. Long and Frank Eby and friend Miss Fannie N. Stehman tendered a surprise party to John N. Stehman on Saturday evening. One hundred couple were present.
A Curious Occurrence.
 A rather curious occurrence happened on the Mount Joy branch of the Pennsylvania railroad on Wednesday evening. The train due in Lancaster at 8 o'clock had eight cars. When it stopped at Elizabeth town the engine and one car became uncoupled from the remainder of the train. The engineer, without making the discovery, started off and ran all the way down to Rheems station, a distance of two miles, with one car. When he found out the state of affair he was obliged to run back to Elizabethtown.
Saturday Night's Party.
 A large number of young folks were present at Samuel Hinkle's Milton Grove hotel on Saturday evening and had a fine time. Messrs. Nentwig and Walters of Florin, furnished music for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle have the reputation of pleasantly entertaining each and every one and such was the case this time. As usual, Mount Joy and Florin was well represented.
Gravity Water for Kinderhook.
 J. A. Mouk, Harry and Edward Longenecker, have laid an inch-and-a-quarter pipe line from the meadow of Mr. Mouk, at Kinderhook, to the stream sand plant of Longenecker Bros. just south of Florin. The pipe line is about a half mile long and has proven a good thing for Kinderhook, as connections have been placed in the pipe and eight families can obtain pure spring water for their homes.
Base Ball Schedule.
 The Mount Joy base ball team has thus far arranged the following games:
 June 28—Olympics of Lancaster.
 July 4—Keystones of Harrisburg.
 Two games.
 " 5—Ephrata at Ephrata.
 " 15—Lancaster A. C.
 " 19—Actives of Middletown.
 " 28—Litzitz.

RHEEMS STATION.

What Transpires in the Busy Village West of Here
 Phares Groff spent a few days in Lebanon this week, visiting his sister Sadie.
 David Henry and family and Martin Wolgemuth attended the love feast at Pennville last week.
 Isaac Kupp, mason, of Milton Grove, has the contract to erect the foundation for the annex to Isaac Groff's machine shop.
 Reist and Peirce have a large lot of men and women employed thinning out the peaches and pears in their orchards near here.
 Adam Stump, constable of West Donegal township, sailed for Germany from New York last Tuesday expecting to return in six weeks.
 Last Friday while one of W. L. Heisey's men were cultivating corn with a riding cultivator one of his horses took sick and died the following day.
 Amos Bricker and family, of near Mount Joy, Henry Zeiger and family and Samuel Shearer and family, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wolgemuth of this place.
 Jacob Y. Kline stone and brick masons of Florin, and his force of men commenced to wall in the 60 horse power boiler at the east end of the warehouse last week.
 Leander Groff, has the contract to furnish the limestone for the foundation for the annex to Bossler's meeting house. The members are hauling the stone at present.
 Albert Gise, carpenter of Elizabethtown, was awarded the contract to furnish lumber and complete the new school house at this place. He received two cars of lumber last week.
 S. G. Graybill, is digging a well to get a supply of water for the large steam engine he is having erected. He purchased engine and fixtures from Isaac Grove, which they moved Monday morning.
General Notes.
 The potato crop on the dump, Mount Joy looks blue.
 The Salunga correspondent of the Elizabethtown Chronicle says: Alice Bube and daughters, etc. How would Alois do?
 T. D. Smith, who resides on Simon Breneman's farm in Conoy township, has a four-legged turkey from this year's hatching.
 A canvas of the borough of Steelton shows that there are 800 Greeks residing in that town. A priest is endeavoring to start a Greek church.
 Several Mount Joyians spent part of Sunday on the Mount Joy cemetery viewing the surroundings through a telescope. Among the views was a lady climbing down a cherry tree, which nearly caused a riot as all wanted to look through the telescope at once.
Milton Grove
 John K. Eshelman, is erecting a new barn at his home one mile west of town.
 Menno Hess made some necessary improvements to the barn on his farm near town.
 A new fence surrounding the meadow of Mr. Mouk, at Kinderhook, was built by a liberal and skillful application of red paint.
 J. Heisey, occupying Isaac Heiser's tenant house, near Heiser's church had two ribs fractured a few days ago by a kick of a horse.
 John Haldeman, cut his foot very badly with an axe while cutting wood. The axe handle slipped in his hand and the full force of the stroke fell on his bare foot inflicting an ugly gash.
 One of our young men was so twisted that he could not open door to enter the house Saturday evening. Was it because the door was too tight?
 Climbing a porch post is not common.