A Little Bit Off.

The writer of the base ball arti- in last week's issue of the Eliza- htown Chronicle, is a little off eggs when he says that Graybill o pitched part of the game here o weeks ago, is from Maytown, as was born and raised here. An her thing we would like to know how our team got 21 runs with ly six hits. Anybody can play all and make errors but not every- ody [especially Elizabethtown] can lay ball without making errors. Before E'town can have that third game which the Chronicle speaks of their team must learn how to play a game with considerable less than
