

LY BULLETIN

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1902.

50 CENTS

Sale of Real Estate.

Man H. Myers sold to Dr. S. Joy Borough; consideration,

Henry M. Biemesderfer of Columbia, sold at private sale his farm, in Rapho township, one mile west of Reporting Hill, containing 91 acres, to Mr. Christian Longenecker for $12,000.

Auct. C. H. Zeller, of Mt. Joy offered at public sale on Saturday for Justice J. Hay Brown, seventy acres of chestnut timber land at Liberty Square. The tract was bought by A. L. Herr, of Collins, for $30 per acre.

Auctioneer S. G. Summy, of Manheim, on Wednesday sold at Public sale, for Jacob W. Snyder, a tract of 8 acres and 58 perches of timber land, in Rapho township, near Old Line, to Henry B. Becker, of Rapho township for $130.50.

The Sheriff on Saturday afternoon sold a tract of land in Mount Joy township, containing 47 acres, on which are erected a two-story dwelling house and frame bank barn, seized as the property of Andrew C. Good, J. S. Hackman, terre tenant, to H. A. Garman, for $100.

In Mount Joy Hall.

The La Clair & Beecher Big Stock company will produce on its last night [tonight] in the Mount Joy hall, the military drama, North and South. The company is a large one and has given good satisfaction to large houses on Monday and Tuesday evening. They will give a ten cent matinee this afternoon with an entire change of program. Rarely has the public been afforded the opportunity to witness such an array of talent in any one company heretofore. Prices 10, 20, 30

Rheems School Dedicated.

The dedication of the new public school house at Rheems took place Saturday afternoon and was attended with interesting exercises. The programme included recitations, music and addresses by State Superintendent N. C. Shaeffer and County Superintendent M. J. Brecht. A large flag presented by the residents of the town was unfurled from the flag pole.

Chance to Get a Couch.

E. C. Hertzler, the east end merchant at Mount Joy, is giving a ticket bearing a number with every twentyfive cent purchase made at his store. The couch is a fine one and can be seen in the window. It will be chanced off December 20, 1902. Here is a chance to get a couch for nothing, should you hold the lucky number.

Death of a Young Man.

Charles Stacks, a well known young druggist of Steelton, formerly a resident of this place, died at the former place last Tuesday afternoon, after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 30 years. The funeral was held here on Thursday afternoon and was very largely attended.

Fall and Winter Goods.

H. E. Ebersole, the west end merchant at Mount Joy, on Monday received an immense stock for his store which can be seen by calling. Stock larger and finer than ever. Read his ad elsewhere and he will tell you all about it.

Another Free Mail Route.

The Postoffice Department at Washington has given notice that a rural free mail delivery route would be established on November 1 which will be supplied from Rheems.

Apple Trees For Sale.

A lot of prime apple trees, ready for fall planting, are for sale at wholesale prices at Baker's coal yard, Mount Joy. The varieties are York Imperial, Smith's Cider and Smokehouse.

OF GENERAL INTEREST

Many Interesting Local Notes From all Over the County.

Corn husking has begun.

Marietta wagons are now hauling coal from Mount Joy.

A marriage license was granted to Benjamin M. Flory, of Penn and Mary B. Snavelly, of Rapho.

David B. Forney, Jr., and Lizzie G. Brubaker, both of Mount Joy township were granted a marriage license.

The rural route to be started from Marietta November 1st, will take in Maytown, Ramsey's blacksmith shop and Rowenna.

Wood cut among the rocks and hills of York county, far away from a wagon road, sells for $2.50 per cord. Six months ago it sold for $1.00.

There's many an advertising medium that goes into every house; but does every one in the house read it after it arrives?—They do the Bulletin.

While working at Campbell's planing mill, Marietta, on Friday Frederick Shultz, of Mount Joy, had his left hand caught in a jointer and four fingers were badly mangled.

The Marietta Hollow-Ware and Enameling Company have settled all differences with their men and the strike of the past four months is over and work will resume on Monday.

The News of Newtown.

How mortals would like to hear the music of the coal chute.

The Citizen's Band of this place held a festival on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Chas. Witmer and family, were visiting at John Witmer's on Saturday.

Mrs. Rufus Hipple spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Groff of Lancaster.

The Quarterly Conference of the United Brethren Church was held at this place on Saturday and Sunday.

B. M. Metzler of Mt. Joy placed an iron pump in D. R. Frysinger's well on Wednesday, the first of its kind in town.

A man in this town skinned his nose while asleep the other night and did not know it until the next morning, when he immediately cut his finger nails shorter.

East Donegal Items

Mrs. Harry Beates was pleased to entertain her two sisters from Oberlin, last week.

Whooping cough is prevalent through East Donegal. Gosse greisse is in demand.

Jacob Goss is the first person in this section to report that his corn is all out and shocked.

Tobacco is all housed by this time; the last was put away on Thursday in this section.

Last week Benj. Troutwine raised his potatoes. The yield was about two hundred and fifty bushels.

Louis Hartman who has been spending the past few weeks with Daniel Musser, has returned to his home at Royersford, near Philadelphia, where he will work at his trade, that of saddlery.

Other Mount Joy Locals.

Florin will play the G. I. C. Club at Mount Joy on Saturday Batteries; Hollenbaugh, Baker and Fellenbaum; Ebersole and Kramer.

Some school boy threw a stone through one of the windows in the basement of the hall on Tuesday after school.

Please Rub His Head.

Talk about ideas, why the people in this town are brimful of them and good ones, too. The latest is. Instead of removing the sand under a crossing stone so that the water can pass off, the stone was raised four inches, now being higher than the curb. It will soon be an overhead bridge we reckon.

Milton Grove.

"The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year."

We were very much in need of the rain we had last week.

Some of the town people are making desperate efforts to get coal.

E. F. Grosh made a business trip to Rheems and Mount Joy Monday.

John Wittle and family, of Maytown, visited the former's parents. The Sunday school held in the Evangelical church at Milton Grove closed on Sunday.

It was reported that Ervin Shiffer was seen in the vicinity of Manheim on Saturday.

Will Hollowbush and mother, of Mount Joy, visited friends in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Samuel Groff, of this place, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Peter Stern, Wednesday.

The German Baptists will hold their annual children's meeting at Stern's meeting house on Sunday.

Mrs. Peter Snavelly and son Ralph of Elizabethtown, spent Tuesday pleasantly in the family of F. B. Grosh.

Miss Carrie Carter, of Manheim, is making her home with Mine Host at the present.

Miss Lizzie and Mamie Hershey and Elizabeth Eby, after sojourning in town for a few days, left for home Tuesday.

Abe Young, of near this place, was united in marriage to Miss Zeager at the home of the bride's parents Thursday.

Dr. W. B. Thome accompanied his son Winfield Thome, to Baltimore, where the latter is again attending medical college.

The young people of Milton Grove have decided to organize a Young People's Christian meeting on Sunday evening at the Evangelical church.

We have two young students in town, one formerly from Elizabethtown college, and the other from Baltimore medical college. They now meet weekly, we think, for educational purposes.

Landisville Gleanings

The Minnich Machine Works have been compelled to lay off nearly all their employes on account of being unable to get the material with which to manufacture their presses.

Jacob Fulmer moved from the Peter Hershey property into widow Hershey's house and Harry Swarr moved from the Christian Sworthley property into the house vacated by Mr. Fulmer, last week.

A. B. Hambright, middle track operator at the P. P. R. tower is off duty two weeks and together with his wife and child have gone to Lebanon where they will attend the Annual Conference of United Brethren Church. While gone they will also visit friends at Myerstown, Annville and Palmyra. Operator Fred Minnich of this place will fill the vacancy at the tower.

Donegal Springs

H. B. Nissley's peach crop about over.

Jacob Zook paid his brother a visit on Sunday.

Sarah A. Schroll has a sun-stalk that has 21 flowers.

Rev. McAllister and wife, Maine, paid a visit to the last week.

A. C. Rutherford shipped bushels of potatoes to P. on Monday.

E. F. Ruhl and friend Martin and friend visited parents on Sunday.

Samuel Barnhart arrived at Donegal home on Sunday in absence of over a month.

David and Harvey Deodate, were the guests of uncle, Cyrus Schroll.

RHEEMS

Three cars of lumber were received here last week.

Jacob Killian and Leander Groff's stone

A few more desks arrived last week and in position.

Heck & Brandt, reworked the well at the warehouse week's lay off.

Clayton Garman found new shoes while returning other evening.

B. F. Groff of Elizabethtown will furnish the lumber for Enterline's double house.

John Smith received a quarter ton of iron for the manufacture of the famous J. C. wagon jacks.

Pierce & Lehman, wholesale tobacco dealers, loaded a carload of seedleaf at the warehouse last day.

Mrs. Jacob Erb, who had collar bone broken a few weeks in a driving accident, is gradually improving.

Leander Groff received the tract to furnish stone for the walls of the large houses erected by Mrs. Gish and Doede in Elizabethtown.

While driving in a trot on one evening last week were thrown out of the arch at this place, by a team ahead. Both were damaged.

The new school house place was dedicated on the afternoon. Very appropriate discourses were given of the school. Several speakers were present a large number of people.

Another Game

This is beginning a song of the Florida but at any rate is a fault. The game played on Saturday in town, we don't played. On when the sun the management town Wond they would wet. Well but it will are anxious game and by Blough Epler and these wance and If these ing F. happy "read be the paper sh