come by educating the masses. Higher standards of righteousness pur- come by changes in our laws that will effectively prevent undue accu- mulation and divert native energy to things worth while; or it may come in some way of which we have not thought. If the republic is to en- dure and if all the promise of history is not to be crushed by a strange re- turn to force and tyranny, the reign of justice must come and every pos- sible manner of its coming reduces to the same ultimatum—the work of strong men.

God give us men! A time like this demands

Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands.

Men whom the lust of office does not kill;

Men whom the spoils of office can- not buy,

Men who possess opinions and a will, Men who have honor, men who will not lie;

Men who can stand before a dema- gogue

And damn his treacherous flatter- ies without winking!

Tall men who live above the fog, In public duty and in private think- ing.

For while the rabble with their thumbworn creeds

Their large professions and their little deeds

Mingle in selfish strife—lo! Freedom weeps,

Wrong rules the land, and waiting Justice sleeps.

When petty party principles are put aside and leaders of this descrip- tion are placed in office, men will be raised above the plane of asking, like Judas Iscariot—"How much will you give?"

The world will realize its dream of united continents and the roaring sounds of the interven- ing oceans will echo in harmony with the songs of redeemed humanity in thanks to God that Justice reigns supreme.

become. This aim they struggled for all their years, finally accomplish- ing the great result. But definite- ness of this kind is not the most im- portant thing in relation to the ideals that are to influence our careers. The most determined nature is often de- flected from its aims, but the man who is governed by ideals of indus- try, of honor, of courage, of high at- tainment in whatever he undertakes, will find his place wherever duty calls and the world will be the better for his having stepped into it for awhile and done his part bravely.

Into a studio was brought a large block of Parian marble. There was nothing unusual in its appearance. It stood there many days. The workmen passed to and fro, some laid their tools upon it, others sat on it, but none of them ever realized the possibilities of beauty it contain- ed. One day John Flaxman came in- to the studio; after a stay of a few hours, behold there stood forth his celebrated statue "The Archangel Michael Vanquishing Satan." Why? Study his life, and you will find that through a long period of toil and pre- paration, the mind was trained and the hand was skilled to bring forth such a splendid work of art. So, for each man "The Marble Waiteth." An undeveloped world lies all around us. It awaits the cultured mind and the skilled hand. Second class men are a drug in a market. It is in every man to be first-class.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's catarrh cure is taken internal- ly, acting directly upon the blood, and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the consti- tution and assisting nature, in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.
