Pleasures of Travel.

One of the charms of travel, says a well-known writer, is to encounter people or scenes which remind us of home. A Cape Cod man who left his native port many years ago, and had spent the greater part of his time in England, recently went to Kingston, Iamaica.

One day, while waiting for a train to Port Antonio, he noticed a tall, young man, evidently a stranger.

"He was white and I was white, and that was enough," said the Cape Cod man, in telling the story.

"I spoke to him, and asked if he was as far from home as I was, mentioning London as my home. He responded that his home was San Francisco, and we were soon exchanging confidences. He said his people moved to California our years before from Massachusetts. I asked him what place in Massachu-setts, and he said Wellfleet; said he was born in Wellfleet. I asked him in what part of the town his folks had lived, and he said the southern part, and I could see he was smiling at my curiosity.

"Was your place anywhere near the old Cromwell place?" said I. "He looked at me in astonishment. "'Why yes,' said he, 'the very next farm.'

"'Well,' said I, 'then your name is Jones. Mine is Cromwell, and I own

Elections in Brazil.

A writer in Argonaut declares that in Brazil the elections are a farce. The ballots are hardly ever counted, for the government nominates its ticket, and then, after an election, announces all its candidates elected. "A year or so ago," he says, "an American, who had settled in Bahia, the second largest city in Brazil, was made an election clerk, and was told to bring the returns from an interior town into Bahia. After the election had closed, the clerk took the returns and hastened away, guarding them with the greatest care. He rode his horse hard, for he felt that the suspense would be great at Bahia until the returns he was carrying were received! What was his chagrin, therefore, to hand his package over to the chief election clerk, only to see it thrown into the waste-basket. "Here, what are you doing?' he "'Throwing them away,' was the answer, 'we don't need them now.' "Don't need them? stammered the American, who had been brought up to regard a violation of the election laws as treasonable.

"The government has elected its men was the answer; 'we don't need any more votes.'

"Here the inspector opened the package and showed the astonished American a quantity of blanks, each of which was signed, with a space to be filled in with any number necessary to elect the government candidates.

Women Made Strong and Happy

Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs is a Frequent Cause of Barrenness.

Pe-ru-na Eradicates Catarrh From the System,

To the woman of ancient Israel not to become a mother was regarded as the greatest of earthly calamities. To become a mother—more especially the mother of a strong, healthy boy—was the height of glory for the faithful woman of the good old Bible days. Even now, when maternity is not esteemed as of yore, the mother of healthy children is an object of admiration, and sometimes envy, by her neighbors. As compared with ancient peoples, the average American woman has a low appreciation of motherhood. There are, however, a great many exceptions to this statement.

The accompanying letters from grateful women who have been made strong, healthy and happy mothers need no added words of ours to make them convincing. Catarrh had weakened and impaired their entire systems. Peruna made them sound and well.

Mrs. L. M. Griffith, Arco, Idaho, writes:
"Your medicine did me a wonderful amount of good. It cured me of barrenness. I am 30 years old and never had any children; but since beginning your medicine I gave birth to a 10-pound baby

A YOUNG MOTHER'S LETTER.

Mrs. W. McRoberts, writes to Dr. Hartman from Delano, Miss., the Doctor S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio: Dear Sir:-"I feel perfectly well of catarrh, I did as you directed me to and took Peruna and Manalin. The third of March I gave birth to a 10-pound baby girl and we are both well and happy. I am very thankful to you, and Peruna saved my life. I recommend it to everyone and can't praise it enough.

"I send you my own and my baby's picture. She is so sweet and good, -she is a Peruna baby. I have such good health now. I do all my housework and take care of my baby, and feel so good.

There are three or four of my neighbors using Peruna now, since it did me so much good. They were just run down, and they think it is fine. It is so good to give strength."-Mrs. W. McRoberts.

When the House Burned. The Pilgrim tells the story of a woman property holder in New York whose agent brought her an insurance policy on her house.

"You'd better give me a check for the premium now," he said.

"How much is it?" she asked.
"A little more than one hundred dollars. Wait a minute and I will get the exact amount. "Oh, how tiresome!" said the lady. And I am in such a hurry! Tell the company to let it stand, and deduct it from what they will owe me when the girl. She is now six months old and weighs 25 pounds. My friends were all surprised. Some would not believe it until they came to see me.

"My husband, says he never saw such a change in any one as there was in me after 1 had taken three or four bottles of Peruna. I am stronger than I have been since I was onite young. God bless you and your medicine forever. I cannot tell you all. My letter is too long already; but I will say Peruna cured me. I never saw or heard of anything half so good. I can never thank you enough for your kindness. In cases of la grippe it works like a charm. It cured my baby when other medicines failed. She was real bad with la grippe, "—Mrs. L. M. Griffith.

Mrs. C. E. Thomas, Alpha, Mo., writes:
"I have used your Peruna and Manalin. I had been doctoring for several years, but kept getting worse. One day a neighbor woman brought me your book, the 'Ills woman brought me your book, the 'Ills of Life, and wahted me to take your medicine. My neighbors thought I was nearly dead with consumption.

"Finally I concluded that I would make a last trial. So my husband got me a bottle of Peruna and Manalin. I commenced taking them according to directions. That was two years ago. A year ago last November I gave birth to a 10-pound baby boy, who is well and hearty; and I am doing my own housework. I can never heard of."

Mrs. E. E. Thomas.

"I have used your Peruna and Manalin. I write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a last rial. So my husband got me a bottle of Peruna. I am settered taking them according to directions.
