

THE WEEKLY

VOL. III. NO. 8.

MOUNT JOY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY

OBITUARY NOTES

A Number of Well Known People Pass Away.

The year-and-a-half old son of Abram Fry and wife, who reside in the Detwiler property near town, died on Friday afternoon. The funeral was held yesterday with interment in the Florin cemetery.

Harvey H. Eby, son of Emanuel Eby, of this borough died Saturday morning at the county hospital. He was twenty-seven years of age. The body was shipped to Mount Joy where the funeral was held on Tuesday.

John Shertzer, an old resident of this place died Friday morning at the county hospital from old age. He was ninety three years old. He was a weaver by trade and worked at it until he was compelled to quit owing to his age. His wife lives in the West and he has a son, Joseph, in Philadelphia. The body was brought to this place and taken in charge by Undertaker H. C. Brunner. The funeral was held from Mr. Brunner's undertaking establishment on Monday forenoon.

Mrs. Fanny Becker, wife of Aaron G. Becker, a well-known farmer in Rapho township, died early Saturday morning at her home, near Back Run, aged thirty-eight years. Death was caused by kidney trouble after a brief illness.

The husband and several children survive. Deceased was a member of the Gefman Baptist church. She is survived by these sisters: Alice, wife of Amos E. Heisey, Rapho; Maria, wife of Frank Heagy, near Lancaster; Catherine, wife of Harrison Ober near Neffsville; Annie, wife of John B. Buch, Manheim, and Emma, wife of Hiram G. Gibble, near White Oak. The funeral was held yesterday.

Reuben W. Kreiner, a contractor and builder of Philadelphia, died at his home in that city Sunday morning from troubles incident to old age.

Mr. Kreiner was in his seventy-second year and was a native of this borough, where he resided until his removal to Philadelphia about twenty years ago.

He was twice married, his second wife, who is a daughter of David Boyce, of this borough surviving. The following also survive: Mrs. Frank Kreiner of Lancaster; Percy and Miss Henrietta Kreiner of Philadelphia. Mrs. H. H. Kreiner and Miss Henrietta Kreiner are sisters of the deceased. The funeral was held here today and will be held this afternoon with services in the Methodist church. Deceased was a charter member of Casiphia Lodge No. 100 of this place, which will turn out a body.

His Neck Was Broken.

Kupp met with a serious accident near Milton Grove on Friday afternoon. He was driving a heavily laden farm team when the horses, the workmen were loading hay with two horses, took. Those familiar with the fact know that a long rope is used to hold the horses when pulling up hay and Mr. Kupp was nearby when suddenly the rope tore and struck him on the head. He was picked up in an unconscious condition and remained there until Saturday, when he died. Deceased was about 70 years of age. The funeral was held at 8 o'clock from the home and at 9 at Chick's house with interment in the new burial grounds.

Wake Warning.

A year ago a daughter of the late was run down by a horse who was violating the ordinance, riding on the pavement. A number of young men from Mount Joy are again making a race of riding on the pavement near the residence and are daily asked to discontinue

A Driving Accident

Deputy Coroner Benjamin S. Dillinger, wife and grandson John, took a drive into the country on Sunday evening. When a short distance east of town they met Dr. O. G. Longenecker with his automobile. This frightened the horse and it turned around upsetting the jenny and, throwing the occupants out. The horse ran off and was afterward captured. We are very glad to say all escaped serious injury which was averted by the tearing of a trace Mrs. Dillinger has a stoven thumb and Benjamin has several bruises while Little John escaped without a scratch. One wheel and three posts were broken at the vehicle.

A Peculiar Team.

Jacob Geib, who formerly lived in this place but who now resides on the Joseph Nissley property two miles north of town, recently purchased a goat for his son Clayton. The young man has Nanny trained to perfection and he built a cart for the purpose of taking pleasure drives. Giving the neighbors boys in that community a ride furnishes no end of amusement to everybody.

Jurors Drawn.

Grand Jurors, Sept. 7—Henry F. Engle, East Donegal; David L. Moyer and Wesley S. Shank, Rapho Quarter Sessions, Sept. 7—J. Burd Shields, East Donegal; Amos C. Friday, West Donegal; Henry Hamilton and Joseph Wickenheiser, Rapho.

Common Pleas, Sept. 28—Daniel E. Miller, Mount Joy township.

Two of a Kind.

Ezra Nye, of near town, conveyed a number of young folks to Elizabethtown, Thursday evening on a straw wagon which was greatly enjoyed by all.

A straw ride to Landisville on Saturday evening, was arranged by a number of the cotton mill employees, but on account of the rainy weather it was postponed.

A New Line.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has distributed poles along the tracks through here and now has a gag of sixteen men busy erecting them. The idea in this is to erect a telegraph line and when completed lease it to the Postal Telegraph Company.

Died From Exhaustion.

Aaron D. Stauffer, son of the late Samuel Stauffer, of East Donegal township, died at the County hospital on Wednesday aged sixty-two years. He is survived by his wife and two sons. The funeral was held at Bossler's meeting house on Saturday forenoon.

Honoring The Dead.

Tombstones were erected in honor of Mary Grogg, wife of Henry Eberle, and one for David Leib in the Eberle cemetery. Also at the grave of Susan Gipple in the burial grounds at Eby's meeting house by James Glafelter the past week.

Erecting a New Stable.

Squire F. A. Ricker on West Main street, has a number of carpenters at work on the erection of a large new stable to take the place of the one recently torn down. It is nearly completed.

The Work is Progressing.

The work on the post office extension is progressing very rapidly. Yesterday morning the north end of the old building was moved as a whole and the floor, sides and roof will soon be in position.

Marriage Licenses Issued.

Nathaniel Gibbons and Elizabeth Campbell, both of Rapho township. Norman R. Nissley and Mazie M. Brandt, both of West Hempfield township.

MANY LOCAL NOTES.

Happenings of the Week Told in a Brief Yet Interesting Manner.

Amos Kaylor has registered on the sick list.

Fred Belser, the handy man, is hunting a job.

Harry Nissley's concrete pavement is completed.

Clayton Hendrix has accepted a job at painting with Elmer Givens.

Don't forget the festival for the benefit of the base ball team in the hall this evening.

One of the large window panes which was recently broken in Mount Joy Hall, was replaced yesterday.

Henry Peopple lost two fine large hogs within the past few weeks. They weighed about 150 pounds each.

Elmer Givens and his force are painting the property occupied by Charles Witmer near the passenger depot.

The Republican County Committee will meet in Lancaster on Monday, August 3, to effect an organization.

C. N. Mumma bought seven head of steers this week that average 1380 pounds. They were raised by B. Hoffman near Lobata.

Christ Leib was assisting at B. F. Bookman's carpet weaving establishment when he had one of his fingers mashed in the cogs.

Some one was kind enough to "lift" a number of fine young chickens off John F. Pyle's back yard fence on Sunday night.

A grand festival will be held at Florin, Saturday evening, August 8. Refreshments will be served and a band will furnish music.

Mrs. Irvin Geistweit was very agreeably surprised on Saturday evening, when a number of her friends called in a body to celebrate her birthday. Refreshments were served and all spent a pleasant evening.

Ball Notes.

Rain prevented the game of ball here on Saturday between the locals and Red Lion.

Don't forget the game this afternoon in this place between Ephrata and Mount Joy.

The Red Lion base ball team that was to play here last Saturday, will be here this Saturday.

A game of ball was played on Sunday afternoon between a team of country boys and a picked nine from town. The former was victorious to the tune of 7-2.

A game of ball was played yesterday afternoon on Engle's field, between the Grey Iron Works and the Fire Company. "Fretchem's" team won 16 to 10.

The local management arranged a game of ball with the Y. M. C. A. team of Steelton, agreeing to come here on Saturday. Yesterday we were informed that they would not come. Do they smell defeat? If so they are next to Penn Park and H. A. C. Mount Joy will remember Steelton in arranging a future game.

Bull Caused Trouble.

Several boys were "driving" a bull south of town several days ago and the animal ran into Henry Derr's potato patch. Mr. Derr brought the animal to town and has it at C. K. Bennett's cattle yards. When the owner W. H. Strickler came for the bull he was asked to pay damages and the consequences were the animal is yet in this place.

Will Picnic in Heisey's Park.

A picnic will be held by the Sunday Schools of the United Brethren church in town and the United Brethren Church at Florin, in Heisey's Park, near Rheims on Saturday, August 1st. Should the weather prove favorable a good turnout may be expected.

Personal Mention.

Richard Sillers and wife of York are visiting friends in this place.

John H. Stoll and son spent Sunday at Florin with Harry Stoll's family.

Will Ricker of Wilkesbarre spent Thursday in town with his parents.

Mrs. H. E. Ebersole and son Bernard are spending a few days at Manheim.

W. B. Barnhart of Harrisburg, visited his father Israel Barnhart, last week.

Harry Eckhardt stopped off in town on Friday on his way to Mount Greta.

Philip J. Dieter the well known paperhanger is spending two weeks at Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. James Pell and son Elmer have returned from a trip to Dauphin and Lebanon counties.

Prof. W. W. Moore, President of Madame Cotta College, Lancaster, was circulating among friends in town.

P. J. Dieter left Monday for Baltimore, Md., where he is spending the week with his brother and sisters.

Amaziah Good, wife, daughter Jennie visited Adam Geistwite and family north of Elizabethtown on Sunday.

Mrs. C. N. Mumma will leave on Monday for Locust Grove where she will spend the week with her brother B. F. Hoffman.

Harry Ebersole, cornetist and clarinetist, who was traveling with Byron Spaul Comedy Company, has returned to our town.

Mrs. Nettie Holmes of Galesburg Ill., Mrs. Chas. E. Bowman and son of Millersville, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Newpher on Friday.

Miss Mary E. Haines and Miss Mary Newpher will leave tomorrow for Virginia Beach, Va., where they will be the guests of their aunt Mrs. Alfred Clay.

Dr. J. P. Ziegler attended a meeting of the Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons at Wild Cat Falls on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Ziegler is president of this society.

Among Sunday visitors to Mount Joy were Martin Nissley of Elizabethtown and Martin N. Brady of Saginaw, Mich. Mr. Brady is a son of the late Christian and Maria Brady of this place, and was known to his early associates as "Bob." He is now postmaster of Saginaw, and is interested in a number of large business ventures in that city.

Forty Hours Devotion.

Devotional services were held in St. Mary's Catholic church, conducted by the Rev. Wm. A. Martin of Elizabethtown. Services began at seven o'clock on Sunday morning and continued until last evening. Monday evening Rev. Kopf, of Lancaster, had charge of the services. He preached his sermon in the German language.

Rev. Foster Resigns.

Rev. Dr. Bert Foster, rector of St. John's Episcopal church at Marietta for the past five years, and who established St. Luke's mission in this place, has resigned. A special meeting of the vestry of the former charge, was held last evening for the purpose of receiving the resignation.

Deeds Transferred.

Margaret Bopp to J. R. Missemmer property on West Main street, this borough, consideration $1,500.

Real Estate Transferred.

Hiram B. Jacobs to Clinton McCurdy, property in Maytown, $700.

North West Rapho Echoes.

Apple dumplings.

John Ulrich shot a fine weasel on Saturday.

Frank Shenk is busy threshing in this section.

John McAllister, at Keener's mill found a pocket book containing some money. Owner can have same by proving property.

On the premises of U. Z. Geib is a grapevine, of the Concord variety thirty-four feet in length, and with its additional vines covers a trellis eight feet broad. It contains over a thousand good sized bunches of grapes.

Last Saturday a burly Irishman passed through this section. His appetite was immense. After eating an apple pie, a bowl of noodle soup, two slices of meat, bread and a quarter pound of butter, he still asked for more.

The Cornet Band of this place will furnish music for the picnic to be held by the Evangelical Sunday School of Kinderhook, at Chickies Park, on Saturday July 25.

Elmer, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Blocker, residing on the farm of Henry Musser near this place, disappeared last Saturday in a very peculiar manner. At the approach of a storm the boy was told by his mother, to close the shutters. He readily complied with her request and this was the last seen of him. All search for him has thus far proved futile and his parents are greatly alarmed over his sudden disappearance. Any information regarding his whereabouts will be thankfully received by his grief stricken parents.

We were informed this morning that the young man has turned up.

Mount Joy Man Implicated.

A despatch from Baltimore states that deputy sheriffs, policeman and politicians were clubbed, kicked, beaten and seriously injured in a riot at the Democratic primaries in the Fifth district of Anne Arundel county, Md., on Saturday night. Among those arrested the name of Joseph Schaum, with Mt. Joy, Pa., as his residence, is given. He is charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. No one by that name is known in this place. The trouble was caused by an ugly feeling between the Regular and Independent factions, each side charging the other with repeating.

NEWTOWN.

Mrs. Oscar Myers of Baltimore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Metzgar, in this place.

Samuel Lockard and family of Kinderhook, were the guests of John Shank on Sunday.

The Cornet Band of this place will furnish music for the picnic to be held by the Evangelical Sunday School of Kinderhook, at Chickies Park, on Saturday July 25.

Elmer, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Blocker, residing on the farm of Henry Musser near this place, disappeared last Saturday in a very peculiar manner. At the approach of a storm the boy was told by his mother, to close the shutters. He readily complied with her request and this was the last seen of him. All search for him has thus far proved futile and his parents are greatly alarmed over his sudden disappearance. Any information regarding his whereabouts will be thankfully received by his grief stricken parents.

MASTERTONVILLE.

Mr. E. H. Zug is on the sick list. In six weeks the school term will open here.

A. M. Hoffer is busy erecting a chopping mill.

The rain on Saturday was a good help to corn and tobacco in this section.

Ninety cents per hundred was paid by the creamery here for milk the past month.

Mrs. John P. Ginder, who has been ailing for the past three months, is gradually recovering.

Harvest home services will be held at the home of P. C. Geib on Saturday afternoon, August 1st.

Granted by the Register.

Abram L. Stark, of Altoona, executor of George Stark, late of West Donegal township.

Jacob W. Newcomer, of West Hempfield township, administrator of Mary S. Newcomer, late of East Donegal township.

Circus For Sale.

Welsh Brothers are offering their circus for sale. Their reason for selling is, they intend to erect a hotel and theatre in Lancaster City.

What to do Until the Doctor Arrives.

If it is a case of colic or cholera morbus give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and you will have no need of a doctor. For sale by J. S. Carmany, Florin Pa. and all Mount Joy druggists.

Personal Mention.

Richard Sillers and wife of York are visiting friends in this place.

John H. Stoll and son spent Sunday at Florin with Harry Stoll's family.

Will Ricker of Wilkesbarre spent Thursday in town with his parents.

Mrs. H. E. Ebersole and son Bernard are spending a few days at Manheim.

W. B. Barnhart of Harrisburg, visited his father Israel Barnhart, last week.

Harry Eckhardt stopped off in town on Friday on his way to Mount Greta.

Philip J. Dieter the well known paperhanger is spending two weeks at Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. James Pell and son Elmer have returned from a trip to Dauphin and Lebanon counties.

Prof. W. W. Moore, President of Madame Cotta College, Lancaster, was circulating among friends in town.

P. J. Dieter left Monday for Baltimore, Md., where he is spending the week with his brother and sisters.

Amaziah Good, wife, daughter Jennie visited Adam Geistwite and family north of Elizabethtown on Sunday.

Mrs. C. N. Mumma will leave on Monday for Locust Grove where she will spend the week with her brother B. F. Hoffman.

Harry Ebersole, cornetist and clarinetist, who was traveling with Byron Spaul Comedy Company, has returned to our town.

Mrs. Nettie Holmes of Galesburg Ill., Mrs. Chas. E. Bowman and son of Millersville, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Newpher on Friday.

Miss Mary E. Haines and Miss Mary Newpher will leave tomorrow for Virginia Beach, Va., where they will be the guests of their aunt Mrs. Alfred Clay.

Dr. J. P. Ziegler attended a meeting of the Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons at Wild Cat Falls on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Ziegler is president of this society.

Among Sunday visitors to Mount Joy were Martin Nissley of Elizabethtown and Martin N. Brady of Saginaw, Mich. Mr. Brady is a son of the late Christian and Maria Brady of this place, and was known to his early associates as "Bob." He is now postmaster of Saginaw, and is interested in a number of large business ventures in that city.

Forty Hours Devotion.

Devotional services were held in St. Mary's Catholic church, conducted by the Rev. Wm. A. Martin of Elizabethtown. Services began at seven o'clock on Sunday morning and continued until last evening. Monday evening Rev. Kopf, of Lancaster, had charge of the services. He preached his sermon in the German language.

Rev. Foster Resigns.

Rev. Dr. Bert Foster, rector of St. John's Episcopal church at Marietta for the past five years, and who established St. Luke's mission in this place, has resigned. A special meeting of the vestry of the former charge, was held last evening for the purpose of receiving the resignation.

Deeds Transferred.

Margaret Bopp to J. R. Missemmer property on West Main street, this borough, consideration $1,500.

Real Estate Transferred.

Hiram B. Jacobs to Clinton McCurdy, property in Maytown, $700.

Personal Mention.

Richard Sillers and wife of York are visiting friends in this place.

John H. Stoll and son spent Sunday at Florin with Harry Stoll's family.

Will Ricker of Wilkesbarre spent Thursday in town with his parents.

Mrs. H. E. Ebersole and son Bernard are spending a few days at Manheim.

W. B. Barnhart of Harrisburg, visited his father Israel Barnhart, last week.

Harry Eckhardt stopped off in town on Friday on his way to Mount Greta.

Philip J. Dieter the well known paperhanger is spending two weeks at Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. James Pell and son Elmer have returned from a trip to Dauphin and Lebanon counties.

Prof. W. W. Moore, President of Madame Cotta College, Lancaster, was circulating among friends in town.

P. J. Dieter left Monday for Baltimore, Md., where he is spending the week with his brother and sisters.

Amaziah Good, wife, daughter Jennie visited Adam Geistwite and family north of Elizabethtown on Sunday.

Mrs. C. N. Mumma will leave on Monday for Locust Grove where she will spend the week with her brother B. F. Hoffman.

Harry Ebersole, cornetist and clarinetist, who was traveling with Byron Spaul Comedy Company, has returned to our town.

Mrs. Nettie Holmes of Galesburg Ill., Mrs. Chas. E. Bowman and son of Millersville, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Newpher on Friday.

Miss Mary E. Haines and Miss Mary Newpher will leave tomorrow for Virginia Beach, Va., where they will be the guests of their aunt Mrs. Alfred Clay.

Dr. J. P. Ziegler attended a meeting of the Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons at Wild Cat Falls on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Ziegler is president of this society.

Among Sunday visitors to Mount Joy were Martin Nissley of Elizabethtown and Martin N. Brady of Saginaw, Mich. Mr. Brady is a son of the late Christian and Maria Brady of this place, and was known to his early associates as "Bob." He is now postmaster of Saginaw, and is interested in a number of large business ventures in that city.

Forty Hours Devotion.

Devotional services were held in St. Mary's Catholic church, conducted by the Rev. Wm. A. Martin of Elizabethtown. Services began at seven o'clock on Sunday morning and continued until last evening. Monday evening Rev. Kopf, of Lancaster, had charge of the services. He preached his sermon in the German language.

Rev. Foster Resigns.

Rev. Dr. Bert Foster, rector of St. John's Episcopal church at Marietta for the past five years, and who established St. Luke's mission in this place, has resigned. A special meeting of the vestry of the former charge, was held last evening for the purpose of receiving the resignation.

Deeds Transferred.

Margaret Bopp to J. R. Missemmer property on West Main street, this borough, consideration $1,500.

Real Estate Transferred.

Hiram B. Jacobs to Clinton McCurdy, property in Maytown, $700.

F. G. Pennell, Postmaster