The average man does not save ceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spendnine dollars in living expenses for every dellar saved. That being tie case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a botile of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by J. S.
