COUNTY POLITICS.

M. J. Brecht is a Candidate--Hershey's Challenge--Socialist Ticket

From Thursday's Lancaster Intelligencer:

The Republicans who intend putting an independent county ticket in the field to fight the Griest combination, held another meeting at 9:30 this morning at Hotel Realty. It was attended by about fifty representatives from different sections of the county.

Prominent among those present was County Superintendent of Public Schools M. J. Brecht, who addressed the meeting and stated that he positively would be a candidate for Congress against H. Burd Cassell, the candidate of the ring, whom he opposed and almost defeated two years ago.

John W. Appel, who has been spoken of as the independent candidate for judge against A. B. Hassler, was unable to attend the meeting, but he sent a representative, who stated that Mr. Appel had agreed to stand as a candidate.

There was considerable talk about the other candidates who will be placed on the ticket, but everything has not yet been settled. It is known that the candidate for prothonotary will be Tobias Hershey, a prominent citizen of Petersburg, who is engaged in the coal and lumber business at that place. The candidate for county solicitor will be Andrew Messer, president of the Central National bank of Columbia. Candidates for the Legislature will be run in the Northern and Southern districts, but it is not certain about the city district.

Those who attended the meeting manifested a great deal of interest in the proceedings and they bring very encouraging reports from the various districts. Even the Griest people admit that the tickets so far as selected is good, and have been well received.

On several occasions a well-published article in the past few weeks has been published in the Intelligencer, holding up to public ridicule, and intimating therein that during his tenure of office he robbed the county. Today Mr. Hershey issued the following challenge, which it is needless to say the New Era will not publish.

From Saturday's Lancaster Intelligencer:

The New Era seems to be talking itself very seriously when it talks about me. It makes the charge that I robbed the county several years ago when I was sheriff. I wish to say while I held that office I had Judge Landis, brother of Jimmy Landis, the editor (God pity our people) of the New Era, for my lawyer to advise me. When I stepped out of the office he congratulated me upon the clean, honest business character of my administration and made it a point to say I came out of the trying duties of the office in such splendid shape because I was willing to consult him and always ready to follow legal counsel.

Now all I have to say is this. If I was robbing the county, Judge Landis knew it then and has known it ever since, and if he has been keeping it in the meantime from the public until now, he is not a safe man to sit on the Bench in our courts of justice. For if the charge is true I should be under arrest and Judge Landis should be impeached.

Will the New Era ask the judge to tell what he knows about the robbing, which, it says, I was doing under his instructions, that our people may know if I am guilty or if the New Era is lying?

ANDREW H. HERSHEY,
EX-SHERIFF.

The socialist party of the county have nominated the following county ticket: Congress, B. G. Ebersole, of East Donegal; judge, J. W. Johnson, of Maytown; prothonotary I. S. Clare; Lancaster; controller, F. B. Emig, Ephrata; prison keeper, Adam Kopp, Lancaster; poor directors, Benjamin Portner, East Donegal, and Charles Nagle, Lancaster.

The office of district attorney will be filled later. The following county committee was elected: I. S. Clare, H. E. Hoch, Abram Kautz, J. G. Zook, Lititz; J. W. Johnson, Ephrata; Leonard Shields, Marietta; J. W. Johnson, Maytown; W. R. Cassile, Manheim.

The committee effected an organization by electing the following officers: Chairman, J. G. Zook; recording secretary, H. E. Hoch; financial secretary, I. S. Clare; corresponding secretary, Abram Kautz; organizer, W. R. Cassile.

Was He a Doctor?

A Mr. Shwanger living some distance north of town, owns a valuable cow that broke into an apple orchard and shortly afterwards became sick. A man who terms himself a doctor, was consulted, who relieved the cow (nit). This doctor took a pine stick several feet long and about an inch in diameter, and without tying the cow, ran the stick down her throat, breaking it off. Dr. Newcomer was sent for, who, after lancing, removed the stick. To end its sufferings the animal was killed and upon examination it was found that many splinters from the rough stick used, were in the cow's throat as well as the liver torn by the jamming done by that doctor (?)
