Church Notes.

United Evangelical—Business meeting of third quarterly conference Saturday evening at 7 p. m. Communion service Sunday at 10 a. m. Rev. J. H. Shirey Presiding Elder, will preside at business meeting and preach at communion service. Rev. Garr will have for his subject Sunday at 7 p. m. "Human Agency in Salvation."

The Seat Gave Way.

While Samuel Geib was seated on a chair at his home in Rapho township the other day, the seat, which was constituted of carpet and tacked on the frame, gave way and he went through. The frame work of the chair also gave way and the ring finger of his left hand was caught in it in some manner and the tip was taken off as though with a knife.

Almost Ran Away.

A six-mule team was going out South Market street yesterday noon when the lead horses scared at a bicycle near the railroad bridge. They started on a run but the man in charge drove them into the fence near Wm. Doyle's property which stopped them. No more damage than a mashed fence.

They Remember "Billy."

Wm. Gantz, proprietor of the County House at Lancaster, informs us that over four hundred persons took supper at his hotel on Saturday and among that number, the majority were from Mount Joy. We must admit that "Billy" has a host of friends in our neighborhood.

Big Crowd at Lancaster.

Mount Joy was very well represented at Lancaster on Saturday on account of this city's gala day. There were 460 tickets sold by station agent John H. Stoll that day. It is thought would be hard to beat the size of ours.

Out With an Axe.

Mr. Gamber of near was cutting wood with an axe on Saturday, it caught at a nail and cut a very deep wound in the forehead. It required five stitches to close the wound. A physician attended him.

Sudden Death of Michael Brandt.

Michael Brandt, a well known resident of this borough, died suddenly at an early hour Thursday morning. He was taken ill at 1 o'clock and died an hour later. He was 80 years old and in early life was a stone mason. He lived retired for several years. He took an active interest in Democratic politics and never missed casting his vote for the Democratic ticket. He was one of the oldest members of the Church of God. His wife and four sons survive, John, of this place, Joseph and Alvin, of Philadelphia, and Michael, jr., of Sturgis, S. D. His son, Michael, went West 12 years ago and he was on a visit to his father this week for the first time since he left Mt. Joy. His funeral took place on Sunday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock at the house and 2 o'clock at the Church of God. Interment was made in Mt. Joy cemetery. Mr. Brandt was a charter member of Cove Lodge No. 301, Knights of Pythias of this place. The order attended the funeral in a body.

Birthday Parties.

Last evening our popular auctioneer entertained a large number of his friends at a hog roast, the occasion being his forty-ninth birthday. Many were present and greatly enjoyed the occasion. Mr. Zeller is enjoying the best of health and has bright prospects for seeing many more birthdays. Henry G. Hoffman celebrated his forty-first birthday by conveying about twenty of his friends to Maytown on Monday evening where they were royally entertained at an oyster supper at Butzer's Donegal Inn. The occasion was a very enjoyable one and will long be remembered by the members of the party. The boys all wish Fisher would live to see 41 additional birthdays.

Widow at York.

William Allen Martin, manager of the Franklin Tea Company, at York, who is a son of A. K. Marti of this place, and Miss Edith P. Leas, of No. 5 Forth Newberry street, York, were united in marriage by Rev. David S. Curry, of the First Presbyterian church, of that city, in the manse on Thursday evening. The groom has a very large circle of friends in this place and vicinity and we join them in wishing this newly wedded couple a prosperous voyage through life.

Rare Old Relics.

Abram Shelley of Milton Grove, has a fanning mill that is 103 years old. The cog wheels are out of wood. It was owned by his father.

Henry C. Ream, of West Donegal township, is the owner of an old Conestoga wagon with complete sideboards, bows and covered feed trough that was used by his father to haul goods from Philadelphia to Pittsburg.

Sales of Tobacco.

D. B. Murray, of Lancaster, has purchased tobacco in the vicinity of Mastersonville as follows; John P. and John H. Gidder's, at 9 and 2; Joseph B. Ginder's, at 8 1/2 and 2; Monroe Hollinger's, at 9 and 2; H. N. Becker's, at 8 1/4 and 2, and B. S. Stauffer's, at 8 1-2 and 2.

Short Waits at Bender's.

Warren Hannon is the new barber at W. B. Bender's. He is from Reading, and is an expert manipulator of the razor and shears. You will not have to wait long to get a shave at Bender's now.

A Pair of Beauts.

A few days ago we were shown the finest pair of shotguns that can be found in this borough up to the present time. They are owned by A. C. Mateer, the popular and ever accommodating assistant at the P. R. R. freight warehouse.

Opinion Filed.

Margaret Raymond vs. the Supervisors of East Donegal township, and Eli H. Nissley, exceptions to decree in equity proceedings; exceptions dismissed and decree as made stands.

The Irish Corporal at Gettysburg.

In 1861 an Irish boy enlisted, his company was organized and he was made a corporal. He had a sweet heart. The evening before his company left for the front he visited Biddy, and Biddy, in giving him the farewell kiss, said: "This last one is to give you inspiration Pat." The next morning early Pat was at the door of his sweetheart again and she said, "Why, Pat, what you doing here," he said, "Why, Biddle, I came back for a little more inspiration." Come to the Hall Thursday evening Nov. 17 1904 and see and hear just what effect a little more inspiration had upon the boys who took part in the great battles fought for the preservation of this union and the glorious liberty we now enjoy, for the Benefit of Washington Camp No. 538 P. Settled Old Account.

A letter was received at the East Dorset (Vt.) post office a few weeks ago postmarked at Spokane Falls, Wash., and directed to Benjamin Ames or any of his descendants. It proved to be from a man who 60 years ago boarded with Mr. Ames for a time and left without paying his board bill. He said that he was now 83 years old and wanted to pay. The bill was sent him and he sent a check for the amount.

Disease of Naval Officers.

The medical officers of the navy who have been making a study of neurasthenia, which has disabled so many officers, ascribe it to the conditions of the life in the navy now imposing upon officers' long tours of duty on remote stations, where the opportunities for diversion are not many, and where homesickness and discontent, combined with the uncertainty of detachment, have produced this distress of mind and body.
