FELL OVER DEAD

"Butch" Myers, a Laborer, Died very Suddenly Yesterday.

Abram E., familiarly known here as"Butch"Myers, died very suddenly yesterday noon. He was employed by Brandt & Stehman at their mill and was unloading a car of coal. E. W. Bentzel, another employe at the mill, who was working on the second floor, first saw Myers lying in the car. The men about the mill investigated and found Myers was Deputy corner Benj. S. Dillinger was notified and with his physician Dr. Jno. J. Newpher, held an investigation. They found that death was due to apoplexy superinduced by over exertion.

Deceased is 58 years old and 18 survived by one son Harry W., one sister, Mrs. Samuel Sickles at Newtown and three brothers as follows: Samuel at Newtown, Ephrain of York and Fred from Steelton.

Four years ago Myers took out a policy in the Prudential Life Insur ance Co. and his heirs well receive an amount that will more than defray the funeral expense. A gold watch and $15 in money were at his

The body was removed to H. C. Brunner's undertaking establishment where it was prepared for burial. The remains will be interred at Newtown tomorrow.

Rheem Sunday-School Closed,

The Rheems Union Sunday school, which had been in successful operation since Sunday, April 8, closed on Sunday for the season All the expenses were promply met and the singing books remaining on hand will be distributed to the members. The Sunday-school was in charge of Superintendent John C. Smith, who labored untiringly during the summer, and he was ably assisted by Ezra Souders, Assistant Superintendent and teacher, and John B. Henry, Secretary. - Miss Mary G. Nissely served a protion of the term as organist. The average attendance for the summer was and at the close of the exercises Bainbridge by Undertaker Harry companying illustration. given to each member.

A Rare Spot.

At Landisville where the great Methodist campmeeting was in proress, there are places of worship, belonging to three different denominations, adjoining each other. There are few if any other similiar place in the State. Adjoining to the Methodist camp grounds on the adjoining to that is the Church of to say: God. Adjoining these three places of worship is the public school building of the town and a private burial ground which makes a row of combinations that are rarely ever heard of.
