

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN

VOL. VI. NO. 37

MOUNT JOY, PENNA. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1907

50 CENTS A YEAR

THE CIRCULATION OF THE WEEKLY BULLETIN EXCEEDS THAT OF ANY OTHER MOUNT JOY NEWSPAPER BY HUNDREDS

THE FEBRUARY MEETING	Good Stock at Par	LOCAL HAPPENINGS.	PERSONALS.	FLORIN NOTES.	Tobacco Experts Here	OBITUARY NOTES
Refused to Accept Fellenbaum's Bond—Electric Light Bill Paid. The regular meeting of Council was held Monday evening with all the members present except Mr. Detwiler, who was ill. A communication signed by all the property owners on Frank street was received, asking Council to macadamize said street. No action. Collector of water taxes, R. Fellenbaum, presented and read his bond for $4,000, signed by Jacob K. Nissley and M. M. Brubaker. Mr. Fellenbaum was never appointed or elected collector for 1907 and therefore his bond was not accepted. Mr. Fellenbaum said he would not be an applicant for clerk this year. Council moved that the present bond hold good until Mr. Fellenbaum's successor is elected. The members of the Water committee will sit to hear appeals in the Council Chamber this evening. Burgess Jacob W. Shrite reported that he collected $82.87 the past month and turned same over to the treasurer. Mr. Hamaker reported that he spoke to Mr. Brubaker about a deed for Walnut street and that the latter would prepare one. Also that the land has since been sold. Water Superintendent John Bombach reported that he had the water duplicate a few days but not long enough to do much work. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $1,904.86 in the Borough account and the Water account is overdrawn $827.85. Upon motion the deed for New street will be accepted if in the opinion of the Solicitor, it is all right. The Auditors' report was read and upon motion of Mr. Brown, the Clerk was instructed to have same advertised in the Herald. Attorney Moore of Lancaster, who conditionally purchased a tract of land from the Hoffman estate, was before Council with preliminary drawings of the plot. He wanted to know if plot, as laid out, was satisfactory to Council and whether or not that honorable body would accept deeds for streets which were to be laid out or extended and donated. This met with Council's approval and the Clerk was ordered to notify the trolley company to order octagonal poles and flat rails to be used from South alley down to Engle's lane. A number of bills were then paid among which was the electric light bill of last month that had been returned to the company for correction. The bill was paid for the same amount as it was at the last meeting, but twelve lights being deducted for the past three months. Last Chance for Apples. Here is an opportunity if you want apples. C. S. Frank has 200 bushels of Baldwin apples at the old P. E. R. depot which he offers at 60c, 75c and $1 a bushel for one week commencing today. Open every forenoon and all day Saturday. Also sweet cider and Danish cabbage. After Wednesday, Feb. 13, the above will be for sale at his residence near town. Almost Snowbound. The deepest snow that has fallen in recent years fell Monday afternoon and night, over a foot in depth. Many roads are drifted, P. R. R. trains are late and trolley service was crippled until one o'clock yesterday. Weather is comfortable and sleighing good. Women's Auxiliary The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Lancaster General Hospital will be held at the home of Mrs. A. K. Manning, Thursday, Feb. 7th at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is requested as this is the annual election. Male Chorus of 23. The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Church of God is arranging for an entertainment to be given in this place in the near future by a male chorus of the Y. M. C. A. of York, Pa., consisting of twenty-three persons.	Among our new advertisements this week will be noticed that the Conesto Real Estate Improvement Company, a corporation composed largely of local capital, and which we are informed is doing a successful Real Estate business in Greater New York. The President of the Company is John M. Miller of Landisville, Pa., who is well known as a conservative real estate man. He has long borne the reputation as a careful and competent Surveyor and Conveyancer, and is now President of the Miller-Kendig Real Estate Company whose stock is also held by Lancaster County people and which Company earned during the year 1906 43 per cent. net on its capital stock. The Vice-President of the Company is Willis G. Kendig, Attorney-at-Law of Lancaster Pa., who is President of the Kessler Wagon Works of Philadelphia running without intermission since 1851, and Vice-President of the Miller-Kendig Real Estate Company. William F. Seitz the Treasurer of the Company is a native of Mountville, Pa., and has served four years in the law office of Mr. Kendig. Charles D. Root President of the Hamilton Watch Company of Lancaster, Pa., which we are informed earns 40 per cent. for its stockholders, is Chairman of the Board of Auditors, which Board is designed to assist the Executive department in the transaction of the important business of the Company. The officers of the Company are men of large experience in New York real estate transactions and with conservatism they are known to exercise in the transaction of their business we venture to predict a successful career for the Company. A Big Debate at Florin. The Florin Literary Society held a joint debate with the Bowmansville Literary Society, on Friday evening, in the Washington School House, at Florin, for the tri-county league contest. The subject of the debate was, "Resolved; That it would be an advantage to the United States to annex Mexico and Canada." Florin took the affirmative side of the question and the speakers were Amos Shelly, Andrew Martin and C. A. Wiley. Bowmansville, for the negative, was represented by Edwin Eshleman, Jacob Messner and Ralph Eshleman. The judges decided in favor of the negative by a vote of two to one. Local Paper at Public Sale. The Herald, a local paper published by U. E. and J. E. Hoffer, will be sold at public sale on Tuesday, Feb. 12, 1907. It will be remembered that about a year ago H. C. Schock was appointed trustee in bankruptcy. The creditors allowed the managers to continue for a year but as they could not make a gain financially, Mr. Schock decided to sell the plant including the subscription list, advertising contracts, etc. The paper has been in existence for fifty three years. Twenty Fifth Anniversary. On Sunday Dr. and Mrs. John J. Newpher celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary by entertaining a number of their friends at a grand turkey dinner. The occasion was a very enjoyable one. Those present were Chas. Bowman, wife and son Henry, Harry Myers, wife and two sons, Frank and Robert of Lancaster, Authur Clay of Norfolk, Va. Million Dollar Fire. The printing plant of the Phelps Publishing Company, publishers of Good Housekeeping, American Agriculturist, Farm and Home, and several other journals, was totally destroyed by fire Monday. The plant is at Springfield, Mass. Their Presence Requested The members of David H. Nissley Post No. 478 and the Sons of Veterans are requested to attend services in the Evangelical church Sunday at 10 a. m. Meet at the hall at 9.30. Rev. A. A. DeLong will preach a special sermon.	Happenings of the Week Told in a Brief Yet Interesting Manner. Dr. J. P. Ziegler is suffering from grippe. Lizzie Shires has a slight attack of pneumonia. The Denver Star was discontinued last week. Read the county finances on page 2 of this issue. Philip Schmaelzle is confined to the house with la grippe. G. Moyer will have his big annual implement sale February 26. The class of '07 visited Union school last Tuesday afternoon. J. Willis Freed, the able book-keeper at the Grey Iron, is ill. John W. McGinnis of Hotel McGinnis, is installing a pool table. Harry W. Garber, the baker at Scholing's, is ill the past few days. J. G. Metzgar of town sold his brick dwelling at Lancaster for 3300. For Sale—A good buggy to be sold cheap. Apply at this office. A daughter was born to Christ Shirk and wife on East Main street Friday. There will be preaching next Sunday morning in the Bethel of the Church of God. Adam Walker and wife were presented with a bouncing baby girl last Wednesday. Ralph Eshleman, the clerk at H. E. Ebersole's store, is off duty on account of sickness. Ten shares of local trolley stock were sold at public sale at Lancaster on Monday for $60 per share. Wm. Heisey cut down a large chestnut tree near Hill Church in which were fifteen fox squirrels. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran church will hold a sociable at the home of Mrs. C. S. Longenecker Thursday evening. Saturday was Groundhog Day. Ten days later comes Lincoln Day, and still ten days later Washington's Birthday. Samuel Hershey was driving up Donegal street Wednesday when the vehicle struck the trolley tracks and he was thrown from the wagon injuring his back. Brandt & Stehman, our prosperous millers, have increased the wages of all their employees 12 per cent. It is needless to say the raise was appreciated. The regular monthly meeting of the School Board was held Monday evening with all the members present except Mr. Brubaker when routine business was transacted. Misses Mary Bear, Carrie Frank, Alice Dillinger and Kathryn Frank, four members of the Senior class of the High school, acted as pall bearers at the funeral of Jacob Frank on Friday. Mrs. James L. Pell had a very unpleasant experience this morning. She struck a match to light a lamp when a spark set fire to her hair. She smothered the flames but only after a portion of her head covering was consumed. Slow But Sure. According to the Manheim Sentinel, we are sure to get good light about April 1st. At a meeting of Manheim's council, a communication was read from the president of the Robert Waterwill and Company manufacturers of engines, &c., of Chester, Pa., which stated that his company has received a contract under date of December 14, for a complete outfit of boilers, engine, heaters, pump, etc., from the Manheim and Mount Joy Electric Light Company, to be erected at Manheim on or before three and a half months from the time of signing the contract. It also stated that they are now building the engine boilers, &c., as follows: One 225 horse power direct connect Wetherill corliss engine; two return tubular boilers; a stack; two feed pumps one heater, and all piping necessary for the machinery.	James L. Pell made a flying trip to Hershey Monday afternoon. Charles Cassel of Ardmore spent Sunday here with his parents. Thos. Casey and wife of Philadelphia, spent a few days in town. Mrs. Ira Metzgar of Sunbury was the guest of her parents several days. Miss Margaret McConaughy of Johnstown, spent a few days in town last week. Miss Carrie Druckemiller, teacher of the Intermediate school, was ill several days. Frank Baker and wife called on her parents Jacob Miller and family at Manheim Sunday. Misses Clara and Emma Schroll spent Sunday with friends at Harrisburg and Steelton. Mr. and Mrs. Fessler of Reading, are visiting the latter's parents, E. M. Trexler and wife. M. A. Spiekler and T. M. Brown were at the Capital City Friday viewing the fire ruins. Nathan Brubaker and Clayton Keller and Irwin Baker spent Sunday at Elizabethtown. The party that lost a bag of fish can have same by calling at S. B. Bernhart and Co's store. Messrs. Curtin Hollingsworth and Mr. Butz of Hershey, were guests of James L. Pell on Sunday. Henry Butch of Manheim, spent several days here with his daughter Mrs. Harry Garber last week. Samuel Wilson and Daniel Schroll of Philadelphia, spent several days in town with their parents. Rev. D. D. Lowry of Harrisburg and Rev. R. Butterwick of Annville, were guests of Rev. E. O. Burtner several days last week. T. M. Brown attended the institution of a new council Jr. O. U. A. M. at Lancaster Saturday. This makes the sixth council for that city. Samuel Haines and wife of Lancaster, John R. Ebersole and wife of Elizabethtown, and Mrs. Rose Kraybill and son Louis of Harrisburg spent Sunday with Lewis Seeman and wife. Abraham Boyer, the expert young body maker, quit his job at the Safety Buggy Works last week. For the past three months he was making automobile bodies and having had considerable experience will go to Philadelphia this week.	Hippie-Brown One of the most fashionable and finest weddings that has taken place in Mount Joy was solemnized on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Brown. Their daughter, Miss Esther Matilda Brown, was wedded to John Alfred Hippie, esq., of Marietta. The bride's father is president of the Brown cotton mills and of the First National Bank. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Sheerin rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, in the presence of a large number of persons. The maid of honor Annie Whittens Nock, of Glassboro, N. J., and the best man was Ethelbert Miller, of Marietta. The bride wore a gown imported from Brussels. It was of Duchess lace with pearl trimmings, cut empire style. She wore a veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The dress of the maid of honor was of white French mullie and lace over white taffeta. She carried pink roses. The bride's mother wore black embroidered chiffon over black satin. The house was decorated with pink roses and Southern smilax and the ceremony was performed under a bower of pink roses. At the reception which followed, Caterer C. W. Fekert of Lancaster city served and Stork's orchestra furnished the music. The couple left Saturday night on a wedding trip South and after March 15 they will be at home in this place. Two Runaways. Elmer Schlegelmelch's horse ran off in town yesterday afternoon but was captured before any damage was done. Amos Musser's two horse team scared on Marietta street Saturday and ran off. Opposite the Exchange hotel they ran into the fence where they were captured.	The Whereabouts of Your Friends For the Past Few Days Mrs. George Vogle is ill at this writing. John Roth is confined to the house with sickness. Clarence Musselman is confined to the house with an attack of grippe. Revival services are still in progress in the U. B. church with good results. Miss Mary Carmany was home with her parents over Saturday and Sunday. Ammon Fry, wife and son of Elizabethtown, spent Sunday here with friends. Chas. Carson succeeds Phares N. Kraybill as manager of Carmany's store. Success. Miss Margaret Raymond of Millersville, spent Sunday in town with her parents. H. G. Musselman, wife and three children of Harrisburg, were guests of his parents, Saturday. Miss Myrtle Sprout of Landisville, was a guest in the family of C. S. Wachtsetter on Sunday. Ephraim Morton and wife and Mrs. Seibert of Columbia, spent Thursday in town with friends. On Sunday Jacob Nissley and wife and Reuben Fellenbaum and family of Mount Joy, and Mr. Herr and family of Landisville, were guests in the family of Elam Hostetter. County Superintendent M. J. Brecht is visiting the schools throughout East Donegal this week. Yesterday he visited the Washington schools, taught by Chas. A. Greider and Miss A. Katie Witmer. Phares Kraybill has gone to Rheems where he is taking an inventory of the store stock of S. P. Engle & Co. As soon as the work is completed Mr. Kraybill will take charge. His many friends here wish him abundant success. A case of diphtheria has developed in our village, David Landis being the unfortunate person. The School Board of East Donegal township, has placed the house under quarantine. Dr. Thome of Milton Grove is the attending physician. The Democrats of Mount Joy township in this district, met on Saturday evening and settled the following ticket: Judge, Wm. Leibfried; Inspector, Chas. Frank; Reg. Assessor, John Masterson; School Director, H. L. Stoll; Supervisor, Hiram Entlerline; Assessor, Geo. F. Flowers; Township Clerk, Geo. Nauman; Auditor, Samuel Walters. NEWTOWN. Preaching services were held on Sunday evening by the pastor. The next church services will be held Sunday morning, Feb. 17. Jacob Wolhaef and family were the guests of Mrs. Priscilla Fogle on Sunday. The River Brethren held their regular services in the church here on Sunday morning. Maurice Wittle and family of Columbia, were visiting at the residence of Peter Risser on Sunday. Revival services will commence in the U. B. church at Silver Spring next Sunday evening to be conducted by the pastor. The fair of the Cornet band of this place, which has been in progress for several weeks, closed on Saturday evening. Owing to the scarcity of Democratic voters in this district of Rapho township, there will be no ticket put up for the coming election. Chas. Zoerger, an employee of the P. R. R., who resides at Altoona, will soon return to Kinderhook where he owns a beautiful residence but will continue his work.	On Saturday there was a gathering of tobacco experts at M. L. Greider & Co's. warerooms when they made a comparative test of Sumatra grown tobacco on the experiment farms at Coalcoke and Milton Grove. Some of the best known men in the tobacco trade were present and considerable interest was taken in the meeting. SCHOOL REPORT Following is the report of the Florin Primary school for the fifth month ending Thursday, Jan. 31. Number of pupils enrolled males 17, females 14 total 31. Percentage attendance, males 85, females 81. Average attendance males, 14 females 12, total 26. Those who have not missed a day during the month are Ruth Shank, Nellie Vogle, Mary McGarvey, Lois Wiley Benlah Lora, Esther Vogle, Edith Forney, Nona Wiley, John Kline, John Booth, John Rieder, Fred Keener, Earl Walters and Joe Haines. Visitors—Mrs. Jno. Longenecker, Mary Longenecker, Anna May Longenecker, Stella Wachtsetter, Myrtle Sprout, Mr. A. G. Walters, Mr. H. S. Brandt, B. A. Haddell, Henry Gingrich, Harvey McGarvey, Harry Grosh, Ralph Morton, Mrs. Katie Gingrich, Abner Gingrich, Mrs. Aaron Geyper and Jno. M. Gible Misses Lulu Groff and Katie Sheaffer. Patrons and friends of education are cordially invited to visit the school. ..Sue H. Brandt, Teacher. RHEEMS STATION. Charles Tillman, colored, of Hynes, Pa., is visiting in these parts. Rev. S. S. Shearer had a lot of concretizing done about his property. The Rheems hot house already has many orders for early tomato plants. Joseph Beal, a real estate agent of Coatesville, transacted business in town recently. ✓Jacob Nissley has accepted a position with the Electric Supply company at Lancaster. Rev. Longenecker of Palmyra, closed the revival here last Tuesday evening with one conversion. Two of Daniel Shenk's children are down with typhoid fever. This is the family's third case since October. Phares Kraybill of Florin, who will succeed S. P. Engle and Co. February 5, is making extensive improvements and will undoubtedly have one of the finest stores in the county. MILTON GROVE. John Martin is laid up with grip. Mrs. Rosanna Meesley will soon celebrate her 83 birthday. Red foxes are multiplying rapidly on the Conewago Hills. Samuel Hattick, a civil war veteran, has gone to Berks county over winter. Jacob Fry and wife spent last Sunday as the guests of Monroe Sheaffer near town. Mrs. Sarah Good of Hessler's corner, has purchased Samuel Baker's property in town for $1000. Mount Joy township will vote to change the system of taxation for road purposes at the February election. The Supervisors of Mount Joy township, held their regular monthly meeting at Hotel McGinnis, at Mt. Joy on Saturday. MASTERTONVILLE. Abel Hollinger is sick at this writing. N. S. Zug spent Saturday at Lebanon. Miss Stella Ginder is suffering from tonsillitis. David Fry moved into his new house on Thursday. Mr. Orth of Harrisburg, is harvesting ice at Mount Getzta. Rev. H. S. Zug is conducting a very successful series of revival services in Gible's church. There are some seekers. John E. Ginder, John Shelly and Harry Bomberger each bought a pair of young males of E. S. Weaver at Florin. SALUNGA. Levi Shuman, who was ill, is recovering. Tobacco packer Wm. Weller, is nursing the grip. John Morrison is visiting his uncle, A. M. Garber. Miss Kate Stauffer of Washington Borough, spent last week in town. Arthur Dillendorfer and Miss Katie Habecker were married at Carlisle, Saturday. Misses Fannie Myers and Irene Cover of Mount Joy, spent last Sunday here with friends. SPORTING HILL. There will be many Spring sales in these parts this year. The Democrats nominated a full ticket on Saturday evening. Read the Bulletin—don't cost a cent a week. Try it—50c a year. Henry Stauffer and two children of Reading, visited his parents last week. Let Us Show You. Newspaper advertising is the most powerful and the least expensive trade tonic available to ambitious merchants. Try our columns and be convinced.	Many of Our Friends Answer Death's Sad Call HENRY RAMBLER. Henry Rambler, an employe on the John G. Reist farm, near Rheems', in Mount Joy township died on Thursday night from meningitis aged about thirty years. The funeral was held on Saturday from the home of his father Henry Rambler, near Elizabethtown. DANIEL STAPE. Daniel Stape, one of the oldest residents of Columbia, died Saturday. He lived under all the administrations of the presidents except three. When a child the deceased's parents came to Marietta, on a raft, after which they went to Maytown. He went to Mt. Joy afterwards, and was married to Mary Yost, daughter of George Yost, of Mount Joy, on February 19, 1834, after which he moved to Columbia, where he resided since. MRS. W. H. MORTON Mrs. W. H. Morton, nee Bertha L. Gantz, daughter of W. H. Gantz and wife of this place, died last evening at 8.25 after a lingering illness death resulting from tuberculosis in her 28th year. She leaves a husband and three children, Allen, Kathryn, and Clara. One sister, Miss Nora Gantz, also survives. The funeral will take place Saturday forenoon at 10 o'clock at the residence of her parents and at 10.30 at the Lutheran church of which the deceased was a member. She was also a member of the Knights and Ladies of Honor at Lancaster. Interment in the Ebersole cemetery. Mrs. Morton was a kind and loving mother and was very well known throughout this entire community. Almost Suffocated. Mrs. Fanny Lindemuth, who resides a short distance north of the borough, made a narrow escape on Friday. The gentleman that stays about the place, went to Newtown that day and upon returning was unable to gain admittance at the house or barn. He informed Rev. Levi Shank of this place and with Dr. John J. Newpher, an investigation was made. A lock was removed from the stable where they secured a digging iron and a ladder. But one shutter remained open, this being on the second story and by prying open this window an entrance was effected. They found no signs of Mrs. Lindemuth in her sleeping apartment but upon further investigation found her down stairs sitting in a rocker in a semi conscious condition, being due to escaping gas from a coal stove. The house was aired and the old lady improved. She is now in the physicians' care. Had she been found several hours later, it is quite likely that the result would have been fatal. House Passes Bill. The House passed the service pension bill which passed the Senate January 15; increasing the pensions of soldiers and sailors of the Civil War and war with Mexico. The bill provides that persons having reached the age of sixty-two years shall receive $12 per month seventy years, $10; seventy-five years, $20; the pension to commence from the date of filing the application. The bill now goes to the President. Groundhog Day Saturday was Groundhog Day and there appeared to be a difference of opinion as to the groundhog seeing his shadow. Some weather prophets say the animal did not see his shadow between 11 and 12 o'clock at noon and we shall have good weather for the next six weeks. Others say the shadow was seen and that there will be six weeks of winter weather. Sale of Stock Persons having stocks of any kind to offer for sale, can have the same offered at public sale on Saturday, March 9, at Mount Joy, Pa. For information call on or address, Chas. H. Zeller, real estate and insurance agent, Mount Joy, Pa.