

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN

VOL VI. NO. 39

MOUNT JOY, PENNA. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1907

THE CIRCULATION OF THE WEEKLY BULLETIN EXCEEDS THAT OF ANY OTHER MOUNT JOY NEWSPAPER

A Very Quiet Election!

Could Not Send Zeller and Leib to the Tall Timbers

All Republican Nominees Win Without An Effort

* Yesterday's election passed off very quietly and very little interest was manifested. All the Republican candidates won, hands down and with one exception, there was nothing to mar the Spring election of 1907.

The Squire This Morning.

In the East ward there are at least 55 voters that have not as yet forgotten the lesson taught them by the "citizens" or rather the people last Spring. By all appearances they are determined to rule or ruin and yesterday that combination set up a job, which was directly aimed at Chas. H. Zeller, and indirectly at M. M. Leib.

Inasmuch as fifty-five voters wrote the name of M. N. Brubaker on the ballot, it clearly demonstrates that that faction was doing all it could. On the other hand, Mr. Zeller, as well as his friends, were doing nothing, the former calling a sale, while many of the latter did not even vote.

Last Spring Mr. Zeller polled 133 votes. Yesterday, the day being bad and the vote light, he had only 57, yet the opposing faction, with the Squire out of town calling a sale, after herculean efforts were unable to defeat him, and its underhand work during the last month went for naught.

The Other Fellow

Following is the vote:

East Ward: Council—M. L. Greider 86; School Directors—G. Moyer, 3 yrs., 90, H. S. Newcomer, 3 yrs., 91, M. M. Leib, unexpired term, 68, A. K. Manning, 55 Justice of the Peace—C. H. Zeller 57, M. N. Brubaker 55; Auditor—F. E. Hershey, 3 yrs., 52, H. S. Garber, 2 yrs., 55; Assessor—C. B. Hershey 85; Judge—E. M. Bar to 95; Inspector—Chas. Dillinger 82, John Rahm 11, John W. Brandt 4.

West Ward: Council—William Tyndall 52, John Kramer 25; School Directors, 3 yrs., 54, H. S. Newcomer, 3 yrs., 43, M. M. Leib unexpired term, 45, A. K. Manning 31, Barney Sumpman 1; Auditor—F. E. Hershey, 3 yrs., 52, H. S. Garber, 2 yrs., 55, Harry K. Hildebrandt 20; Assessor—A. K. Martin 66; Judge—H. W. Leib 51, Harry S. Hinkle 26; Inspector—Wm. Manning 54, Joseph Weber 22.

Consolidated—G. Moyer 144, H. S. Newcomer 134, M. M. Leib 113, A. K. Manning 84; Auditors—F. E. Hershey 137, H. S. Garber 137. There were 123 votes polled in the East Ward and 81 in the West ward.

A Sunday Wedding

Samuel Taylor of Harrisburg, and Miss Stella Cronn of East Hanover, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at the home of Albert Kolp and wife on North Market street, Sunday. Rev. R. C. Rengier was the officiating clergyman.

A One Sided Debate

The Adamstown debating club was booked to oppose Florin in the hall here Saturday evening but the visitors did not put in appearance. The Florin Literary Society had prepared an excellent program for the occasion which was rendered in a very pleasing manner. The chair chose Messrs. M. M. Leib, Clarence Reist and Samuel Kurtz as judges and after reading the question, Resolved, That all other causes combined, cause more crime than the use of intoxicating liquors, the affirmative speakers were heard. An opportunity was given any person in the audience to defend the negative, but no one cared to volunteer. The affirmative speakers, Messrs. Simons, Martin and Simons, who introduced only the best of arguments, viz: United States statistics from 1890 to 1900 and the last annual report of the Anti-Saloon League, which reports clearly demonstrated as well as settled the question as to which side should win. The judges unanimously decided in favor of the affirmative. According to the rules of the Tri-County League, Florin wins the above contest as neither the visiting team or substitutes were present. The teams now stand as follows:

	Won	Lost	P. C.
Akron	2	1	.666
Florin	2	2	.500
Bowmansville	1	1	.500
Adamstown	1	2	.333

Valentine Party

Master Clyde and Miss Alta Nissley, son and daughter of J. Frank Nissley, proprietor of the Exchange Hotel, gave a Valentine party to a number of their young friends on Thursday evening. The party had a double significance as it was also a birthday celebration. A handsome souvenir, typical of the day, was presented to each guest and the young host and hostess also received a number of handsome gifts. Refreshments were served in the dining room which was neatly decorated for the occasion. The guests were: Misses Esther Bowman, Miriam Smith, Marian Shrite, Emma Brown, Beatrice Brown, Mary Detwiler, Mary Bear, Esther Shelly, Martha Stauffer, Ruth Hoffman, Bertha Misemer; Masters Bysshe Heilig, Albert Dierolf, Walter Root, Arthur Hofer, Jos. Breneman, John Bowman, John Longenecker, Arthur Schock, James Newpher, Amos Diffenderfer.

The Litchfields

The Litchfields, one of the best troupe of entertainers of the American stage to-day, will appear in the hall here on Saturday evening, the fourth number of the Star Course. This company needs no introduction. Chart opened at Garber's this morning. Get your seats early.

Sheaffer-Haines

At nine o'clock on Sunday morning Justice of the Peace C. C. Hicks, of Maytown, united in marriage Melvin Sheaffer, of East Donegal township, and Miss Myrtle E. Haines, of Marietta. The couple were unattended.

Furniture Novelties

Wm. P. Wagner is at present engaged manufacturing all kinds of furniture novelties at his West Main street residence. He also does all kinds of furniture repairing.

Deeds Recorded

These deeds have been recorded in the Recorder's office at Lancaster: Isaac L. Hoffer to Norman S. Meshey, four lots in Mount Joy township, $400.

Saved Sheriff the Trouble

The New Anchor Wagon Works at Elizabethtown, was to have been sold by the sheriff today on an execution, but the concern has gone into bankrupt proceedings.

Let Us Show You.

Newspaper advertising is the most powerful and the least expensive trade tonic available to ambitious merchants. Try our columns and be convinced.

FLORIN NOTES.

The Whereabouts of Your Friends For the Past Few Days

Jacob Kline is about again after a few days' spell of sickness.

Henry Brandt lost a valuable horse recently, caused by colic.

Amos Eicherly of Lancaster, was a visitor to friends here on Sunday.

Wm. Leibfred and family spent Sunday at Lancaster with his parents.

Herbert Keener of Harrisburg, spent Sunday in town with his parents.

Miss Irene Brandt and lady friend of Middletown, spent Sunday with friends.

Mrs. John Flowers and children spent Sunday in town with her parents.

Mrs. Katie Gingrich is spending several days with friends at Elizabethtown.

Miss Laura Nauman and her aunt of Harrisburg, are guests of friends here.

Mrs. Alice Morton spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Middletown.

Reuben Swords is about again after a three weeks' spell of sickness—pneumonia.

G. I. Ishler and Albert Fike have embarked in the paper hanging and painting business.

Miss May Musselman has returned home after a month's visit to friends in Philadelphia.

Three new members were taken into the United Brethren church on Sunday evening. They were Herman Ishler, J. Clement Wormley and Gertrude Haldeman.

Howard G. Musselman, formerly of this place, but now of Philadelphia, was promoted recently from a local run to a through run on the P. R. R. between Philadelphia and Harrisburg. He made his first trip on Sunday.

Our ever faithful Democratic committee man, H. S. Musselman was very agreeably surprised recently but not at the result of yesterday's election. He celebrated his 56th birthday and his many friends remembered him by showering a large number of handkerchiefs upon him.

Application for Licenses

The following petitions for liquor licenses in this section, have been filed in the office of the clerk of Quarter Sessions, and will be heard by the court on Monday, March 4, at 10 o'clock.

Mount Joy Borough—Martin A. Spickler, John W. McGinnis, Wm. H. Gantz, J. Frank Nissley, Henry Jacob Engle, I. D. Springer and R. F. Wettig.

Conoy Township—Henry Birch, Edward Dupes and Hiram S. Young.

East Donegal Township—Elmer H. Fisher and John W. Johnson.

West Donegal Township—Mary Zepnick.

Mount Joy Township—E. M. Souder and Cyrus H. Wittle.

Rapho Township—Andrew Vogle, A. F. Heisler and Rolandus Bachman.

Liquor License applicants are as follows.

Mount Joy Borough—Sylvester Dearbeck, Brewers Licenses, A. Bube, Mount Joy.

Are Improving.

Katie Brubaker, of West Donegal and Amos Keeney, of Mt. Joy township, were taken to the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital at Philadelphia by Dr. A. S. Blough, and were operated upon. They both suffered from a deformity of the leg.

Secret Society Doings.

The Odd Fellows at Bainbridge, buried three of their members within ten days.

At the regular meeting of Otsego No. 59, Imp. O. R. M. Tribe, Friday evening, a pale face was adopted.

$50.25 Per Share

At a sale of all kinds of stocks at Lancaster Monday afternoon, twenty five shares of Lancaster & Mount Joy Railway stock were sold to J. N. Stauffer at $50.25 per share.

PERSONALS.

Miss Annie and Emma Shookers spent Saturday in Lancaster.

Mrs. Anna Eberle Doyle moved her household effects to Reading.

Our popular young barber Irvin Baker, spent Sunday at Kinderhook.

Mrs. Mary Shelley and nephew Guy Culp spent Saturday in Lancaster.

Philip Hottenstein and wife of Petersburg, spent Sunday at Frank Baker's.

David M. Martin and wife of Lancaster, spent Sunday here with friends.

Miss Pearl Wallace of Blue Ball spent a few days in town with Mrs. Mary Shelley.

Mrs. Apheus Sprecher and son Roy of Paoli, are guests of Frank H. Baker and family.

✓ Oscar Pennell has accepted a position as a brakeman on the railroad in New York State.

Miss Ida M. Boyce returned home on Monday after spending a week with friends in Middletown.

Mrs. Jno. E. Schroll and daughter Pearl, are spending some time at Manheim with her parents.

Mrs. Henry Derr is spending some time with her daughter Mrs. Benjamin Gebhart of Renova, Pa.

Miss Mabel Miller of near Lancaster Junction, called on her cousin Miss Lizzie Baker here on Sunday.

Rev. Noah Mack opened a series of revival services in the Mennonite church at Elizabethtown last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Longenecker and daughter Catharine spent Sunday with friends in Maytown and vicinity.

Mrs. Rice of Washington, D. C., was called home on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Hemperly.

Mrs. John Geistwhite, Mrs. Anna Carpenter, Miss Maude Ernst and Harry Carpenter spent Saturday in Lancaster.

Miss Clara Schroll was very agreeably surprised by receiving a number of very beautiful postals today—her birthday.

Mrs. H. Charles Light returned to her home in Lancaster after spending a week with her parents Lewis Seeman and wife.

Mrs. M. A. Rollman and children accompanied by Miss Ellen Garber went to Richmond, Va., on Friday where the former will reside.

H. S. Newcomer attended the meeting of the Retail Hardware Dealers' Association, which was in session at Pittsburg this week.

Paris Snyder, an able clerk for the Columbia Trust Co. and brother of the Marietta First National Bank, called on friends here yesterday.

Auctioneer C. H. Zeller sold the personal property of Amos Sheetz and wife for the assignee, Daniel E. Wolgemuth at public sale yesterday.

✓ Henry L. Mooney left Monday for Atlantic City where he will make his future home. He was the able bar clerk at the Red Lion hotel.

Miss Mary E. Newpher, teacher of the Second Primary school, attended a wedding at Philadelphia this week. Miss Belle Leader was her substitute.

J. N. Hostetter is home after spending two weeks throughout Virginia and other southern points in the interest of A. Buch Sons, the extensive manufacturers at Elizabethtown.

Street Railway Extension.

The Roberstown, Landisville & Mt. Joy Street Railway company has filed in the recorder's office a copy of the resolution extending its route. The extension is from a point on Front street, Roberstown thence south over rights of way purchased to the Columbia turnpike and across the turnpike into Manor township and return by same route to the starting point. The entire length of the extension is 4,760 1/2 feet.

Heavy Porkers.

Joseph Foreman, of Mt. Joy township, killed two hogs that weighed 991 pounds dressed.

OBITUARY NOTES

Many of Our Friends Answer Death's Sad Call

Amos M. Dugan of Marietta, died of pneumonia at the age of 21 years on Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph G. Moore died at her home at Kinderhook on Sunday from consumption.

Annie W., wife of Henry M. Hottenstein of Petersburg, died on Saturday, aged 60 years.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kaufman died at the home of Horace Heidler, at Silver Spring, Thursday, aged 78 years.

Mrs. Cyrus Nisley, a daughter of John and Susan Cuppenheffer, who formerly resided near town, is dead at her home in New Carlisle, Ohio.

Reuben R. Spickler died at the home of his son John, at Silver Spring, Tuesday evening, aged 75 years. He was buried at Salunga on Friday.

Mrs. Sarah, wife of Ex-County Treasurer Theo. W. Hiestand, died at her home in Lancaster yesterday. She was born in East Donegal township and is known to many of the older residents.

CHRISTIAN K. HOSTETTER

Christian K. Hostetter, residing a mile southwest of town, on the Marietta turnpike, near the Union school house, in East Donegal township, died yesterday, aged eighty-four years, from a short illness of pneumonia, having been sick only a few days. He was one of the oldest, wealthiest and best known citizens of East Donegal township. In former years he was a farmer, but had lived retired for a number of years. His wife died about fifteen years ago. He was a prominent member of the Mennonite church. One son and one daughter survive—Harry Hostetter, of East Donegal, and Sylvia, wife of Amos Hershey, residing near Manheim.

MRS. MARY RHOADS.

Mrs. Mary Rhoads, widow of the late Solomon Rhoads, died at her home in Newtown, Rapho township Wednesday morning, from a complication of diseases from which she had suffered for a period of two years. She was sixty-seven years of age and was born and raised in the vicinity of Newtown. Twelve children survive her.

The children are Henry, of Mountville; John M., of Back Run; Benjamin and Albert, of Columbia; Lillie, wife of Oliver Greenawalt, Emma, wife of Wm. Given, and Ella, wife of Lewis Diffenderfer, all of this place; Laura, wife of Henry Weaver, of Cordelia; Ida, wife of Howard Eisenberger, of Kinderhook; Kate, wife of Daniel Moore, and Mary, wife of Harry Sherk, of Newtown, and Miss Blanche at home.

She was a member of the United Brethren church from which the funeral was held Saturday morning. Interment in the adjoining cemetery.

AARON G. FRETZ.

Aaron Fretz, residing a short distance west of Florin, along the Lancaster and Harrisburg turnpike, in Mt. Joy township, died on Monday evening after a short illness, from grip, having been sick only a few days. His wife is also suffering from the same ailment at the present time. The deceased was seventy-four years of age. He is a son of the late Daniel Fretz, of Rapho township. He was a carpenter by trade, but of late years worked on the farm with his son-in-law. He is survived by his wife and an only daughter, Mary, wife of Elmer W. Strickler, a School Director of Mt. Joy township. He is also survived by two sisters—Harriet, wife of Isaac S. Longenecker, cashier of the Union National Bank, of this place, and Mary, widow of Jacob M. Keener, of near Rheems. The deceased was a member of the Mennonite Church. His funeral will be held on Thursday morning at his late residence at nine o'clock, and at Kreybill's Mennonite Meeting-house at ten o'clock.

Phares Bowman, East Hanover, and Levi Stauffer, of Ob.

Scene in The Litchfield

LANDISVILLE.

An infant child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham last week.

✓ Jesse Watson of Florin is the new driver of the Bakery team since last week.

Miss Anna Herr and Mrs. A. B. H. bright were at Lancaster last Thursday.

William Child and wife attend a funeral of the former's aunt at 2 a.m. last week.

The Misses Herr, daughters of our blacksmith, attended a party at Lancaster last Thursday.

Mrs. Fanny Hambright of Florin spending some time with the family of her son at Landisville.

Levi Hershey and Henry Stauffer attended the funeral of Isaac W. Eby at Hagers town Md. last Wednesday.

The public sale of George Derr of near town was largely attended yesterday and Mr. Derr and wife will in a few days again move into their dwelling at the east end of town.

✓ A force of P. R. R. Carpenters are making extensive improvements at the Station at this place, and making some changes in the interior. The two waiting rooms will be thrown into one large room.

Jacob Kurtz an aged resident of this place was removed to the St. Joseph hospital at Lancaster last week by Dr. M. M. Denlinger of Roberstown. Mrs. Kurtz was suffering with a dislocation of hip since last fall.

Horace Hipple of Harrisburg, was to his parents on Sunday.

Miss Margie Hornat of Lancaster, was the guest of her grandparents on Sunday.

Harry Flowers and family of Lancaster were visitors at the home of Jacob Gellmancher on Sunday.

Rufus Hipple who had been ill for some time, is again able to be about and attend to his duties as class leader and Sunday School Superintendent.

Preaching services were held on Sunday morning in the church in this place by the pastor in charge. Services will be held again on Sunday morning March 3.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Rhoads took place on Saturday morning with services in the church in this place and interment in the cemetery adjoining. Deceased was 67 years 2 months and 2 days of age and is survived by 12 children, 35 grand children and 9 great grand children also by one brother and one sister. Revs. Mease and Eli Engle officiated.

RHEEMS STATION.

Andrew Heisey was selling choice apples in town at $1. a bushel.

P. M. Charleston is about again after an absence of two weeks due to pneumonia.

Phares N. Kraybill, our new merchant wants 1,000 people at present to buy his goods.

John Boyer moved to his new quarry last week where he will quarry.

Geo. Foltz and family and wife spent last Saturday at Newville.

Jacob B. Shank, a prominent farmer, has a bull 9 feet 9 inches in circumference, 5 feet high.

The Rheems school teacher, visited Shurtz's schools last trip in eight sleighs.

UNION.

Martin Greiner and wife were guests with friends at Petersburg.

Amos Nissley, spent Sunday with friends at Sporting Hill.

C. Y. Stauffer, of View; Misses Jennie and M. Bowers, of Lancaster, and H. F. Ruhl and wife, of Newville.

The Chiques Hill school here made a call at school on Monday morning.

Shaefer, Edna, H. K. H. and Sadie Shaefer, also visited in the afternoon and Edna on Tuesday afternoon. Friends are welcome any time.

Sale of Stock

Persons kind to offer same offered yesterday.