The dinner, which was the chief feature, was served at six o'clock, covers having been laid for eighteen. The table was elaborately decorated in smilax and carnations, the color scheme being green and white. Those present were: Prof. Mark and Miss Miller, Misses Bear, Frank, Shelley, Dillinger, Meyers, Gingrich, Weiser, Kreider, Engle, Detweiler and Henderson, and the Messrs. Reist, Swarr and Hoffman, all of 1907, and Messrs. De Long and Brubaker, intimate friends of the class. Mr. Hoffman is to be congratulated, as the evening in every way was a decided success.

New Industry for Quarryville.

It is now assured that the B. F. Heilig cotton and worster mills will be removed from Carlisle to Quarryville, this county. The citizens of Quarryville are encouraging new industries to locate in the borough, but houses for newcomers are very scarce. In this connection the Quarryville Sun says: "Houses are much needed here. The erection of substantial ones that can be rented at a reasonable price should induce those persons possessed of a few hundred dollars and seeking a safe investment to give heed. There are several families that would have moved into this borough this spring could they have found houses to rent."

Mr. Heilig is one of the Heilig Bros. that formerly conducted a tea and coffee business here.

A Peculiar Accident

On Saturday Henry G. Shelly, who resides at the western borough limits, met with a peculiar accident. He was delivering a pair of horses to Annville and at Mastersonville the animals frightened. The Henry Eberle Cemetery Association, during the last three months has sold more lots than in the same months of any previous year for twenty years. The association contemplates a number of improvements the coming summer, and it is quite likely that more lots will be laid out.

Pennsylvania Broad Leaf.

M. L. Greider & Co. have a lot of choice broad leaf tobacco seed that they are selling. This seed has been prepared very carefully, all the light seed having been separated from the fertile seed therefore every grain you sow grows a plant. They also have a device by which to clean your seed if desired.

All a Mistake

Last week we stated that Alois Bube was not granted a botler's license. This is a mistake as under the new law we understand brewer's have the privilege of bottling, therefore Mr. Bube will be in a position to supply bottled goods same as heretofore.
