Miss Ella Erb, who resides a short distance south of Newtown, entertained a large number of her young friends at her home Sunday afternoon.

Preparations are already being made for a grand demonstration here on Decoration Day. It is quiet likely that the Red Men, in full costume, will parade.

Charles A. Greider, who just closed his school term last week, on Friday accepted a position as clerk for the Champion Forge and Blower Company at Lancaster.

A match game of pool for the championship of Mount Joy, will be played at the Exchange hotel Thursday evening between "Bings" Ergle and "Chicken" Hendrix.

After Another Prize

S. B. Bernhart & Co. have again decorated their window with the Ladies' Home Journal and will contest again for one of the 60 prizes and hope to secure one of the larger prizes this time as their window is far superior to the one of last month and well deserves a good prize.

Business Necessitates Improvements.

Owing to the increased patronage of S. B. Bernhart & Co. they are making big changes to the interior of their store by adding additional counters and shelving which will enable them to carry a more complete line of merchandise than heretofore.

Our hustling coal and lumber dealer F. H. Baker is making vast improvements about his place of business. He will continue his coal shed westward about one hundred feet and on Thursday received two car loads of cinder from the P. E. R. company which he will use about his yards.

Smeltzer—Sprout.

OBITUARY NOTES

Many of Our Friends Answer Death's Sad Call

JOHN H. SHENK.
John H. Shenk, one of the oldest and most prominent farmers of West Donegal township, died on Saturday evening at his home from cerebral apoplexy. He was in his eighty-seventh year. He is survived by the following children: Jonathan, Jacob, Christian and Mrs. John H. Witmer, all of West Donegal township. The deceased was a member of the Mennonite church. His funeral was held Tuesday afternoon, with religious services at Good's meeting house. Interment was made in church graveyard.

A Chicken Supper

A grand chicken supper in Mount Joy Hall, Saturday, April 6, beginning at 6 o'clock, p. m. The supper is held to increase a fund already started for the purchase of a piano for the High School. The school organ is in the decline of old age and is not satisfactorily meeting the needs of the school. It is hoped that the friends of the school, all of them, will be interested in this movement, buy a ticket from the boys who shall sell them, and then come to the Hall for the supper which will be complete enough to satisfy the hungriest. Come to the Hall instead of eating supper at home. Even if you do not want supper, you may want ice cream and cake. The supper is 25 cents, everything else at the usual rates.

Pupils' Honor Roll at Rheems.

The Rheems' public school closed on Friday last and each pupil received a beautiful card from the teacher, Simon B. Landis. There were six pupils, who received special prizes for having been present at every session during the term. These were Elizabeth Greider, Arthur R. Campbell, Willis Entertine, Kieffer Kesselring, Elma Entertine and Helen Campbell.

Changes To Be

Proprietor Wm. H. Gantz of the Farmers' Inn, will build a large addition to the hotel and raise it several feet. The building will also be moved back from the pavement. By that time the Borough will have Old Market street macadamized and with new pavements will greatly improve one of the busiest portions of the borough.

Result of Bad Roads

G. Samuel Sheaffer, who drives the delivery team for Alois Bube, the local brewer, got into mud up to the hub while taking a load of beer to Mastersonville last week, breaking both single trees. A kind farmer helped him out of his predicament.

Hoffer Succeeds Hamaker

Edgar Hamaker, the able young clerk in Yoffe's clothing store for some time, resigned his position to take effect this evening. F. B. N. Hoffer is his successor. Mr. Hamaker will spend the summer at the Jamestown Exposition.

Was Tired of Life
