nestoga Tracoon give away On Saturday following from the pany: The Conestoga Tracon Company has inaugurated a stem of cash fare receipts on all suburban lines operated by them. The Company proposes to give away each month coupon books, each containing 100 five cent coupons to holders of these receipts. The company will keep their copy for a month, and at the end of the month they will have a representative of one of the newspapers pick out five receipts. Persons holding receipts of the same numbers as the ones picked out will be given a coupon book free. It will pay all passengers to keep these receipts, as they may entitle them to five dollars' worth of trans portation.
