been heard of them since. Both negroes were heavily armed. These two negroes had given their names as Joe Brown and Jim Rose. Captain Wright gave a description of Brown as being 5 feet 9 1/2 inches tall; age 28 years; hair woolly; color dark brown and weight 135 or 140 pounds. The description of Rose was age 24 years; height 5 ft. 4 1/2 inches; color, dark brown; weight 155 or 160 pounds. The description given by Wright as that of Brown tallies exactly with that of the negro whose name was Frank Smith and who was shot by the constable, while that of Rose is the exact counterpart of that of the fellow who is in jail and who gives his name as Joe Brown. Constable Gerlach and Detective Broome believe that the two negroes bagged by them are the parties wanted by Capt. Wright and they think that after Constable Gerlach killed his man the other fellow hit upon the plan of taking the name of the dead man knowing he was wanted in several other places for crimes and thinking that in this manner he would throw the officials off the track. They also believe that because they were jailbreakers they put up the desperate fight they did when the officers went to arrest them. Brown, however, still sticks to his original story that he knew nothing about Smith, and that he only met him the day before he was killed.

The officers this morning sent pictures of the men to Captain Wright to see whether they are the men wanted, but from his description of them the local officers feel pretty certain that they are the men he wants.

At court on Saturday John Williams, colored, charged with felonious entry of railroad cars, and receiving stolen goods, pleaded guilty and implicated Joseph Brown the partner of the negro who was suspended until fall, when Brown will be detained as a witness.

It will be remembered that when Brown, who was implicated in the Yoffe robbery, was taken into jail he was at once recognized by Williams, who said he was one of the persons that helped him rob a box car near Lancaster recently.

NEWTOWN

Miss Mary Hornafus of Lancaster and Mrs. Mary Thompson of Brad-docks are guests of Mrs. Priscilla Fogie.

Misses Alice and Rosa Beckey of Middletown and George Rhoads and family of Chester county, are visitors at the home of John S. Rhoads.

John S. Rhoads, who spent a few days last week on a visit to his children in Middletown, returned home on Saturday.

A fierce electrical storm, accompanied by a heavy rain fall, visited these parts on Friday night which caused the streams of both Chickies creeks to swell to such an extent that farmers, who haul their milk to the Mount Joy creamery were obliged to return home as it was unsafe to cross the bridges spanning the streams. Crops planted in bottom lands close to the creeks were over flowed and entirely ruined and much damage was done to public high ways in different places.

WEST HEMPFIELD

Charles Bacon purchased a new straw baler last week.

Mrs. Henry Mellinger of Silver Spring is on the sick list.

Enos Musser and family visited John G. Musser, who is ill.

The Old Mennonites held services at Chestnut Hill church on Sunday forenoon.

The New Mennonites held services at Silver Spring church on Sunday afternoon.

Chickies creek was so high Friday night that it flooded Siegrist's mill floor on which he keeps feed.

Rev. John Bashore and wife of West Hempfield and Charles Weidman and family of near Rheems, Emmert W. Wisler and John Nissley near Rohrerstown, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon H. Musser at Silver Spring on Sunday

ELM DALE

A. Eberly called on M. N. Stauffer last week.

Lightning struck Martin Brubaker's barn but the damage was very little.

One of Stauffer Bros. quarries is filled with water and it cannot be operated.

Abram Eshleman, wife and two children called on M. N. Stauffer's on Sunday.

Lightning struck C. Breneman's bull killing the animal instantly during one of last week's storms.

Hershey—Sheaffer

At eleven o'clock on Tuesday morning Rev. A. S. Hottenstein united in marriage at his residence at East Petersburg, Samuel C. Hershey, of Landisville, who is employed at H. S. Newcomer's in this place and Miss Kathrine S. Sheaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Sheaffer, near town. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hershey went to Lancaster and left there on the 2:23 train on a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other places of interest.

Were Almost Drowned

Ezra Maier and Christian Musselman, of Landisville, narrowly escaped being drowned on Saturday morning. They were driving toward Lancaster and when they started to cross the Little Cone-stoga at Oreville the high water overtook them. Harry Hershey cut the horse loose and H. R. Steigerwalt rescued the men. The wagon was washed down the stream.

Choice Seed Wheat for Sale

Having given Jones' Longberry wheat a thorough trial, I find there is none better as a large yielder of grain and straw. It is a bearded wheat and in this section has yielded an average of 35 bushels to the acre. Price per bushel $1.25 in any quantity.

M. L. Greider,
7-29-5t Mount Joy,

Removed to the Asylum

Eli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Heisey of Florin, was removed to the county asylum on Saturday. Mr. Heisey has been living on his father's farm near Kraybill's church in East Donegal, and has a family. The unfortunate young man is in a pitiable condition.

A SURGICAL OPERATION

If there is any one thing that a woman dreads more than another it is a surgical operation.

We can state without fear of a contradiction that there are hundreds, yes, thousands, of operations performed upon women in our hospitals which are entirely unnecessary and many have been avoided by

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

For proof of this statement read the following letters.

Mrs. Barbara Base, of Kingman, Kansas, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For eight years I suffered from the most severe form of female troubles and was told that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham for advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has saved my life and made me a well woman."

Mrs. Arthur R. House, of Church Road, Moorestown, N. J., writes:

"I feel it is my duty to let people know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female troubles, and last March my physician decided that an operation was necessary. My husband objected, and urged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to-day I am well and strong."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, and backache.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Banana Blanc Mange.

Soak a table spoonful of gelatine for an hour in a teaspoonful of water. Bring a cupful and a half of milk to the boiling point, add a pinch of baking soda, and stir in a half cupful of sugar and the soaked gelatine. Boil for five minutes, stirring steadily. Line a jelly mold with sliced bananas and pour the lukewarm blancmange carefully in upon these. Set in the ice to form. Turn out and eat with whipped cream.
