FURNITURE TO LIVE WITH

Do you know that there's as much difference in furniture as there is in eggs-only you discover it quicker in the eggs. Plump upholstering and glossy finish often de ceive buyers of furniture, who only discover the mistake after they have lived with it.

There could be no more fitting way of celebrating the birth day of the great emancipator. Cannot the different churches and Sunday Schools, next Sunday take up the matter by appropriating Remember always that Kemp's one or two as a part of tive committee to meet at once at some central place to complete arrangements. The work of such a committee will not be very arduous I can be an auxiliary to the Red Cross. I hope the matter will be taken up and pushed along and let our community again share its helpfulness in a good cause.
