Prospects are Promising

It looks as though Mount Joy will be among the foremost in baseball this season. Recently two minstrel shows were given whereby $200 was cleared for the benefit of the team and a committee of three composed of Messrs. B. W. Brown, C. Owen Brandt and Jno. E. Schroll, are soliciting subscriptions and meeting with abundant success. A public meeting will be held in Mount Joy hall next Monday evening, April 5 when a permanent organization will be effected, directors and manager elected and the team will start the season with about $250 in the treasury. Nearly all of last season's players will be found on the team.

Dog Poisoners at Work

That dog poisoners are again at work is verified by the fact that within the past week there are several dogs less in this place. Jacob Garber's valuable rabbit hound died, a dog was found dead on Henry street this week, and several others were reported since. The pet cat of Mrs. Dierolf has also passed to the great beyond after showing symptoms of having been poisoned. Some rascal laid poison for some purpose or other and it was eaten by Rex, the fine pet dog at M. A. Spickler's Washington House. After administering the proper medical aid, Rex recovered.

Dr. John J. Newpher of this place, recently received a present which he prizes very highly, from Mrs. Isabella Harry, formerly of place but now a resident of Holton Kan. It was a pair of genuine Indian anklets made by the celebrated Indian Queen Snowfoot. As the doctor takes a very active part in Redmanship, being a past state officer, the gift is all the more appreciated.

A Star Course has been in existence in this place for the past five years but up until three years ago, when the present committee took charge it was a financial failure. Since that time a neat sum was cleared every season. This year there is a bonus of between $50 and $60 with which to start the course of 1909-10. The committee in charge is Messrs. H. C. Brunner, Rev. J. E. Deacon, Dr. E. W. Garber and Dr. Jno. J. Newpher.

This is truly business like and is good evidence that they mean to be just and square. The new firm will carry everything to be found in a first class furnishing store.
