Mistakes Are Easy To Make

In buying furniture—that is daily proved by the pieces bought here and there, from dealers who have a limited knowledge of the Furniture business. There's many a home full of these "mistakes." (That's just a word to the wise.)

Bargain Days Are Ever With Us.

But just now the values are superior to any in the past. Think twice before you let such opportunities as we offer daily slip past. If you have a Furniture want and do not bring it here you are not considering the value of time, money and satisfaction.
