THROTTLING NIAGARA FALLS
 Gigantic Community of Financial Interests Wiping Out World's Wonder.

In World's Work, French Strother describes the intenses that bear on Niagara Falls and threaten their destruction. From this article, "Shall Niagara Be Saved?" the following quotation is taken: "Thus we swing the complete circle of interests that are centered around the incident of Niagara falls. The same interests control the railroads, the electrical supplies companies, and the power companies. And in the midst of this gigantic community of financial interests, whose operations are already of momentum sufficient ultimately to tax the power-producing capacity of Niagara, stand the falls—not as a magnificent monument to the pride of the United States in a glory of nature, but as the 188-foot drop of 224,000 cubic feet of water per second, transmutated into 5,000,000 electrical horsepower for the use of an industrial monopoly. That we, as a people, have given our share of the necessary permission is to our shame. But there is another side to the question which strikes home at our pocketbooks. If we need such a spur to our pride. This is: What have we, directly or indirectly, received in return for the franchises we have given? So far as the United States government or the state of New York is concerned, the answer is brief—not one cent. The franchises were granted without price, and the companies operate without even the meager returns, exacted on the Canadian side, of $1.56 a year for each horse-power developed up to 10,000, and a sliding scale growing less with additional developments.

ERECT POSE CHEATS TIME
 Chicago Physician Urges People to Stand Straight and Retain Their Youthfulness.

"Don't imagine you must become stoop-shouldered because you are growing old," said a Chicago physician to a friend recently. "Old people do not stoop because they are old, but they get old because they stoop. The stiffening of the tissues, which is the sign and accompaniment of age, is warded off by exercise. Self-indulgence in eating and in drinking is the sure road to senility."

"I have often been surprised and gratified to find that regulated movements of the neck and upper trunk muscles, employed for the purpose of accomplishing something else, resulted in a conspicuous improvement in hearing, in vision, in celebration and, as a consequence, in betterment in cerebral circulation, also in sleep. Persons who habitually maintain an erect position in standing or sitting are stronger than those who slouch. A person who stoops and allows the shoulders to sag down and forward and the ribs to fall back toward the spine shortens the antero-posterior diameter of the thorax anywhere from two to five inches. The lungs, heart, great vessels and other important structures in the thorax cannot live, move and have their proper being under such circumstances."

Wherefore, the proper thing for persons who are not so young as once they were is to brace up, dress young and feel young. Sitting "hunched up" over a fire won't do.

Finger and Thumb of the Famous Astronomer to Be Bought by Italian Government.

What is the finger of a dead scientist worth? This question has been stirring all Florence, the thumb and index finger of the right hand of Galileo having recently been offered for sale in that city by an old woman, Laura Jona. Being in a strained circumstance, relates the New York Post, she tried to obtain the highest offer for her strange property.

The government, getting wind of the affair, caused an investigation to be made, and ascertained that these relics of the great astronomer were genuine, having been cut off in 1737 by a fanatical admirer, Marquis Capponi, when the body was reinterred in the splendid mausoleum in the Santa Croce church. Thereupon the government decided to acquire them and to replace them in the mausoleum.

The only question still to be discussed is the matter of price. Upon this point experts will undoubtedly be called in. But one person, we are sure, would not be welcome—the American tourist, who, as reported recently in the Atlantic Monthly, remarked on being told that of Galileo's tomb in the Santa Croce: "Galileo? Oh, yes; Galileo? Why, of course! Pygmalion and Galileo; you always hear of them together; now, who was Pygmalion?"

In some respects one of the most remarkable war photographs ever made was secured by a man named Meyer, a correspondent during the war in South Africa, says Everybody's Magazine. Meyer was with the Boers, and one day during one of Buller's attacks along the Tugela he took a position on the firing line. The fire from the British batteries across the river was very heavy during the preliminary period of the assault, and shells literally rained on the low-lying kopjes occupied by Botha's army. Meyer thought he saw a good opportunity to secure a fine picture, and he jumped out of his "schanze" to snap it. Just then a big lyddite shell exploded within a few feet of him, killing him instantly. I afterward secured his camera, which was comparatively unharmed.

When the film it contained was developed I discovered that Meyer had made a beautiful photograph of the huge shell which snuffed out his life. I sent a copy of the picture to his relatives in Germany.

Greatest Show on Earth
 The Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth is to visit Lancaster on Wednesday, June 2, never since the beginning of time has an amusement enterprise so tremendous in size been organized as this one. Its magnitude is almost beyond belief. All America, together with every foreign country, has been scoured from end to end by agents of this big show in search of novelties and the result is a performance brim full of sensational acts new to the circus world. In the big Barnum & Bailey show are nearly 400 arctic stars, most of whom are seen now for the first time. A new sensation will be seen at every performance in "JUPITER, the balloon horse." This remarkable animal with its fearless rider ascends to the dome of the circus tent in a balloon and descends to the ground in a shower of fire works. Nearly 1000 animal wonders are to be found in the big 108 cage menagerie. 8 herds of elephants, including one herd that actually plays upon musical instruments in time and tune. A group of giant giraffes, monster trained hippopotamus, only living bi-horned rhinoceros and hundreds of other strange beasts. Barnum & Bailey's big, new street parade is the most gorgeous processional display ever attempted in the history of circus business. Its tremendous size and wonderful length can only be believed in the actual seeing. It is natural to expect this big circus to lead all others in quality and quantity of street spectacle as well as in other departments of the big show, yet never in its splendid history of nearly half a century has it displayed such extravagance as is shown this year.

The Purpose of Advertising
 The purpose of store advertising is not merely to sell goods, but to sell more goods—to make friends, build up a patronage that will not only stick but grow. Newspapers reach the greatest number of people in the immediate vicinity in the most natural way, at the least expense, and they are therefore the best of all mediums for stores. In a newspaper you follow the lines of least resistance—you follow with the stream—you talk to an audience already assembled, to the people who want to read—their mental cosmos is right—they are on your wire, and they won't ring off if you hold their interest. Attraction is the basis of all advertising—the store is the sun, customer the planets that revolve around it.

Success with fowl of any kind is assured when Fairfield's Blood Tonic and Egg Producer for Poultry Only is used regularly. It prevents and cures Roup, Cholera and all contagious poultry diseases and makes hens lay.
