Elliott-Fisher Loses

Locals Were Handed the Game in the Ninth After Two Men Were Down.

An intensely interesting game of ball was played here on Saturday of which I am about to tell you. Now I'll not Billy Biddle, Old Sport or Wiseguy you but I'll say right here that those who don't care to digest a little baseball rot had better drop this old yellow bladder into the nearest waste basket.

Elliott-Fisher, the pride of last year's City League in the City of Graft (so they say) came here, exhibited a mixture of rattle, amateur, dope ball and red flannel suits for a few innings, then put "tough guy Levi" on the firing line and talk about some class, eh. Eleven sturdy stickers soon went out by the air route but with our good lead the type-writer boys kept plugging away until the sixth when they tied. From then on there was some classy playing and thanks to Lesley for his passed ball in the ninth with two down and the corners full—not the men thank you.

For the benefit of those who could not be present, or to settle arguments between those of you who were there, here is the game just as it was played, and I'll say right here the first time a game has ever been published in detail in this old burg.

1ST INNING

Elliott-Fisher—"Davy" Cover, the pride of Elizabethtown since "Doc" Blough retired, was on the mound for the locals and with a lot of his town's people on the side-line and just as a demonstration, he Cy Younged the side in Bowman Dwyer and Crutchley by the air route.

Mount Joy—Hendrix walked, Schock reached first on an error, Honest John going to third, Buddy stole second while Cassel drew a base on balls, filling the corners. Lesley failed to stop a low one so Hendrix and Schock done a marathon home. Hauenstein fled out to Smith and Cassel was caught at the plate. Engle walked and Givens got to first on an error. The latter two move up a peg while Zink fanned.

2ND INNING

Elliott-Fisher—Davy still had blood in his eye and this time Waddell the side in Wertz, Lesley and Chemouth, all whiffing at the air.

Mount Joy—Conrad singled to left and took second on a passed ball by Lesley. Cover drew four wide ones, Hendrix beat out a pretty bunt and Schock followed with a single scoring Cover and Conrad. Cassel was hit which filled the bases after which Hauenstein hit to Bowman, forcing Hendrix out at the plate. Rusty sent a hot one to Chemouth who fumbled and Schock scored. Cassel crossed the plate on another passed ball and Givens fanned. Hauenstein brought in another run because Lesley didn't stop the next one. Zink grounded out Ruby to Chemouth.

3RD INNING

Elliott-Fisher—Ruby fanned, Koss fled out to Engle and Smith fanned, making eight strike outs for Cover in these innings.

Mount Joy—With a seven to 0 score "Sheeny" Smith replaced Bowman in the box, the latter going to right. This ended the circus until the ninth. Conrad grounded out to Smith to Chemouth. Cover fanned and Hendrix walked. Schock advanced Honest to third with a clean single to right and Hendrix scored on an overthrow to third. Cassel at the bat, Whiff, whiff, whiff—you're out said Bings.

4TH INNING

Elliott-Fisher—Just then an extra added attraction took place on the diamond and it wasn't a bit nice of Manager Stauffer either in not advertising the event—a grand balloon ascension. Bowman cut the rope by singling to centre. Dwyer beat out a bunt that Cover was slow in handling and Crutchley fanned. Wertz, hit to Cover, who in the excitement threw hard to Givens who missed it and Bowman tallied the first run. Conrad missed one of Davy's dew-drops and Dwyer scored. Lesley then hit to Cover who tried to kill Wertz at the plate but he was safe as Billy dropped the ball. Chemouth went out. Napoleon Lajote to Hal Chase—I beg your pardon—Cassel to Schock. Ruby walked and stole second. Koss hit clean, filling the bases. Just because some fellow hollered gun nose, Iky Smith tore off a clean single and Chemouth, Ruby and Koss did the marathon, finishing in the order named, leaving Smith on third kidding the crowd. Bowman "finawled"—guess that's some talk—grounding out Cover to Schock.

Mount Joy—Hauenstein singled to right centre, had nerve enough to steal second and third but was nipped at the plate. Engle and Givens went out by the airship route.

5TH INNING

Elliott-Fisher—Dwyer sent a sizzler past Schock that was a very hard chance and Crutchley bunted out Conrad to Schock, sacrificing Dwyer to second. Wertz was later doubled between Cassel and Schock and Lesley ended the inning by flying out to "Nels" in centre.

Mount Joy—Notin doin. Zink was out, Smith to Chemouth, Conrad fled to Bowman and Cover fanned.

Reunion at Donegal

Today the descendants of the original families who were members of the Donegal Presbyterian church are holding a reunion in that historic church. The pastor, Rev. E. G. Bossart, of this place had sent invitations to noted ministers who are present and taking part in the ceremonies. The first service was held this morning at ten o'clock and was of a historical character. The afternoon will be devoted to social intercourse. The closing service will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The morning session was presided over by Hon. John E. Wiley. Papers were read by Hugh Hamilton, M. D., Harrisburg; A. J. Casanova, Washington, D. C.; Miss Lillian Evans, Columbia, and Dr. H. A. Orth, of Harrisburg, delivered an address. Dr. William T. North will address at the evening service, when addresses will be delivered by Dr. H. W. Haring, of Lancaster, and Rev. Ralph W. Illingworth, of Marietta, will sing a solo.

A Mennonite Home

Thursday afternoon a large attendance marked a meeting held at the Mennonite meeting house Lancaster for the purpose of receiving the report of a committee of five appointed at a previous meeting, to consider the feasibility of the Mennonite church establishing a home for friendless children in this county. The report of the committee which consisted of Abraham K. Diener, of Goodville; John Mellinger, of Greenland; Simon Hiestan, of Salunga; A. K. Mann, of Millersville, and Rev. John H. Moseman, Lancaster, was favorable, and the work it is understood will be pushed forward at once. The location of the home has not yet been determined.

A June Carnival Sale

S. B. Bernhart & Co., the East Main street "Store of Quality," have started a big June carnival sale that will quite likely eclipse all former sales at this season of the year. For further details read their large ad on another page and then call and get what you want. This firm has just installed a new Royal Electric Coffee Mill that cuts instead of crushes the coffee which, it is claimed, is quite advantageous. The 42-piece dinner set offered during this sale at $2.50 is a hummer.

Registered as a Physician

Dr. Asher Franklin Snyder, a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and of the University of Pennsylvania, 1908, has registered as a physician at the Prothonotary's office. He will practice in this place.

Celebrated Fifth Anniversary

As was announced in these columns last week the fifth anniversary of Rev. R. C. Rengier's pastorate was fittingly observed in the Lutheran church here. The church was handsomely decorated and an excellent program prepared for the occasion. Miss Mary Schock sang a solo and the choir an anthem. Rev. George P. Seiger of Lancaster had charge of the opening services and Rev. Dr. Jacob Frey of Mount Airy Seminary, Philadelphia preached the anniversary sermon. Rev. Rengier was presented with a very handsome bible by his Bible class. After the services a reception followed at the home of Mrs. Minnie Breneman.

Fell off a Ladder

Noah Ebersole met with quite a mishap at his New Haven street home Monday evening whereby he was badly bruised. He was on a ladder cleaning the spouting in the front of his residence when the ladder slipped and he was thrown to the pavement. His head struck the porch and was bruised. He also sustained a sprained ankle and wrist.

Bear This In Mind

Was Fatally Scalded

Little Ruth Sellers of Mastersonville, was Badly Scalded Saturday and died on Monday.

Ruth Naomi, the two and a half-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Zellars, died at the home of her parents at Mastersonville on Monday afternoon from the results of a fatal scalding accident which she sustained on Saturday morning. The mother of the child was engaged in washing Saturday morning and set a kettle of boiling hot water on a table in the kitchen. The little tot, who was playing in the kitchen, during the absence of her mother temporarily got hold of the teapot. In some manner she upset it and the boiling hot contents spilled all over the lower portion of her body, scalding her frightfully. The mother was unaware of the accident to her little daughter until she heard her agonizing screams and she at once ran into the kitchen and saw what had happened. Some neighbors came to the assistance of the distracted mother and everything possible was done to make the little sufferer as patient as possible until the arrival of Dr. E. M. Becker, of Mastersonville, who was immediately summoned. When he arrived the little girl was suffering in a most excruciating manner and upon examination he saw that the little girl was scalded so badly that there were no hopes for her recovery. He did everything possible to alleviate her suffering, but mortification set in and after suffering terribly the child died on Monday afternoon.

Ruth was a bright little girl and a general favorite of every person with whom she came in contact. Her untimely death has cast a pall of gloom over the entire neighborhood and her grief-stricken parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their sorrowful bereavement. Besides her parents she is survived by a brother, Paul.

The funeral will take place from her late home this afternoon with services at Chickies church and interment in the cemetery adjoining.

Steer Breaks Its Leg

J. S. Carmany of Florin, sold four fine large steers to Solomon Rosenthal of Columbia. The steers were taken to Wm. Gantz's stock yards and were then being drove to Columbia. One steer carried a long chain so as to prevent it from getting away and just as the cattle were crossing the Market street bridge one of the steers tramped on the chain, throwing it and breaking its right hind leg in the fleshy part of the hip. It was killed by C. K. Bennett.

M. A. Rollman's New Standard Cherry Stoner

THIS NEW CHERRY STONER was placed on the market for the first time last season. It was designed by M. A. Rollman, formerly of the Rollman Mfg. Co., and is now being made by the Universal Hardware Works Inc., of this place, of which Mr. Rollman is a member. The machine has been further improved since last season in various ways, the most important being the elimination of the rubber pads.

This new machine has no rubbers to wear out or springs to break and is so constructed that children can operate it with ease, in fact they are anxious to work it after once seeing it in operation. The machine is finely timed and presents a very handsome appearance. It will be on sale at all local dealers, G. Moyer being the first local dealer to place them in stock.

Injured in a Runaway

Benjamin Kauffman was unloading wood from a wagon in the rear of his West Main street residence when Dillerville local came down the "Old Line" and frightened his mules. They ran off and Mr. Kauffman grabbed the lines in an attempt to stop them when a piece of wood caught in a wheel, throwing it with great force and striking Mr. Kauffman on the head, cutting a deep gash. He was also cut about the face. The team was captured with one of the mules slightly injured and the wagon tongue broken. Mr. Kauffman is an employe of G. Moyer, the West Donegal street hardware merchant.
