At Elizabethtown Saturday
A goodly number of our citizens witnessed the ball game and parade at Elizabethtown on Saturday. The former was a hummer and what do you think of using three umpires in a game? That's going some, eh. When we played up there some fellows threw bouquets at Schock, calling him a has-been, but may be "Phil ip" didn't show those fellows where to get off on Saturday. He made a "noise" around first like Harry Davis. Beamy also delivered the goods but Cover—well ask those who were there.

A Big Party
One of the most successful social gatherings held in this section for a long time was that at the home of the Misses Barclay in East Donegal last Thursday evening. An exceptionally large number of young folks were present and all were royally entertained. The usual method of entertainment, games and refreshments, were indulged in. The committee that so ably gave this party were the Misses Anna and Guselle Barclay and Miss Tillie Weidman.

Here is a partial list of words that rhyme for the verse below: My, sigh, cry, why, shy, die, reply, thy, sky, nigh, fortify, etc.

What Is A Limerick

A Limerick is a jingle, a short piece of poetry generally consisting of five lines, the last line rhyming with the first two. Here is a sample Limerick completed.
Her Sweetheart at Christmas did bring
A necklace, a brooch and a ring;
In return at New Year
Miss Molly said, "Here
Is your chance to win back everything."

The Reason For It

The giving away of this large amount in prizes is made possible only through the assistance and co-operation of the large and wealthy factories we have so long represented in this section. The advertising received for our store and pianos repays us in a great measure for the large expenditure in prizes, and the people are directly benefited. Our last contest was so very satisfactory our friends have asked us to have this one.

A Few of Factories Represented In This Section By Us

Chickering, Kimball, Hardman, Sterling, Poole, Everett, Schaeffer, Lockhart, Huntington, Merrill, Horrington and many others.
