There was a hail and rain storm passed over this section yesterday afternoon when considerable rain and hail fell, the latter about the size of ordinary cherries but not sufficient to do much damage in this immediate vicinity.

TEN WERE GRADUATED

Interesting Commencement Exercises at Bainbridge

The sixth annual commencement of the Conoy township high school was held in the Lutheran church. The graduates were as follows: Gertrude Graybill, Russell Young, Elsie M. Stump, Doretta M. Orendorf, Mary E. Boyer, Miriam M. Smith, Anna M. Bachman, Jacob M. Stoner, Raymond L. Goss and Ruth M. Hoffman. Last year there were eight boys and seven girls. This year seven girls and three boys.

Prof. H. S. Brinser has been principal of the school for the past thirteen years. Prior to his coming not a single graduate was sent out. This, the sixth year of holding commencements, shows that fifty-one graduates have left the institution.

The procession to the church was headed by Rev. S. E. Herring, of the Lutheran church, and Rev. Smith, of the Methodist church, followed by the directors, Prof. I. E. McGinness, schools; the principal, and the other members of the faculty.

The evening was ideal, and the audience large. The wireless message from illumined faces, the sparkling eyes, all spelled appreciation.

The decorations were superb. The class colors, Yale blue and gold, were artistically arranged from wall to wall in beautiful streamers, meeting at the center of the large room. The class motto, "Out of School Life Into Life's School," was nicely arched and in the rostrum recess was a well made pennant. The class flower, the pink tea rose, was present in profusion, and feasted eye and ear.

Prof. McGinness spoke on "What We Have a Right to Expect of Our High School Graduates."

The honors were held by J. Russell Young, salutatorian, and Miss Gertrude R. Kraybill, valedictorian. Mr. Young spoke on "The Measure of Life," and Miss Kraybill on "Enduring Moments."

MENNONITE HOME ASSOCIATION

Trustees and Auditors Elected and Other Business Transacted

The annual meeting of the Mennonite Children's Home Association was held Monday afternoon in the East Chestnut street church at Lancaster. Benjamin Weaver, New Holland, president and there was an attendance of about 100 persons. S. S. Kraybill, Mount Joy, was secretary of the meeting.

The following trustees to serve for three years were elected: Samuel D. Martin, Goodville; Tobias Bomberger, Annville, Lebanon county; S. S. Kraybill, Mount Joy; Amos Hershey, Gordonville; Jacob Weber, Bowmansville. J. W. Weaver had been a trustee, but he resigned on account of his being recently ordained a minister. The other trustees are A. K. Mann, Millersville; Abraham Lutz, Rheems; Harry M. Hartzler, Morgantown; Benjamin Kauffman, Gap; Simon Hiestand, Salunga; A. K. Diener, Goodville.

The following auditors were selected; D. M. Wenger, New Holland; Simon Nissley, Lancaster; M. G. Weaver, Spring Grove. These officials will look over the financial conditions of the association and report at the next meeting.

Mr. Weaver was selected as chairman of meetings for the ensuing year.

Report was made that about $6,000 had been subscribed for the home at Millersville and that a lot of materials had been purchased. Today ground will be broken for the completion of the cellar of the home.

Last evening the trustees organized by electing John Mellinger, president; A. B. Lutz, vice president; S. Will, secretary; A. K. Mann, treasurer.

Resolutions of Respect

At a recent meeting of the "Crusaders" Class of the United Brethren church, it was ordered that the following resolutions be published in our town papers and a copy be sent to the family of our late brother Crusader, Eli Menaugh. Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His Providence to remove from among us, by death, our beloved brother, Eli Menaugh, therefore, be it resolved that we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, knowing that what He does is well done.

Resolved, that, in this death of "Crusaders" as well as the church loves a noble christian character, and a true and faithful member.

Be it further, resolved, that our heartfelt sympathy is hereby extended to the wife and sons of our deceased brother in their irretrievable loss, and may He who said that he would be a husband to the widow and father to the fatherless, be their stay through life.
