The farmer who owns a farm is the particular person who is fixed. Banks may fail and factories close, workmen strike and mines suspend, merchants fail and town burn, times may be panicky and even crops may be short—but the farmer who ownes his acres will get along. He will live in comfort and quiet, with plenty to eat, drink and wear. He is the most independent man on earth. Yet there are lots of them who do not appreiate their situation.

Of course if you are contemplating going to school this fall you are thinking and planning for it now, and that is right. It is none too soon to begin to make arrangements and to cast about for a desirable We gladly refer you to our No town in the state has a higher moral tone and fewer objectionable features. Our school offers unusual facilities for a proper culture of the mind at a very moderate expense, and you are very cordially invited to investigate before deciding to go elsewhere.

Pull together, brethren. We are all here for the same purpose. Then live and let live. The best way to build up a town is for each and every man to pull together and not strive to rend and tear down. All the residents of a town are partners not opponents. In all likelihood the more business done by your rival the who treats his customers honestly more you will do. Every merchan and fairly will get his share and the more business that can be secured by united effort, the better it will be for which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more to us than someone's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a firm price for his wares rather than send Rockers our money away, knowing as we do that every dollar our own citizen It pays richly to patronize home industry.

About as good a way to study human nature is when you are driving on the public road. If a man is sonable as is consistent with good, honest work. willing to observe the laws and the courtesies of the road, he will duly give his share of it when meeting another, and shows he is willing to But when you meet one who takes elsewhere, very moderate prices for expert work. every advantage of those he meets, and holds the road for his own selfish self, often to the great discomfort of those he meets, or will not allow them to pass, we are almost sure to think of pork in connection with such drivers of teams.

The MILLERSVILLE NORMAL SCHOOL will open for the Fall Term TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6th Comfortable rooms in either the Ladies' or Gentleman's Building may be engaged by writing to the Principal. Among the improveest and most approved kind in both buildings, with plenty of bathing facilities (hot and cold water), stone walks connecting all the buildings, steam heat, etc.

The "final" examination was held by the State Board of Examiners on June 22, 23 and 24. The record of more than twenty years in this school was not broken at this examination. All of the students in every course passed the examination by the State Board. This is a record held by no other school, and the Millersville State Normal School has 20 N. QUEEN ST., LANCASTER a just reason to be proud of it.
