

MILTON GROVE

From Elizabethtown Chronicle:
Jacob F. Fry was a Goldsboro, York county visitor Saturday.

Henry Shepherd transacted business in Elizabethtown Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bricker, of Rose Hill, Sundayed with John Rasp and family.

There will be automobile service between here and Hillsdale camp ground Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Good were sojourners to friends near Mt. Getz over the Sabbath.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grube, of Chiques Hill spent Sunday with Jacob R. Shenk and family.

Miss Estella H. Good, a pulchritude young lady, visited under the parental roof over the Sabbath.

Misses Lizzie and Mary Shank, were week-end visitors with their brother and sister near Lawn.

Misses Ada Esleman and Mary S. Fry, refined ladies, spent Sunday and Monday at Mount Getz.

Isaac G. Kopp and helpmet were Saturday morning visitors down at Pleasant View and Back Run.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ober, spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Moses H. Ober at Union Square.

John M. Gibble and wife of Elizabethtown, visited relatives and friends on Cherry Hill Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Thome bowled to Lancaster the latter part of last week in the former's automobile.

Due to the prolonged drought hundreds of bushels of blackberries were virtually dried up on the Conewago Hill.

Mrs. Clayton Gantz of near Lancaster, was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Moyer last Friday.

J. Wolgemuth of Union Square and Daniel B. Brubaker of near Oberholzer's school were week-end visitors in town.

Mrs. Samuel Holwager, of Mount Pleasant, visited her brother-in-law, A. S. Holwager and estimable wife Saturday.

There are 208 voters in the Milton Grove election district—191 Republicans, 12 Democrats and 5 who are doubtful.

Hauling manure and treshing, engages the agriculturist's attention extensively—Plowing follows next on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Fry and her parents, Jos. P. Ginder and wife of Oakdale, were Sunday visitors in Mastersonville.

Amos Brubaker and wife of Sunnyside, were Sunday guests at Eli Brubaker and family's domicile adjacent to Green Tree.

J. S. Kaufman and A. R. Gibble, respectively, conveyed in their autos, passengers to Landsville and Mount Getz camping grounds.

Among the prominent sports attending Ruhl's U. B. Sunday school picnic Saturday were H. Wittle, T. W. Zook and H. Hoffman.

Mrs. J. Wesley Shope and daughters Misses Leola and Ruth, after spending a week in this vicinity, returned to their home in Harrisburg.

Mrs. Eliza Gehl, who underwent a prolonged siege of illness, has ultimately gained her equilibrium but is however as yet unable to perform any labor.

The Milton Grove contingent helped swell the multitude at Mt. Getz and Landsville camp grounds on Sunday. Next Sunday all roads lead to Hillsdale.

The local highway commission board convened at their usual rendezvous, the Milton Grove diversory, Saturday morning with a full quorum and transacted business of vital importance.

John L. Helsey, a prominent citizen of West Donegal township, from his new mansion on Tunnel Hill a panoramic view is afforded of greater Elizabethtown and its magnificent environs.

"Buddy" Fry, formerly a manipulator at Meekley's stone quarries has relinquished said position to accept employment with J. S. Stauffer and Son, having entered upon his new duties Monday morning.

Miss Meta Zook entertained at a dinner social at her home Sunday: Misses Mame Ginder, Emma Belsor of Elizabethtown, Miss Stella Gantz of Green Tree, Messrs. John Young, Harry Geyer and Elmer Floyd of Elizabethtown.

Eddie Fry, of Palmyra, displayed his pleasant countenance to his parents and legion of old time friends in this place over the Sabbath. Being in a jocose disposition, Mr. Fry will ever be a star witness among his ancient cronies.

John S. Kaufman, the pioneer thresherman with his traction outfit, a few weeks ago opened his 1910 campaign full swing, having already booked engagements ahead which will keep him busy making the dust fly for months to come.

Clayton R. Gibble, popular blacksmith, in the disorderly docket for the past week, occasioned by a serious affection in the lumbar region or posterior portion of the body. May he speedily regain his normal health and again be at his old port of duty is the unanimous sentiment expressed by his many friends.

John White, of Pleasant View, so reported, has after two years of persistent endeavors received his payment for 1908 haymaking and harvest labors from a tenant farmer near Strickler's church. At the same time he received a black optic and profuberant nasal appendage, in return for which he bestowed a reciprocal black eye upon the tenant, and some facial abrasions upon the profuberant appendage of the grange. The two years feud was adjusted by payment of the claim and a two minute scientific pugnacity.

Amos H. Young of Lancaster, a former salesman in E. F. Grosh's emporium, spent Sunday in town and at his parental home on Cherry Hill. His many friends are joining hands in his welfare after leaving his vacation here last April to enter a more luciferous field, to learn that he has struck it so magnificently rich in Buchanan and Young's store in Lancaster, and that unbounded prosperity may incessantly reign supreme in his behalf.

Of a complimentary disposition were the Milton Grove visitors last Friday. Their identity follows: Mrs. Helen Brobst, wife of Dep. Treasurer B. F. Grosh, Mrs. Jennie Grosh, wife of Dep. Sheriff A. Whissler, residents of the county metropolis; Mr. and Mrs. Amos M. Swarr, hailing from East Petersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kulp, of Oakdale, Mrs. Henry Fahs, of Pleasant View, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Snavel, of near Union Square and Samuel G. Wenger, a prosperous farmer hailing from the Mt. Hope region.

Horace Good who suddenly decamped from his ancient haunts at Sunnyside about four months ago for Neffsville to exemplify his labor as a proficient tiller of the soil has returned to his prior rendezvous, where he greets his many friends with the usual smile upon his countenance.

Heartly congratulations to the base ball twirlers! Religious fanaticism and base ball enthusiasm are no longer divorced, but live in sweet contentment and in the same divine presence and harmonizing influence under the heavenly canopy, according to the belief of Rev. C. Julian, pastor of the Mattapoisett, Mass. Congregational church, of which he said in part "Heaven is but an evolution of this world. A Christian may love a base ball game and loving it remain a Christian. Why then, is it not safe to prophesy that even the game of base ball will have its place in some spiritual form in heaven?"

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man is a happy slave. Burdock Blood Bitters builds up sound health—keeps you well.

Base Ball
The Reading Game
The fans were given quite a treat again on Saturday when the locals defeated a good team from Reading by a score of 5 to 0. It was an ideal contest thruout, the features, being the pitching of Brown and his faultless support. The visitors outfield also worked well. Several new faces were found on the home team which necessitated changes in positions, but all worked to perfection as not an error is charged against them. The score:

Diamond Dust
Caswell will be found with the locals again on Saturday.
Schroll's single came at the right time and scored two runs.
Brown certainly has the goods and sent an even dozen down by the air route.
Maybe Schock isn't some second baseman. They just couldn't get any past or thru him.
That the Reading bunch were some team can be ascertained by the fact that they had three double plays.
But one ball was hit to the outfield on Saturday and then "Tucker" threw a runner out at home from right.
Harris, the new man at third, was there with the goods and any old time they beat him pilfering bases you'll have to show us.
It seems as though Balmer has taken second life. He got them all, held the runners close to the bag and contributed an opportune hit.
It looked like old times to see Snyder dig them up around first. He got everything that came his way and had a good solid hit. Frank will play on Saturday if he is here.
