Montgomery Ward & Co. Catalogue

We are now ready to send out the fifth edition of our large catalogue, number 79, of which copies are already in the hands of several million people. If you have not yet received a copy, hesitate no longer, but get one by return mail and be prepared to DO YOUR HOLIDAY SHOPPING AT ONCE. This is the book that quotes the lowest prices on everything you use, eat and wear. It posts you on what prices your dealers pay for everything they buy and enables you to buy as cheaply as they do. It gives wholesale prices on 125,000 articles, and shows illustrations of thousands of them. There is no other way to so correctly post yourself on modern merchandise, prices and methods as to consult the Montgomery Ward & Co. Catalogue. Its presence in your house will save you money. It will save the average family at least $100.00 a year—some $500.00. Five million people send for this price list yearly and use it as their buying guide. We want you to have one, too.

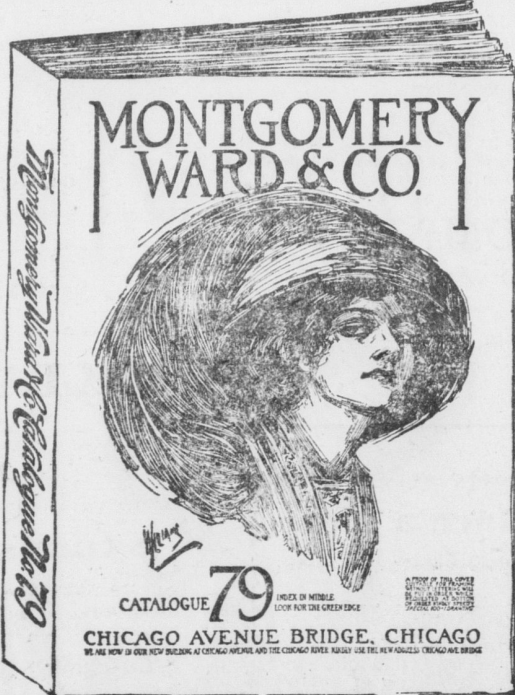

It is Like a Great City Store Brought Right to Your Door

For 39 years we have been buying all kinds of merchandise direct from the mills, the makers and the producers, and selling direct to the consumers without the usual expenses of middlemen. Ours is the original catalogue house. It is the oldest and most reliable. Our enormous business has been gained and held by underselling all others, treating customers fairly and observing the golden rule.

You Need This Catalogue

Its value is beyond comparison. Its profits are personal to you. We send it without charge and pay 28 cents postage on each copy, so anxious are we for everyone to have it. That we are so willing to pay for the book and for the cost of getting it to you should convince you that we believe in its message and its claim of money-saving to all.

Not one cent need you pay. We pay all the expense to enable you to profit by its wonderful bargains, and ask you to accept a copy at once without cost. We have two large establishments, one at Chicago, one at Kansas City. Send your request for the catalogue to the address nearest to you.

Auto Club Met
Plans for increasing the membership of the Lancaster Automobile Club during the winter months were outlined at the regular monthly meeting of the club at Hotel Wheatland, Lancaster, on Friday evening. With an increased membership the good roads work of the club during the coming season should be even more effective than the past season's highly gratifying accomplishments. In the report of the good roads committee was acknowledged the receipt of twenty dollars from an unknown donor, who wished to show his appreciation of the work of the club and give practical assistance to the good roads movement. A reputation adopted thanking the Lancaster and Williams-town Turnpike Co. for its donation of a carload of stone to further improve the Gap road, which the club is working to put in a good condition. The good roads committee was instructed to inspect a reported bad road in Manor township and legally proceed against the supervisors if they refuse to place the road in a safe condition.

Your wife looks charming tonight Mr. Blinkers, remarked the hostess at the reception. "Her new costume simply beggars description."
"Well, I don't know about that," rejoined Blinkers, "but it almost beggared me."—Chicago News.

The Wherefore
"Your daughter practices on the piano faithfully, I notice. Now, mine hates it."
"Mine does too. But she'd rather practice all day than help with the housework."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE WHEREABOUTS OF OUR FRIENDS THE PAST WEEK

Who and Where They Have Visited—Many Strangers Here Over Sunday—Were You Among Them?

Mr. Benjamin Eichelberger of Philadelphia, formerly of Florin, spent a week here with friends. The smiling countenance of Mr. Jno. Arndt may again be seen behind the counter at I. D. Beneman's after an absence of several months. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ricksecker and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Carper of Kissel Hill, were very pleasantly entertained at the home of the former's son, Mr. Charles Ricksecker on West Main Street, Sunday.

Rev. Egge made the after-dinner speech at the Annual Masonic Banquet in Honey Brook on Wednesday evening and on Friday evening he delivered a lecture at Rutherford Heights.

The old gentleman having prospered in business, decided to take his son into partnership with him. The young man appreciated the move, but in his newly added dignity became just a little inclined to take things into his own hands. So his father resolved to remonstrate. "Look here, young man," he said "let's have a little less 'I and a little more 'We' in this business. Remember you are the Junior partner."

A week later the son appeared in his father's office, looking a bit anxious. "I say, dad," he said, "we've been and done it now."
"Done what?" snapped the parent. "Well—er—we've been and married the typewriter."

Not According to Rule
Woggs—"That's the most remarkable restaurant I was ever in!"
Boggs—"How so?"

Woggs—"I ordered ham and eggs and coffee in there just now, and what do you suppose the waitress called?"

Boggs—"What?"
Woggs—"Ham and eggs and coffee."
Boggs—"Nothing remarkable in that, is there?"

Woggs—"There isn't, eh? According to all the comic papers and vaudeville performers in the country, she ought to have yelled, 'Noah's son, actor's flush, with morning-after taste.'"—Judge.

She Made Her Fly
"What is an angel, mother?" asked the six-year-old.

"Why, dear, it is a beautiful lady with wings, who dies. Why?"

"Because I heard Father call my governess an angel," was the reply. "Oh," said the mother. "Well, you watch her, and you will see her fly tomorrow."

Some people are immensely tickled if they can live on tick. She is indeed a strong minded woman who can hold her tongue.

In making assertions a man must either back them up or back down. It doesn't necessarily follow that the mining expert is a good oarsman. Some people regard religion merely as a fire-escape.

One good turn deserves another, even with a crank.

Lots of people are poor and proud, but few are proud of being poor.

Many a man gets a pretty bad fall from being thrown on his own resources.

The one time when a woman measures her words is in sending a telegram.
