THE ROAD WHICH WE ALL MUST TRAVEL SOONER OR LATER

Some Well Known People From Our Neighborhood Have Passed to the Great Beyond Since Our Last Issue

Mrs. Catharine Wohlforth died at Columbia last Tuesday, aged 78 years.

Mary Rohrer

Mary Rohrer died on Friday of asthma and heart trouble at the General Hospital. The remains were interred at Landsville on Monday.

Harold S. Brock

Harold S., son of Mrs. William F. Kuhn, died at Manheim on Sunday, aged 6 years. The remains were interred at Fairview.

Miss Izora H. Greider

Miss Izora H. Greider died Saturday night at the home of her brother-in-law, John N. Snavely, at Rohrerstown. Death resulted from consumption, after a long illness. She was in her thirty-six year, a daughter of Tobias H. and the late Mary A. Hougendobler Greider, and was born in East Hempfield township.

Mrs. Frances Spiese

Word reached Marietta announcing the death of Mrs. Frances E. wife of George W. Spiese, of Kansas City, Missouri, who formerly resided at Marietta. Death was due to a complication of diseases after a lingering illness. She was in her seventy-seventh year and is survived by four daughters, besides her husband, as follows: Mrs. G. W. Dooley, Mrs. J. W. Sullard, Mrs. L. B. McGinty and Mrs. I. E. Prosser, all residing in the West. The family removed to Missouri a number of years ago. She was well-known in Lancaster.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Brandt

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Brandt, widow of the late Daniel W. Brandt, died at her home in Florin, Friday, Aug. 25, 1911, at 9:15 o'clock, from a complication of diseases, superinduced by a paralytic stroke, sustained almost four years ago. Deceased was born in what is now known as the J. S. Carmany farm, a short distance southwest of Florin, on December 5, 1837, thus aged 73 years, 10 months and 20 days. The best part of her life was spent in East Donegal Township. She was a member of the Mennonite Church. The funeral was held from the home of her sister, Mrs. Fanny Gantz, with services in the Bethel of the Church of God, by the Rev. Peter R. Nissley, assisted by Rev. Getz of the Church of God, and Rev. Levi Musser. Interment in the Mount Joy Cemetery.

Mrs. Adam Demmy

Fianna, wife of Adam Demmy, died Monday at her home in Rapho township, near Mestersonville. She had been ill for some time, but the direct cause of her death was a stroke of apoplexy, which she sustained a few days previous to her death. Her age was 62 years. She was a member of the Brethren in Christ for many years. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Lizzie, wife of Cyrus D. Wittie, near Mt. Joy; a step-daughter, Alice, wife of Samuel S. Geib, and a step-son, Joseph B. Demmy, both of Rapho township. The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the house and at 10 o'clock at the Mestersonville Brethren in Christ meeting house, with interment in the cemetery adjoining. Elder Henry Hoffer and Revs. Allen Brubaker and Henry Zug will officiate.

David K. Burkholder

David K. Burkholder, a prominent citizen of Lancaster and once a power in county politics, died at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening in the Brethren Home, near Neffsville. While in feeble health for some time he was sick but a day and his death was the result of infirmities of his advanced age, he being 77 years old. For fourteen years Mr. Burkholder had been engineer at the court house, which position he resigned last November. With his wife, he went to the Brethren's Home, near Neffsville, to spend the remainder of his days. Deceased was a landmark in the politics of this county. He took an active part in the affairs during the reign of the "Bull Ring" and the "Hog Ring" and was well posted in all politics of this county, having had a large personal following in those days. Mr. Burkholder was a member of the legislature in 1872 and 1873. He was author of the Labor Act and he made the first move for a State mechanical school. When he became a candidate for a second term he was opposed by both political combinations of the day, but he won out lone-handed. Through his actions Mr. Burkholder became known as "Honest Dave," which sobriquet was used by friends in hot campaigns. It was in 1884, after he had been watchman over a year, that Mr. Burkholder was elected prison keeper. In that office he gained political prominence. His efforts to reform the institution earned him considerable ill will. It was during his term that Ike and Abe Buzzard escaped through the bird cage trick, which became political ammunition for Mr. Burkholder's opponents. Mr. Burkholder was elected sheriff in 1887 and he served four years. He then became candidate for prothonotary and was declared defeated by 168 votes. At personal campaigning Mr. Burkholder was most successful. He had been a salesman of agricultural implements, which made him widely known among the farmers. When his term as sheriff expired Mr. Burkholder embarked in the race horse business, conducting the Red Rose Farm, near Quarryville. Deceased is survived by his wife, but no children. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, with services at 1 o'clock at the Brethren's Home.

Moved Our Press

Last Friday noon we made a break at moving our large press and take it from us it was some job, especially inasmuch as the weather man was so very liberal, spouting at frequent intervals during the fitting. With all that the moving was a success, everything passed off very nicely, no one was hurt and nothing was broken. After tugging at a block and tackle until nearly every man on the job had his hands blistered, Mr. Charles Frank gave a lift with his horse. A little later Mr. Daniel Derr's big Huber traction was pressed into service and under the supervision of Mr. H. H. Nissley, the big iron "type-smasher" was soon resting on the concrete foundation provided for it months ago. We feel free in saying that we do not know of a single instance in which a printing press as large as this one was moved as a whole so great a distance. The entire side of a building was removed through which the press was taken. The heavy machine was jacked up, heavy timbers placed beneath the frame, a temporary track built, after which it was moved by means of large rollers, same as are houses. Eight times the press had to turn corners on its journey. The press as it stands weighs a little more than five tons and we are pleased to say not a single part was cracked much less broken. The editor is under most everlasting obligations to all those who assisted, either suggestive or otherwise.

A Band Concert

Druggist W. D. Chandler and shoe merchant John Keener will erect a spacious stand in front of the latter's place of business upon which the Citizens' Band of Ephrata will render a concert. It will be given at the instigation of the Foresters Lodges here and of Ephrata, Sept. 14th. G. A. R. reunion day, is the time, but the hour will be announced later.

More Money Needed

There seems to be a general impression among some of our citizens that the Finance Committee of the G. A. R. Reunion has or will have more money than will be needed. This is a mistake. The Committee is at loss to tell just what the expenses will be and the money collected thus far is a mile from enough to defray the expenses to date. Keep on contributing.

Is Not Home

The report that Clayton Penny-packer was home from Dixon, Ill., is not correct, as we received a letter from him at that place today. He was as far west as Colorado and will remain at Dixon for some time. He likes the west very much.

Quite a List

A glance at our sale register will convince any one that the Bulletin's merits as an excellent advertising medium and at the same time the quality of posters we print, are appreciated.

Hired a Band

At a special meeting of Friendship Fire Company No. 1, last Thursday evening, the company hired the Foresters Band to play for them on Sept. 14.

Through the Antrim Entertainment Bureau at Philadelphia, the Local Committee Procured Five Attractions That Should Prove Winners—Prices Same as Heretofore

After some months of deep thought as to just what would be the most likely to appeal and meet with the general approval of the Star Course patrons, the local committee has booked five of the best attractions available thru that most popular agency, the Antrim Entertainment Bureau of Philadelphia.

Each year the attractions seem to please and the good attendance is evidence that the committee's efforts are appreciated. The prices for the course of 1911-12 will be the same as heretofore, i. e. Course tickets $1.00; general admission, 30c; reserved seats 5 cents extra. The charts for reserved seats will be placed on sale at E. W. Garber's drug store, several days preceding each number.
