Political

ASPIRANTS FOR LOCAL AND COUNTY OFFICERS ARE VERY ACTIVE

Our Town Offers Two Candidates for Treasuer, Two for County Commissioner and One for Sheriff-Aspirants Busy Procuring Signatures-Local Politics Begins Brew-

Not since the Cassel-Brecht campaign has there been so much activity in our town as there is at the present time. Almost daily, on street corners, at business placesin fact everywhere politicians are exchanging ideas, plotting, planning, schemeing and what not. All seems astir and Mount Joy is beyond a doubt the centre of the Keystone Democratic-Fusion movement that at present sizes up as being trouble-

Last Wednesday evening the Lancaster Intelligencer, in its estimation, gave Hon. W. W. Griest's "slate" for the coming campaign. Since then there has been a general flutter among the aspirants througt the county. The Intelligencer's article contained quite a bit of "direct" nearly correct:

The Slated Candidates

Commissioners, Samuel W. Diller and J. R. Shirk.

As there are so many office seekers, as is usually the case, there is great dissatisfaction, especially in Mount Joy. Mr. C. N. Mumma claims he had a promise and now gets the turn down, but he says he will be candidate with all that. His petition with a large number of signers, has been filed at the Commissioners' office. Mr. Mumma has been solicited to be Eby's apponent on the Fusion ticket, and it now looks as though he will accept.

Mr. Martin L. Greider of this place an ex-County Commissioner, is around with a petition and says he vill run as a Republican whether slated or not. There is also much dissatisfaction and discontent in Flor in. Mr. Samuel S. Stacks wanted a crack at the Commissionership and says he had the promise and now is of the opinion that he was not even considered. Mr. Stacks has a large number of friends in the Donegals and it is too previous to say what their move may be.

There is also something doing among the Democrats here and in expostmaster and ex-Burgess Jacob W. Shrite, the Standard Oil Company's true, lookout. It will be remember- tion. ed that Mr. Shrite was elected Bur-
