

CIRCULATION ALWAYS COUNTS—OUR ADS BRING RESULTS—THAT'S WHY MERCHANTS USE THIS ADVERTISING M...

Where Is It?

WHAT HAS BECOME OF THAT MUCH-TALKED-OF BI-PLANE

The Owner Is Determined to Make It Fly But Thus Far It Is Still Flying on the McGrann Farm at Rossmere May Be Expected Any Time

"And it didn't come," is the expression of the German and proves only too true in this case. That much-talked-of Curtis bi-plane which was to have appeared here on last Thursday did not put in an appearance on account of weather conditions.

It was then advertised to come Friday. Everything was in readiness and the proprietor of this paper was also notified at 5.05 last Friday afternoon state that we will send out no further notice until we know the bi-plane has landed here. In order that our readers may get an idea of this plane we reproduce a photo that was taken at Rossmere last Tuesday.

Aviator Tickell Ready for a Flight

The Lancaster Intelligencer had this to say relative to Friday's accident:

"Manager Crumbel and Aviator Tickell and the large crowd in attendance at the aviation field on the McGrann property, north of the Rossmere base ball grounds experienced a bitter disappointment Friday evening when an unavoidable accident to the aeroplane completely wrecked its forward or elevating planes and inflicted other damage, which will take several days to repair. Towards evening the wind which had been fitful and treacherous at higher levels died down and the conditions favored the proposed flight to Har-

A little after five o'clock the aeroplane was wheeled to position at the usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

usual starting point in the extreme southwestern corner of the field. The first effort to start was not successful, the irregular movements of the machine after it cleared the ground making a safe flight past the trees on the brow of the hill manifestly doubtful, and observers were relieved when the aviator stopped his engine and made a landing. The machine was then turned around and ran back towards the starting point under its own power with a mechanic seated on the rim of the forward planes. It failed to stop until it had crashed into the fence completely wrecking the forward or elevating planes and shattering one end of the main planes. Fortunately no one was injured.

The accident is said to have been due to the puncturing of a tire of one of the bicycle wheels upon which the machine travels when on the ground. The brake, therefore, failed to work and the machine plunged into the fence."

Local Doings

GENERAL INTEREST MANY SHORT NEWS ITEMS OF

Brief Local Happenings Gathered as They Occur With the Whirl of the World for Quick Reading Within the Past Few Days.

Found—A solid gold cuff button. Call at this office.

Mr. O. M. Donaven is serving as a jurymen this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schroll announce the birth of a daughter.

Mr. Ray Keller has enrolled as a student at Franklin & Marshall Academy.

Mr. J. Harry Miller is rebuilding the rear of his property on Columbia Avenue.

Don't forget to get your tickets for the "Star Course." Chart opens on Friday.

Mr. Jay Klugh had a fall a few days ago, thereby bruising and cutting his nose.

The Church of the Brethren will hold preaching services at Eby's next Sunday morning at 9.30.

For Rent—A six room dwelling. Immediate possession given. Inquire of B. S. Dillinger, Mt. Joy.

Mr. William Swords lost a fine porker that weighed about 250 lbs. last Thursday. Death resulted from Cholera.

Mr. Albert Walters has enrolled as a student at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy for a three years' course.

Mr. Phares Hawthorne moved from near Nissley's Mill in East Donegal, to the Sherk property on the northern borough limits.

The scribe is getting a little recreation this week (and at the same time missing the great Lancaster Fair) by serving as a juror.

Mr. John Stauffer found a man's coat while driving thru town a few days ago that the owner can have by calling on him at Elmdale.

The newest and swellest line of Boys' Suits are now on sale. Don't forget boys you get a Box Kite free with each Suit you buy. Getz Bros.

We are in receipt of the Mahanoy Record which contains almost a column article about a religious feast at Salem United Evangelical Church of which Rev. W. H. Egge is pastor.

Odd Fellows Elect

Mount Joy Lodge No. 277, I. O. O. F., of this place, last night elected the following officers:

N. G.—M. M. Leib.

V. G.—Scott Detwiler.

F. S.—Samuel Donaven.

R. S.—George B. Zeller.

Treas.—Chas. Dierolf.

Trustee—Clayton Hoffman.

Rep. to G. L.—H. L. Stager.

Geo. B. Zeller was elected recording secretary to fill vacancy caused by M. A. Spickler's voluntary retirement, after having served in that capacity creditably for eight years. Mount Joy Lodge is flourishing, and is worth $8200.

Met and Organized

The Mount Joy Cemetery Association met on Monday evening and effected the following organization:

President—M. S. Bowman.

Secretary—Samuel Donaven.

Treasurer—M. M. Brubaker.

Board of Managers—J. W. Eshleman, A. K. Manning, G. Moyer and Dr. J. J. Newpher.

Superintendent—E. M. Barto.

Since the election Mr. Barto has declined. Consult advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

Keller & Bros'. Sale

At Gantz's stock yards, Mt. Joy, on Friday, Oct. 6, will be sold 102 head of Holstein cows, heifers bulls and a few choice cattle for beefs. Also a carload of Erie Co. Colts. This will be one of the finest lots of cattle and colts that we have ever put up for sale.

Fireman Attention

The stated meeting of Friendship Fire Company No. 1, will be held on Thursday evening October 5th, 1911, at 7.30 o'clock. Members will please attend without further notice. By order of the Company

Attest: C. B. Hershey, Secy.

17th Annual Convention

The Seventeenth annual convention of the Lancaster District Lutheran League will be held in Trinity Lutheran Church in this place on Wednesday, October 11. An excellent program has been prepared for the occasion.

We May Come Join

We are in receipt of an invitation from Hon. John K. Tener, Governor and the Legislative commission to attend the unveiling of the groups of statuary at the Capitol on Wednesday, Oct. 4th.

Read the Mt. Joy Bulletin.

GRADUATION EXERCISES

FITTINGLY OBSERVED ON SUNDAY MORNING

The First Presbyterian Sabbath School of This Place Holds Appropriate Exercises When an Excellent Program Was Rendered.

An excellent program was rendered in the First Presbyterian Sabbath School Sunday morning and a large audience was in attendance. The program is appended.

Following is a list of graduates:

Intermediate to Senior: Elmer Blocher, Fred Bucher, Bernard Ebersole, Clarence Newcomer, Reuben Shellenberger, Harvey Sumpman, Ruth Bowman, Martha Bucher, Miriam Chandler Freda Fenstermacher, Rebecca Helman, Esther Reist, Frances Shellenberger, Frances Bailor, Cora Jackson, Minnie Way.

Junior to Intermediate: Thomas Bennett, Ross Eshleman, Arthur Moyer, John Reist, Musser Stauffer.

Junior 1 to Junior 2: Mary Jackson, Ruth Yellets.

Primary to Junior: Vivian Chandler, Charles Eshleman, Christine Moyer, Emily Newcome, Pauline Schaffer.

Beginners to Primary: Robert Eshleman, Martha Hensley, Mary Moyer, John McGann, Barbara Rollman, Gilmore Schmaelze, Walter Thome.

Beginners Class: Ward Backenstoe Eugene Boggs, Charles Brandt, John Eshleman, Olga Houston, Anna Keener, Martha Moyer, Virginia Newcomer, John Rolman Carroll Sager, Jena Thome, Mary Way.

The officers of the Sabbath School are:

H. S. Newcomer Supt., C. O. Brandt, Assistant, P. O. Schmaelze, Sec., John G. Reist, Treas., Miss Ellen Garber, Librarian.

Following are the teachers:

Rev. Frank G. Bossert, Mrs. Ira R. Kraybill, Miss Clare Manning, Mr. John G. Reist, Mrs. H. S. Newcomer, Mr. Ira R. Kraybill, Miss Mary Kern, Mrs. Estella Bucher, Miss Rebecca Hoffer, Miss Mary Shelley, Mrs. M. A. Rollman.

Programme

Organ Prelude.

Processional.

Hymn, Onward Christian Soldiers.

Invocation and Lord's Prayer.

Scripture Lesson—Eph. 6: 1-24.

Anthem, The Choir.

Announcements.

Offering.

Hymn, The Son of God Goes Forth to War.

Awarding, The Pastor.

Awarding of Diplomas, The Superintendent.

Prayer.

Hymn No. 359, Work For The Night Is Coming.

Benediction.

Good Roadmaking Pays

The recent heavy rains have been very destructive to roads in many localities but they also have had a value in serving to emphasize the best and most economical means of road maintenance. A good illustration of this is the recently improved road in Caernarvon township over the Welsh Mountains. Portions of this main highway had been remodeled by cutting down the sides in a gradual descent from the middle of the highway to the ditches so that the road when completed had ample ditches, was high in the centre and had a perfect crown with no hump or shoulder on the sides to interfere with the water quickly flowing to the ditches. The road was thus graded to a width of twenty-one feet at a cost of only about six cents per linear foot of road.

Where the road had been thus reconstructed at this slight expense to the township the rains which at times resembles a cloudburst had no bad effects, but upon those sections which had not been improved the rain was most destructive. The road was washed until its surface was a mass of stones as large as a man's fist and ditches were filled with sand and small stones. Each recurring rain will have the same effect on those sections of road and the township will be put to no small expense in making necessary repairs. The reconstructed sections of road in withstanding the rains without damage show the judicious use of the money expended upon them. Repairs were unnecessary on these sections after the rains and they will be able to successfully withstand many more severe storms. The fact that breakers were removed from these sections is also conclusive evidence that even on steep roads they are unnecessary.

The Strasburg News in reporting roads in that section similarly remodeled being undamaged by the big rains cites them as examples of what is being accomplished by approved good roadmaking methods.

Corner Stone Laid

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES MARK EXERCISES AT ELIZABETHTOWN

The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania Celebrates the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Anniversary of its Independence Followed by the Laying of the Corner-stone of the New Masonic Home at Elizabethtown

Elizabethtown was the scene of the gathering of thousands of persons today when the corner-stone of the central structure of a group of ninety buildings at the Masonic Home, was laid with impressive ceremonies. Not only masons from all parts of the state and United States were present but representatives of the craft from various parts of the world were in attendance coming from Philadelphia where on Monday the celebration of the organization of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania took place.

It is thought that fully five thousand Masons were in attendance and probably that many more persons not members of the order were present. The first feature of the programme was the parade at 1. o'clock, which formed at the Administration Building near the Pennsylvania railroad station and proceeded from thence to the scene of the ceremonies, the column being headed by the Ringold Band of Reading. The music was one of the features of the programme. The exercises were opened with a selection by the Reading organization and an invocation followed. The articles for the corner-stone were then placed within it and the stone was set. Past Right Worshipful Master George B. Orlandy, of Huntingdon, a Justice of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, followed with the corner-stone laying address. The exercises were interspersed with music including selections by the Amphion Quartette, composed of Samuel B. Smith, John M. Kendig, Warren S. Buch and Harry I. Boyd. There were a large number of sheets of music distributed and the great host joined in the singing of the various hymns, etc. The ceremonies were conducted by Right Worshipful Grand Master George W. Guthrie of Pittsburgh.

After the ceremonies the procession marched to a large tent erected on the grounds not far from the scene of the corner-stone laying exercises, where luncheon was served. After luncheon the Ringold Band gave a sacred concert. The members of the different lodges in this section turned out in large numbers and the special train which left Lancaster at 10 o'clock was crowded with Masons and other persons who attended the exercises.

TOOK PARIS GREEN

A Young Man of Town Killed Himself in Pittsburgh

Earl M. Shellenberger, son of Jno. H. Shellenberger, of this place, took a dose of paris green and killed himself at a Pittsburgh hotel on Thursday night. The man was 27 years of age. Earl has been quite ill from indigestion for some time past and it worried him greatly. He was employed for a long time at the Elizabethtown shoe factory, but last Monday he went to Pittsburgh to work. On Thursday evening he entered Hotel Lafayette on Liberty avenue and Grant street. He went to the room assigned him, and, after undressing, took the poison. He was found by employes of the hotel near the bed in an unconscious condition, and was hurried to Mercy hospital, where he died two hours later. A note left on a dresser in the room read as follows:

"Intense suffering from the stomach led me to do this. Please notify J. H. Shellenberger Mount Joy, Lancaster county, Pa."

When Shellenberger arrived at the hotel he had with him a suitcase containing wearing apparel, but when it was taken to the morgue with the body nothing in the way of letters was found in it. In the pockets of the dead man's clothes was found 30 cents in change. Undertaker H. C. Brunner went to Pittsburgh Saturday and brought the remains here Sunday evening. The funeral was held Monday afternoon. Interment was made in the Henry Eberle cemetery.

A Big Bargain

A Chickering piano, Baby Grand style, solid mahogany case and all in excellent shape, stool, etc. complete. This instrument can be bought for a song. Apply at this office quick if you can use it.

Wanted

A superintendent for the Mount Joy Cemetery. Apply in writing to Mr. M. S. Bowman, President, Mt. Joy.

NAMING MEETINGS

Republicans Will Name Next Monday Evening

Committeeman John W. McGinnis of the East Ward, has issued a call of the Republican voters for a naming meeting to be held at Hotel McGinnis on Monday evening, October 2 at 7.30 for the purpose of naming candidates for the following borough offices:

One Councilman.

Five School Directors—One for 6 years; two for 4 years; two for 2 years.

One Auditor.

One Assessor.

One High Constable.

One Ward Constable.

One Judge.

One Inspector.

West Ward

Committeeman H. C. Myers has called a meeting of the Republican voters of the West Ward to be held at the Washington House on Monday evening, Oct. 2, at 7.15 to name candidates for these borough offices:

One Councilman.

One Justice of the Peace.

1 Ward Constable.

1 High Constable, five School Directors—One for 6 years; two for 4 years and two for 2 years. Each person named for school director must state for which term he is named.

One Assessor.

One Judge.

One Inspector.

The Republican primaries will be held at their respective places on Friday evening, Oct. 6, between 5 and 7 o'clock.

SOME SOLD; OTHERS WITHDRAWN

The Real Estate Market in This Community the Past Week

On Wednesday, Mrs. C. N. Ober sold her property on North Market street, Elizabethtown, to M. E. Keller for $4,750.

P. Singer, auctioneer on Saturday sold A. F. Longenecker's property of 2 1/2 acres at Maytown to Samuel Lindemuth for $3,210.

One half acre of land with improvements in Milton Grove, property of the late Martha Haldeman, was sold to Pierce and Lehman on Monday for $450.

Mr. W. S. Keady, the enterprising nurseryman east of here has purchased the large nursery of Mr. D. D. Herr at Lancaster. The terms of sale were private.

The James Glatfelter property on West Main Street was offered at public sale at M. A. Spickler's Washington House and was withdrawn. C. H. Zeller was auctioneer.

The farm of 77 acres belonging to the E. H. Geib estate near Stern's creamery, was sold on Friday to Rev. Henry S. Zug who we understand would after taking 14 acres off, be willing to sell the remainder.

Last Tuesday evening Mr. Jacob H. Shenk offered his desirable West Donegal Street property at public sale at the Washington House. It was withdrawn at $2,300. C. H. Zeller was the auctioneer.

Auctioneer C. L. Pierce sold at public sale at the Greenwalt House on Saturday evening for the heirs of Lavina Witmer, deceased, the two story double frame house on South Market street, Elizabethtown, to C. H. Wormley for $3,230.

On Thursday afternoon a tract of land containing 22 acres with improvements near Green Tree Church was sold at public sale for Ida H. Kolp, Trustee. Mr. Benjamin B. Brubaker was the purchaser for $5,050.00. C. H. Zeller called the sale.

THE DOCTORS MET

Had a Fine Time at Hotel McGinnis Wednesday Evening

The Columbia College of Physicians and Surgeons held their regular monthly meeting last Wednesday evening at Hotel McGinnis. Dr. Berntheizel of Columbia presiding. The following were present:

Drs. Berntheizel, Roop, Reser, Markle of Columbia; Dr. Rohrer, Quarryville; Dr. Musser, Lampeter; Dr. McCaskey, Witmer; Dr. Keeler, Mechanicsburg; Dr. Walters, Woodville; Drs. Apple, Stahr, Heller, Roebuck, Kinzer of Lancaster; Dr. Lehman, Mountville; Drs. Snyder, Zeigler, Thome, Richards, Newpher, this place; Dr. Leslie, Bearville; Dr. Harter, Maytown; Dr. Blough, Elizabethtown; Dr. Denlinger, Rohrerstown.

An elegant menu was served by proprietor and Mrs. McGinnis and the general consensus of opinions was that it was one of the most successful meetings ever held. Dr. Zeigler and Newpher acted as a committee on entertainment.

Sweaters! Sweaters!

The evenings are cool and you can make yourself comfortable by wearing one of our sweaters. 70c to $4.50. Getz Bros.

Our Card

THE WHEREABOUTS FRIENDS THE PAST

Who and Where They Have Many Strangers Here Today—Were You Among Them?