EDITORIAL

If you have bills to pay, prepare to pay them now.

.... Well, girls, it's up to you. Don't be timid about it.

Just to break monotony the Col.

calls somebody a liar again. ....

At least the President of China can be sure he is the favorite Sun. . . . .

The blizzard started in Ohio where Mr. LaFollette performed twice a day. . . . .

No matter what a man may be some woman is sure to think he's all right.

. . . . That Indiana Woman's campaign against silk stockings hasn't a foot to stand on.

. . . . Two earthquakes startled Chicago says a dispatch. Well, two of 'em might do it.

Still it would not do Mr. Gompers any harm to adopt the American flag as his platform. . . . .

No doubt Senator LaFollette is beginning to suspect that Ohio is gay coquette, anyway.

ient and regular guests.

An office boy has been admitted to partnership in a Wall street firm. Some of 'em are obliging. ....

By the way, has anybody a list of East Main all the patriots who are thinking of running for Vice-President?

. . . . Some men are so busy scheming . . . .

And still the wonder grows that Col. Roosevelt can get fighting mad about such a little thing as peace.
