THE COLONIAL THEATRE

The New Playhouse Leaps into Immediate Success

Large houses have greeted the opening of H. E. Doan's Colonial Theatre.

The work at the new theatre is being rapidly completed. The brass railings are being placed around the balcony and boxes and electric fixtures will be placed in position just as soon as possible. One of the features at this Colonial Theatre will be the showing of Pathe's weekly, the newest one issued each week. The acts for this week are as follows: Pelham, the noted European hypnotist; Dale and Boyle, in a tuncful hit called "The Belle and the Beau;" the Langdons & Company, "A Night on the Boulevard;" Les Montfords, sensational comedy acrobats; Hilda Hawthorne, world's greatest woman ventriloquist; Grand and Hoag, "Something Doing All the Time;" Beatrice Ingram & Company, presenting "The Duchess," a clever playlet by Porter Emerson Brown. The bill is a splendid one and should be a very pleasing one to the theatre goers and lovers of vaudeville of Lancaster.

Congress is going to pass a bill providing that before the President shall appoint a judge to the federal courts, he shall first make public the names of the endorsers of the judge, so the people may know whether he is supported by the "trusts" or the "people." This bill will help a lot towards keeping "tools" of corporations out of judicial positions.

Postmaster

Mrs. Mary Hildebrandt attended the West Phila. Dog Lover's Association Dog Show on the 3rd. inst. Among the two hundred dogs exhibited were seven fine Doberman Pinscher (German Police) dogs exhibited by Dr. and Mrs. Myer.

Mr. Taft has been named on a primary ballot as a progressive republican by Nebraska citizens who are willing to forgive and forget the Winona speech, in which Taft said the Aldrich Tariff bill was the "best ever."

If the tear ducts of the aged senators are in good working condition there seems to be no reason why the Lorimer case should be disposed of at an early day.

Uncle Isaac Stephenson has been exonerated for paying $107,000 for a senatorship but he will never do it again.

Mr. Taft not only confesses that he is "not a politician," but frankly refuses to take a night school course with a view to becoming one.

Senator Lorimer is of the opinion that he looks every bit as innocent as old Ike Stephenson. However, Old Ike has no Lee O'Neil Browne.

"The man on whom Mark Twain tried his jokes has just died." Pretty tough customer we should say.

"Woodrow Wilson may talk later" say the headlines. 'Tis a fair assumption.

Jim Dahlan of Omaha is another useful enemy that Woodrow Wilson has taken on.

Mr. Taft is also opposed to the recall as applied to Presidents.
