EDITORIALS

Never let a grievance stand over night; better sacrifice your pride than your peace of mind.

It is a fact which mathematics cannot explain, that the more affection we leave at home the more we carry with us.

A happy home does not result from a large income. A large amount of love, plenty of good sense and a very little money will make a happy Home Circle.

Never think you can afford to be dowdy at home. Cleanliness, hair well dressed and a smile will make calico look like silk in the eyes of a father or brother.

Love is the great homemaker, that makes even the drudgery of house-keeping a pleasure, and home life a foretaste of the bliss of heaven. One cannot get too much love into one's homemaking, but easily too little.

There is no earthly thing so strong or so sacred as that of motherhood. Society is held together by social ties. Civic societies are bound by money and oaths. These obligations are like girths of steel, yet none hold like the marriage bond when violated and unpunished by vile theories.

Man can build the house and roof it in, a resistance against the storms and elements, but the man with all his genius and artisan science cannot make the home, that ever has and ever will be the task of woman. It is she alone that can bring to it warmth and beauty. Here she reigns supreme.

The children who are accustomed to seeing their mother with her hair becomingly arranged and in a pretty gown, and who are themselves compelled while young to pay attention to little details of cleanliness and dress; will never grow up into slovenly men and women.

It seems to be difficult in this world for men and women to keep a middle course. For one it is all saving and working, for another all spending and shirking. And neither is happy. Idleness has as many miseries as overwork. It is only those lives in which labor and leisure are united that are truly happy. The middle course is the right course.

"It's only mother; anything will do for her!" If the words are not often actually expressed, the thought is too often acted upon. And yet if we stop to think, common decency tells us that only the best is good enough for mother—that her devotion, which surpasses all other love, is deserving of the deepest respect and affection, and that to forget her is the blackest and basest crime that man can commit.

Success in life does not always mean wealth, fame or position. You may be poor in all of these but you can be rich in mind and character. The world within you must be developed before you can enjoy the world without you. If you have wealth put some of it into brain power and you can never lose. If you are poor you cannot afford to be poor in both mind and pocket. You can have the wealth of a trained mind and noble character.

Condemn your children only when they are really wrong, and then as gently as possible, but be sure to commend them when they do right. A little praise with a child goes a long way. A child may be very provoking, but not wilfully bad. Attributing bad motives to a thoughtless child has ruined many a little life. Just blame less and praise more, and we shall have better children. Especially as most of their faults are copied from their parents, we should exercise the strictest charity, for verily, "Charity doth cover a multitude of sins."

If you have any doubt in your mind as to the good that can come to you by living in the sunshine way, we ask you to try for one day and prove by personal experience whether or not it is worth your while to scatter sunshine. Begin at once by trying to make those about you in the home happier. Keep a sharp lookout for little opportunities of helpfulness. Be courteous and kind whenever you speak or are spoken to. Be pleasant to everyone everywhere. Be willing to sacrifice your own personal enjoyment if by doing so you can make another person happier. Do this and see when night comes if your own heart is not full to overflowing with peace and joy unspeakable.

HERE DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Green's Health—Her Own Statement.

Covington, Mo.—"Your medicine has done me more good than all the doctor's medicines. At every monthly period I had to stay in bed four days because of hemorrhages, and my back was so weak I could hardly walk. I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I can stay up and do my work. I think it is the best medicine on earth for women."

—Mrs. JENNIE GREEN, Covington, Mo.

How Mrs. Cline Avoided Operation. Brownsville, Ind.—"I can say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me more good than anything else. One doctor said I must be operated upon for a serious female trouble and that nothing could help me but an operation."

"I had hemorrhages and at times could not get any medicine to stop them. I got in such a weak condition that I would have died if I had not got relief soon."

"Several women who had taken your Compound, told me to try it and I did and found it to be the right medicine to build up the system and overcome female troubles."

Carried Other People's Money. A Scranton editor had his pocket picked of $180, it is said. Such carelessness with other people's money is reprehensible. When a rural journalist is given money by some one to deposit, he ought to go and do it right away for fear that somebody knowing of his trusteeship will do the tap. It must have been the work of persons acquainted with the peculiar circumstances.

Washington is suffering from an over production of presidential booms.

MILTON GROVE. A new furnace will be installed in the High School building. P. B. Grosh transacted business at Pleasant View the past week. Green Tree Sunday morning service attracted a large audience. John Rasp slaughtered his last porker for the season Saturday. The crows have a roost on the Conewago hill adjacent to Lawn. A saddler and tinsmith would be essential requisites to this place. Ed. Frilig and wife of Mastersonville, were visitors in town the past week.

The Sabbath School in the Evangelical church has been in operation the whole year. Jacob F. Fry has a live spring at his house which could be utilized as a fountain in town. The general health in this community has been truly remarkable up to the present time. Mount Joy township school controllers met at their regular place last Saturday morning.

Monroe Ober of Manheim, visited some of his old time friends in this section the past week. Nathan Zug a retired farmer of Mastersonville, was a pleasant caller in this section the past week. No services were held in the Evangelical church last Sunday, due to the church's annual conference.

James Horst of near Bellaire, is a very happy man since the stork presented him with twin baby boys. Creamery patrons suggest that the supervisors improve the road from Green Tree church to this place. Isiah G. Zook has faith in Klondike's temperature and he may probably make a sojourn to that region.

Public sales of personal property form one of the chief attractions for the farmers this season of the year. Bank Director E. F. Grosh made his bi-monthly visit to the Union National Mount Joy Bank Thursday. Mrs. Harry S. Risser of Lawn and Mrs. S. L. Gingrich of town, were visitors at the High school the past week.

Slippery conditions of the streets are no longer confronted and animal locomotion has been relieved of that difficulty. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Moyer of Palmyra, spent several days very pleasantly at the home of Jacob Moyer at Sunnyside.

Eli P. Arndt of Sleepy Hollow, has completed stripping tobacco on school director Will Gardner's farm near Florin. Misses Meta Zook and Ada Esleman have returned from a visit at the home of Milton Rider and family at Aberdeen.

The township road supervisors met at Hotel Milton Grove Saturday morning and transacted business of vital importance. B. F. Gochnaur, proprietor of the Phoenix Hotel in Elizabethtown, visited town during the past week. Ben is a sunbeam of purest ray serene.

Our gal pal friend, Cyrus H. Holsey of Mastersonville, is making preparations to move back to his former Milton Grove home. Harrison Esleman, editor and proprietor of the Palmyra Record, illuminated our streets with his beaming countenance a few days ago.

Anthony G. Greiner, a prominent farmer near the Hill Church suffered an apoplectic stroke the past week but the indications are that he will recover. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Fry and son Walter, spent Sunday as guests of the former's brother John Fry and family adjacent to God's meeting house.

RHEUMS. Elmer Groff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Groff, is on the sick list. Miss Fannie Shank, of near Harrisburg, Cumberland county, attended the funeral of Rev. John M. Wolgemuth.

The Ezra Gish family started a carload of household goods, farming implements and an automobile for their future home in Canada. Wm. Given has charge of the packing of tobacco for Abe L. Mumma in his large warehouse purchased from the Gish & Garber firm.

David Greiner disposed of a carload of cotton hulls at this place last Wednesday. The shortage of hay increases the demand for the hulls. The series of meetings in the Rheims church have been continued. The meetings are quite interesting and many have attended from a great distance.

A. H. Eppler fitted from the Harry L. Helsey house into the Abe Snyder house, opposite Mt. Tunnel cemetery. The vacancy will be filled about April 1 by Henry Weaver, a retired farmer of West Donegal township.

Samuel Wormley, of near this place, took advantage of the pleasant weather last Sunday by taking his staff and walking to Marietta to witness the ice flows, returning thru Matwain and Rheims. He is a remarkable walker considering his age.

Tired mothers! always anxious, scheming, planning and economizing how they can manage their detail of domestic life with least expense; for children are such a drain upon the resources of one's time, heart and pocket. The mothers doing double work, triple work themselves, to save for this or that, until the nerves are strained and shattered to a degree unbearable to themselves, and particularly offensive to others.
