LANCASTER JUNCTION
Miss Elizabeth Paul of Manheim, spent Monday with J. K. Palm and wife.

Mrs. Henry L. Myers spent Sunday at Lancaster visiting her son, John B. Myers and family.

Jacob Weaver, wife and daughter Stella, spent Sunday at East Petersburg and attended church services.

Isaac Walborn, wife and daughter Leona May, visited John Rambler and family at White Oak on Sunday.

Henry L. Buch and Jonas Snively spent Sunday at Elizabethtown. Henry L. Myers spent Monday at the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hartranft and grandson, and Mrs. James Berger spent Sunday at Lititz with Mrs. Susan Hollinger.

Mrs. Christ Rothfus and daughters, Mary and Helen, were visiting her aunt, Mrs. Catharine Ritter and family at Manheim on Saturday afternoon.

BACK RUN
John Hossler and wife visited Herman Snyder and family on Sunday.

Mr. Wittle and wife of Milton Grove, spent Sunday with Andrew Folker and family.

Misses Anna Sheetz, Mary Sheetz, Panny Baker and Edna Ellinger visited Jonas Sheetz and family on Sunday.

On Saturday W. S. Shenk's large sale will be held. Don't fail to come around. He can show you anything you are looking for.

Albert T. Rettew, of Groton, South Dakota, writes that they have had good sleighing since the ninth of October. That would suit some of our young men.

Acting under orders from "Mayor" Kugel, of Marietta, on Tuesday at noon all the manufacturing establishments blew their whistles for five minutes and the church and town hall bells were rung for the same length of time, in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of Marietta as a borough. At the regular monthly meeting of Council on Tuesday evening it was shown by the minutes that the "Mayor" was just six days behind time, as the minutes of the meeting are dated March 6, 1812.

To Mothers—And Others
You can use Bucklen's Arnica Salve to cure children of eczema, rashes, tetter, chafings, scaly and crusted humors, as well as their accidental injuries—cuts, burns, bruises, etc., with perfect safety. Nothing else heals so quickly. For boils, ulcers, old, running or fever sores or piles it has no equal. 25 cents at S. B. Bernhart & Co.

Spelling Bee at Florin
On Saturday evening, March 30, the Florin Hall Association will hold a grand spelling bee in the hall in Florin. There will be three classes and 4 prizes to each class. Admission 15 and 20 cents. Full particulars in these columns next week.

Mrs. Miller Grove, residing at the western end of the town, on the Engle farm, is confined to the house, suffering from a badly sprained left wrist. She fell on the boardwalk. Dr. George R. Reich is attending her.

A statistician avers that one-tenth of the people in New York are crims. When he meets some more of them he'll change that estimate.

MASTERTSONVILLE
Mr. Groundhog seems to be a very good weather prophet this year but previously he made some grand mistakes.

Mr. Bishop says that 18 of his best Rhode Island Red chickens laid 19 eggs in one day. Who can beat that?

Springtime is near. The signs are such. Last week a mole built her pathway near the surface of the earth in front of Fralich's cigar shop.

N. S. Cinder now informs us that he is the champion pork raiser. His porker weighed over 400 pounds, beating Mr. Gulstwrite who previously held that record.

The politicians are all showing their colors, the Republican sentiment in this vicinity leans toward Roosevelt, while the Democratic sympathies favor Wilson.

N. E. Ginder has installed a new saw mill and wishes to purchase some good old fashioned apple trunks. Anybody wishing to sell same apply to N. E. Ginder's office.

Who is the man in our town who smokes the pipe day and night? Five dollars reward to any person who sees this man without his pipe.

Samuel Becker and family entertained the following visitors at their home on Sunday: Monroe Hollinger and family, Ephraim Shelly and wife, John Helsey and wife, Charles G. Becker and son Charles Emerson.

On account of unfavorable weather the Keystone Literary Society was unable to render a program on Friday night. The program as it was to be given will be given next Friday evening. The new officers will be inaugurated. They are Howard Merkey, president; Miss Naomi Stauffer, secretary; Clayton Shearer, editor; and Elmer Witmer, critic. The question will be resolved, "That Lee was a more able general than Grant," will be discussed.

SALUNGA
Will Bortzfeld and family were Sunday visitors at her home at Lancaster.

Norman Miller is the owner of a motor cycle. Somebody is going to get dusted, you bet.

Mary Kendig expects to spend a week or two at Manheim with her uncle Dr. John Kendig.

Miss Mary Musselman of Strasburg, was a visitor in the home of Dr. Kendig on Saturday.

Frank Strickler's sale was held on Tuesday. We will chronicle the leading events at the next writing.

Root and Baker on Tuesday shipped some of their purchased goods from the Kendig warehouse on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Roland and son Nelson and Howard Bortzfeld, spent Sunday with Elmer Roland and family at Rheems.

Mr. Eli Shelly is moving today to Rohrerstown. We are sorry that convenience to work necessitated the change as we are sorry to lose so good neighbors.

Among the sick ones of our acquaintances are Henry Bender, Mrs. Hartranft and Mrs. A. B. Kreider. We learned later that Elizabeth Peifer was in the invalid corps.

Elias Hornberger reached his 88 mile stone on Thursday and his wife had a handkerchief surprise for him. He received 59 handkerchiefs and a lot of other gifts.

Catharine Pancake, one of Salunga's oldest residents, died at the Mennonite Home, Oreville on Monday. The old lady had lived for a number of years in our town but her friends induced her to enter the home where she died at the ripe age of 93 years and some days.

PLEASANT HILL
William Rhea and David Book were callers at the fort last week.

Charles Baylor of Lebanon, is visiting his uncle George Ulrich near here.

Milton Boll, after a three month's seige with a sprained foot, is convalescing again.

We came in conjunction with our old time friend Charley Tressler of New Germantown, down at his brother Sam's last Friday. He came down accompanied by his bright young daughter Goldie, last week to see a Lancaster county sale.

David Book, another distinguished farmer of near Blaine, Perry county, was also an attendant at the sale. Davy is as bright and cheerful as he was years ago, when he used to perambulate across his home up along the sunny banks of the Sherman creek.

That gentleman up at Middletown hasn't got all the old coins. Harry Rutt can show a gold dollar coined in 1836, one in 1854, a dime in 1835, a penny in 1786, one in 1804 and one in 1826 and various other coins of different dates that are away back standing. Also a fine collection of old stamps that would cause old dealers to scratch their heads if once seen.

Mrs. Anna Williams came near putting a finish to herself last week when she tripped on a piece of iron and done some acrobatic stunts coming down the stairs injuring her side and back causing a little soreness but at this writing she looks good and manipulates as gently as if nothing transpired, which pleases us to mention. Oh, there are some strange things happen over at the fort sometimes and this is one of them. That's all.

SIX WILL GRADUATE
East Hempfield High School Commencement exercises will be held in the Lutheran church at Landisville on Thursday evening, April 4. There will be six graduates as follows: James Miller, Phares Stehman, Susan Nissley, Samuel Swarr, Elizabeth Peifer, and Helen Miller. James Miller will be the valedictorian and Samuel Swarr the salutatorian. Rev. Waltenmyer will preach the Baccalaureate sermon to the graduates on Sunday morning, March 31st, in the Lutheran church.

WILL TURN FARMER
Jay M. Reich of Marietta, late manager of the Elizabethtown electric light company, with his wife and child, left for Philadelphia last Friday. From there they go to Buffalo and Hamilton, Ontario. After a short visit with friends, they will start for their final destination in the Canadian Northwest, where Mr. Reich, with several others, have taken up a large tract of land and will engage in farming. His many friends wish him success in his new undertaking.

THE HOUSE OF BETTER SHOES

A Vacuum Cleaner
Bargain Price $10

THE DOMESTIC JUNIOR is a vacuum cleaner that will do more work than many high priced cleaners and much more than any other cleaner of an equal price.

It looks like a carpet sweeper—works like a carpet sweeper—but is a vacuum cleaner—a cleaner that cleans your carpets and rugs through and through.

This shows the amount of solid dirt which the Domestic Junior took from a carpet which looked clean.

All we ask of any housewife is that she give it one fair trial—pick out the cleanest carpet in the house and run this vacuum cleaner over it—then open the cleaner—look at the amount of dirt you got out of your carpet or rug which you thought was clean.

The cost of this wonderful little vacuum cleaner is just $10.00 and is sold to you with the guarantee to be perfectly satisfactory in every respect or we will refund your money. Drop card for circular and demonstration.
