A somewhat animated if not an instructive discussion on potato and tobacco farming has been going the rounds in one of our rural papers.

The contention on the part of the scribe was that, had farmers raised potatoes instead of tobacco, the cost of living would have been greatly reduced. Considering both sides of the question from a financial standpoint we believe we should prefer marketing twenty acres of tobacco at one hundred and twenty dollars an acre to putting ten dollars of labor and cash in an acre of potatoes and reaping a five dollar crop.

On Saturday afternoon Miss Anna Long of Landisville entertained Misses May Manning, Ruth Stoll, Martha Breneman, Anna Reist, Mary Reist, Barbara Frey of Mount Joy, Mabel Moser of Reading, Leah Bard of Mechanicsburg, Anna Herr, Lancaster; Ada Weaver, Anna Weaver, Strasburg; Emma Shenk, Willow street; Alma Hershey, Martha Eby, Salunga; Grace Mumma, Maria Habacker, Barbara Trout, Mary Baker, Mabel Nolt and the Misses Wolf of Landisville. After spending a most delightful afternoon, all the girls did justice to a splendid supper served by their hostess.

EDITORIALS

At the suggestion of Mr. Schroll the Class of 1912 of the Mt. Joy High School is editing this week's issue of the Mount Joy Bulletin. It is fitting that we should express to Mr. Schroll our appreciation for the interest which he has shown us in our behalf. We have learned many things that we could not learn in the class room. It has been for us a practical experience which we will not soon forget. In the class room we have sometimes been tempted to think that the keen eye of our English teacher was over zealous to correct the mistakes we have made. We find now, however, that too much care can not be taken to keep our English pure and to say a thing in a way that it can be understood.

We trust that our efforts may prove as interesting to our readers as they have been profitable to us.

The Knight of the Road

Who is he? From where does he come? He is the outcast of society. In nine cases out of ten he is a confirmed drunkard. His motto may be stated, "Live Without Labor." His pass-word is "hard times." However when he has begged a square meal, and has secured a log, a bottle and a pipe he thinks no more of hard times. He is loth to tell truthfully where he comes from. But as a "roost" he selects Mount Joy. Our constables see him loaf about with his fellow knights but say nothing. Who knows what thefts and evil deeds are perpetrated in this way. Yet we allow our homes to be molested and never protest.

Youthful Advice to Our Grave

Councilmen.

Have the people of this town ever thought of the dire results caused by paper and banana and orange peelings lying on the pavements and streets. Some farmers, who come to town have, because bits of paper lying on the streets have frightened their horses. Some pedestrians have also had the pleasure of stepping on a banana peeling and then being laid up for a while with a broken leg, arm or a fractured hip. Now garbage cans would prevent this. The expense of putting up these cans would be but a trifle. A town like this ought to have them too, because they are a means of keeping rubbish from the streets. Some persons of course might not deposit the material in the cans but they would gradually learn to do so from the others. The people of this town should at least think it over.

Commencement at the Milton

Grove High School.

The commencement exercises of the Mount Joy township High School were held last Thursday evening in the school building at Milton Grove. The following persons were graduated: Miss Stella G. Riser, Miss Viola Mae Riser and Amos R. Erb.

The following program was very well rendered:

Invocation; Music, School; Salutatory oration, "Climb, Though the Rocks Be Rugged," Viola Mae Riser; Class History and Prophecy, Stella G. Riser; Instrumental Solo, "Burning of Rome," (Paul) Katie M. Lehman, "14," recitation, "The Pamine" (from Hiawatha), Viola Mae Riser; Oration, "A Place in the Ranks Awaits Us," Stella G. Riser; Vocal Solo, "Voices of the Woods," (Watson) Miss Elsie H. Lehman; Valedictory Oration, "The Beauties of Nature," Amos R. Erb; presentation of diplomas; address to the graduates, Prof. J. S. Simons; Music, schools.

Parents' Day

Parents' Day at the Mount Joy High School, Thursday afternoon, was a grand success. It was attended by about seventy parents and friends. At three o'clock the children were dismissed and Rev. Spangler addressed the parents. His subject was "Give and Get," and he endeavored to show the parents that it was impossible to get anything out of the children without giving something. He said that some parents send their children to school and expect the teachers to make accomplished men and women out of them, and yet they do not give the attention to them that the teachers do. These same parents, he said, are the very ones that do the "kicking" when their children do not get along well in their studies. Prof. Kraybill then talked on the subjects of promptness, irregularity of attendance and definite regular hours for home study. The parents were highly pleased with the method of teaching used in our schools and the knowledge gained by the majority of the pupils this term.

Rohrer-Detwiler

Miss Beulah Detwiler left town Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where she was married to Mr. E. B. Rohrer, of Lancaster, who is connected with the National Cash Register Company of Dayton, O. They will reside in South Carolina.

A Vacuum Cleaner Bargain Price $10

THE DOMESTIC JUNIOR is a vacuum cleaner that will do more work than many high priced cleaners and much more than any other cleaner of an equal price.

It looks like a carpet sweeper—works like a carpet sweeper—but is a vacuum cleaner—a cleaner that cleans your carpets and rugs through and through.

This shows the amount of solid dirt which the Domestic Junior took from a carpet which looked clean.

All we ask of any housewife is that she give it one fair trial—pick out the cleanest carpet in the house and run this vacuum cleaner over it—then open the cleaner—look at the amount of dirt you got out of your carpet or rug which you thought was clean.

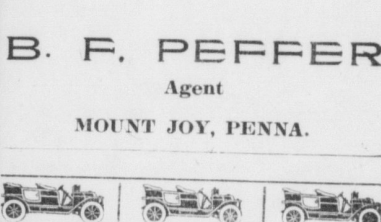

The cost of this wonderful little vacuum cleaner is just $10.00 and is sold to you with the guarantee to be perfectly satisfactory in every respect or we will refund your money.

Drop card for circular and demonstration.
