Almost A Miracle
One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds with excellent results. "It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at S. B. Barnhart & Cos.

BROUGHT DOWN TWO VICTIMS

But the Deer Hunter Got Surprise of His Life When He Examined Them.

One of the best hunting stories of the season comes from northern Wisconsin, where a prominent resident of Phillips, accompanied by a friend, slipped out of town one evening two days in advance of the legal opening day of the season for killing deer. His object was to hunt deer at night by the aid of a strong reflector dark lantern. He succeeded in a way far beyond his most optimistic hopes in killing something, but his overwhelming surprise on first viewing the "game" may be better imagined than written, and his language was horrid. He drove his own team of horses, valued at $600, and some distance from town he turned into an abandoned logging road, traversing it for several miles. Then he tied up the team and prowled about in the woods for half an hour with his light.

Suddenly he heard a snort, and the light revealed a pair of glaring eyes from some animal a short distance away. In his excitement he handed the light to his friend and binged at the eyes. Down tumbled the animal, and instantly there was a commotion in the same spot, and the light revealed another pair of glaring eyes. The hunter quickly fired and the second animal dropped.

The hunters rushed forward with their light, and to their dismay found that both their horses were shot and killed. They had circled about and confronted the team in their ramblings.

Triplets Visited by Scores
The famous Habecker triplets, the pride of Litzitz and vicinity, have stood the winter colds well and they are all in healthy condition. Wayne is the heaviest of the bunch, weighing twenty pounds, Arthur weighs nineteen and three-quarter pounds and the sister Dora, sixteen and a half pounds. They are now almost 10 months old, and there is every prospect that they will grow to maturity. Hundreds of persons continue to visit the Habecker home.

Wisconsin acted just as if it had never heard of either Taft or Roosevelt.
