At The Colonial
This week's attraction for the Colonial Theatre in Lancaster, Manager Doan has booked what is unquestionably the biggest bill of the season and it should prove to be the very best.

The headline feature, The Faddettes, Boston's famous ladies orchestra. This organization, which only a few weeks ago, was at the head of the bill at Keith's Philadelphia Theater, is composed of 20 talented women and is conducted by Miss Caroline B. Nichols, an orchestra leader known the world over, and who is in a class distinctly by herself. The orchestra is the highest priced attraction on a vaudeville bill ever brought to Lancaster. It has appeared in all the important theatres in this country and Europe.

Another big attraction will be J.

K. Emmett and Co., in their new playlet of the West, entitled, "A South Dakota Divorce."

Almost A Miracle

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsaw, Claredon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds with excellent results. It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at S. B. Brnhart & Co.

PLEASANT HILL

Monroe Ebersole has embarked into the farming business, having joined hands with Milt Pauls down on the late Jacob Shenk farm.

Spring Plowing has commenced in earnest around here. Judging from the looks of the fields as you go spinning by in an automobile.

A dark cloud still prevades this community since the death of Mrs. Isaac Rutt and Mrs. Henry Weaver, who were two of our most estimable residents. Their departure is deeply regretted.

We had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Joseph Smith down at Rheems last week. She is the same genial lady always in an agreeable mood and an expert conversationalist. May you live to enjoy many happy days. Mollie, is our earnest and sincere wish.

At Andrew Bard's hot house down at Rheems you can find a fine selection of planting material consisting of cabbage, tomatoes and other goods of fine standing, suitable at all times when matured, for the digestive organs. Give him a call and be convinced.

Gaffin—Gerber

Cards have been received here by the many friends of our former townsman, Mr. Samuel B. Gaffin, of Baltimore, Md., announcing his engagement to Miss Dina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. Gerber, also of that city.
