The coming annual meeting of the Church of the Brethren at York, is causing great discussion among the public. Many people are anticipating upon so rare an opportunity. We hear questions in all directions. These are some. When's the meeting? Which is the greatest day? When are you going? How are you going? Why are you going? Answers (To see the large crowds which assemble there.)

A certain young lady of this vicinity, and largely known among Bulletin readers, while speaking wished to say Northwest Raphe and instead said Northeast African. The lady must be lacking some of her mental faculties and therefore does not have the full control of her mind and tongue. Such persons should be attended to ere it be too late, Miss S—, please take advice.

MASTERTONVILLE

A. M. Shelly and W. A. Bishop have purchased automobiles of the most modern descriptions and equipment. Mr. Shelly bought a beautiful Mitchell and now contemplates being elected president of the ("M. M. C.") Mastertonville Motor Club. Mr. Bishop bought a grand truck and conveys lead pencils from one counter to the other. Persons wishing to view his machine are requested to call at the store.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Geib entertained friends at their home on Thursday. All enjoyed a good dinner and then Mr. Geib and wife chaperoned the gentleman and ladies to a creek not far away and there all engaged in fishing. The party consisted of Mr. C. G. Becker and wife, Mr. Ephraim Shelly and wife, Mr. Nathaniel Hollinger and wife, Mr. Landis Becker, Misses Emma and Verna Becker. Thirty-five fine cat fish fell victims to the hooks of the fishermen the size of fish ranging from 6 inches to 14 inches. Sport of this kind is seldom seen in this community.

On Tuesday a large number of farmers assembled at Ben Zug's farm and helped to raise a large structure of a tobacco shed, dimensions, 40 feet wide and 20 feet high to eaves. The lumber consisting of mostly oak was very heavy and the sturdy farmers were the chaps to raise it. Lemonade and cake were served by the bucketsful. The boss carpenter, John Gibble, may be congratulated on the good all around work in fitting and exactness of the numerous parts of lumber used in building a structure of this size. Mr. Zug thanks all his friends for the strong hand of assistance which was needed.

WAS HANGED TWICE

Twas a Sickening Sight; One of the Jurors Fainted

The most gruesome execution of a murderer in Lancaster county was that of Antonio Romeo which occurred in the jail yard at Lancaster Thursday morning shortly after 10 o'clock.

Two drops were required to carry out the first mandates.

On the last drop the rope that had been tested on Wednesday and pronounced perfect, snapped in twain, allowing the Italian's body to drop to the ground beneath the platform of the scaffold. In an unconscious condition he was carried back to the scaffold and put to death.

Dr. F. L. Richards of this place, was one of the coroner's physicians and Mr. C. N. Mamma served on the Coroner's jury.
