Beneman's Special Sale

Mr. I. D. Beneman, who has been located in our town for the last 7 years and has a very good reputation as a clothier, has decided to cut his line of Men's and Boys' Clothing out and for this purpose he has procured the American Special Sales and Salvage Co. of Washington, D. C. and New York. These people are experts in their line and are bound to get rid of every suit in the store. Mr. Beneman's ad can be seen in this week's paper. No expense has been spared to make this one of the most successful sales of Mount Joy.

Picnic a Success

The weather was very un- and last Thursday and as a result the attendance at the union picnic was slightly diminished. Trolley service was very good and it was estimated that the crowd numbered about eight hundred. The picnic in S. R. Where, Oh Where Can It Be?

That much-touted Tuesday issue of a local blunder has not as yet put in an appearance. It's life was even more brief than the semi-weekly. We presume, however, that either the wheels flew off the press when it was being printed or some fellow put a "muller" on it.

An Extensive Advertiser

We cannot help but call your attention to the two-page advertisement of Mr. I. D. Beneman. With one exception, this is the largest ad that ever appeared in the Bulletin, while an ad that size has never appeared in any other local paper. This is good evidence of the Bulletin's efficiency in bringing results.
