

Continuation of I. D. BENEMAN'S GREAT SALE

We Are Positively Going to Sell Out
Our Ready-to-Wear Clothing

Men's, Young Men's & Boys' Suits
& Overcoats at Less Than Cost

We are selling our entire stock of $8000 worth of clothing less than wholesale prices. We refuse to carry any over as we want to make room for other lines. Our stock contains the season's best and most stylish productions, elegantly tailored Suits of fine worsted, serges and smooth finished cassimeres. This is your great chance to get your boys school suits for little money. Come and get our prices and be convinced of what we say. Also great reductions in Shoes, Hats and Ladies' goods.

I. D. BENEMAN'S

DEPARTMENT STORE

East Main Street, Mount Joy, Pa.

Get Your Next Set Of Sale
Bills Printed Here

KEEP YOUR  ON THIS PAGE FOR
H. E. EBERSOLE'S
TEN DAYS
GREAT CLEARANCE SALE

August 21st to Aug. 31st

H. E. EBERSOLE, Opposite Post Office
MOUNT JOY, PENNA.

DROWNED IN SUSQUEHANNA

Geo. Nicholas, of Rowena, Drowns
in Deep Water near Shock's Mills

Plunging into the Susquehanna river beyond his depth and being unable to swim, George Nicholas, thirty years old, was drowned Sunday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock, a short distance above the landing at Shock's Mills. The body was recovered about an hour later.

Nicholas and two companions went to the river, where a number of boys were swimming. Neither could swim, and Nicholas, quickly undressing, plunged into the water, which is very deep. A moment later he was seen to be struggling in the water. He was a heavy man and the boys in the water, fearing that he would drown them, did not attempt his rescue. Soon afterward he sank from sight. The boys then began a search for the body. News of the drowning spread, and soon a large number of persons assembled on the scene. George Ely secured a boat and went out. He discovered Nicholas' body in the water about 300 feet from the scene of the accident. The body was secured and taken to shore. Coroner Walter Fryberger was notified, and, after learning the facts, deemed an inquest unnecessary. The body was taken in charge by an undertaker.

Nicholas went to Rowena about three months ago, and was employed on the Pennsylvania Railroad, being a member of Track Foreman Sweigart's gang. He formerly worked in the steel works at Steelton. Two brothers live at Dillerville.

SALE REGISTER

A Notice in This List is Read by Several Thousand People Weekly

Following is a list of sales for which posters have been printed or else advertised in this paper. These notices are given FREE until day of sale.

Thursday, Aug. 15—At the stock yards of the hotel at Florin, Pa., 35 head of extra fine cows and a few stock bulls by Sol Rosenthal, Pierce, Auct. See ad.

Saturday, Aug. 17—At the Farmers' Inn Stock Yards, Mt. Joy, a carload of Crawford County horses and colts and a few acclimated horses by Ed. Ream, Zeller, auct. See ad.

Saturday, Aug. 31—At the Court House, Lancaster, receivers sale of the power plant, pole lines, franchise, etc., of the Elizabethtown and Marietta Electric Light Company by Bernard J. Myers and John A. Numan, Receivers. See ad.

Saturday, Sept. 14—In Rapho township, 70 acres of gravel and limestone land with improvements, by E. S. Metzler, Summy, auct. See ad.

Tuesday, Sept. 24—On the premises in East Donegal township, 2 miles west of Mount Joy, a tract of land containing 56 acres and 83 perches with frame house, bank barn, tobacco shed, and outbuildings by John G. Snyder and Henry G. Shelly, adms. of Elias N. Nissley, Dec'd. Minnich, auct.

Private Sale
A tract of land in East Donegal township, along the Donegal creek, near Kraybill's Church, 104 acres with stone and brick house, barn, tobacco shed and outbuildings by Henry E. Witmer.

Williams Grove Picnic
Reduced Rates via Pennsylvania Railroad

For the Grangers' picnic, Williams Grove, Pa., Aug. 26 to 31, the Pennsylvania Railroad will sell excursion tickets to Williams Grove from stations in Pennsylvania and from Baltimore, Elmhurst, Frederick and intermediate stations on the Northern Central Railway, Aug. 20 to 30, inclusive, good for return passage to reach original starting point not later than September 3, at reduced rates. Aug. 14-21

Can You Use Them?
Here are a pair of good wagons that will be sold very reasonable. One good rubber the runabout, with three new tires that cost $13.50. Wagon is good in paint and is yours for $20.00.

One end spring survey, newly painted, with brand new dasher and in good condition, curtains, all complete. It is a gift at $25.00. Call at this office.

Corn and Tobacco Irrigation
The conditions in corn are a duplicate of those in tobacco—irregular and spotty. There are some excellent fields and some that are very inferior. No kind of weather can make corn where there are not enough of stalks, or where many stalks are spindly and stunted, as are frequently to be seen.

These are only a few of the big Babbitt family of household products which are manufactured under the constant supervision of chemists and expert soap makers, in the gigantic factories and laboratories at Babbitt, New Jersey.

A Compliment to Grist
Hon. W. W. Grist was paid a compliment at Washington by the House, when after defeating his resolution providing for the printing of "The Road Horse," it reconsidered and passed it unanimously. About 100,000 copies will be printed.

It is certainly worth while to know that the soap you use does not merely make lather or suds, but that it also takes out the dirt, and makes the article or place clean, sweet and healthful.

Everyone is familiar with the "Pure Food Laws" and how they aim to protect the health of the people, and likewise protect the "public purse" by insuring that full value be given.

Gen. Orozco does not recognize the American Government, but the American Government will survive the blow.

Miss Martha Eby is on a visit to friends in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Miss Miriam Kendig is on a visit to Miss Arline Stauffer at Leola. Mr. Frank Hackman of Lima, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

The Misses Wahl of Virginia are visiting Misses Mary Kendig and Bess Hiestand.

The families of Jacob Newcomer and Albert Brosey have an increase of a girl baby each.

Jordan Kline and wife and Melvin Newcomer, wife and children visited York county friends.

A party delivered horses on the Sabbath Day to Amos Gans and one of them created considerable excitement by breaking loose and doing pretty generally as he pleased.

Mr. David Strickler of town is the possessor of two pairs wooden socks fifty years old. The wool was clipped from sheep raised on his father's farm. We do not know whether Mr. Strickler has worn the socks every winter or not.

On Monday the 12 o'clock trolley car Mount Joy bound had quite a severe jolt from a collision with the work car, about 100 yards west of the rotary. The crash was so severe that the noise could be heard all over town. The motorman jumped, and we think just in time, as it is probable he would have been killed had he remained on the car. One man of the work car had several ribs broken while another received a bad cut on the chin. Dr. J. S. Kendig attended the injured. It is evident some one blundered and life and limb were imperiled.

There is a wrong impression among the readers of a certain Mt. Joy paper with regard to the Haecker triplets. There was no disposition on the part of Dr. John Watchorn to drive the parents or triplets from the grounds as reported, but only to stop the sale of photographs on the grounds on a Sunday. Hymnbooks, it is true, are sold at cost to aid the singers and not for the profit that might seem to be in the business. No one is allowed at any time to sell anything on the grounds without permission from the board of control.

LANDSVILLE CAMP CLOSED
Several Thousand People Attended the Final Services

The closing service of the camp was a great success, for in the presence of two thousand people, one of the greatest camps in the history of Landisville came to a close, in the midst of a burst of glory.

The different leaders, as their meetings drew to a close, were shown in different ways how much they were appreciated.

Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson, of the Twentieth street M. E. Church, of Philadelphia, preached the closing sermon from Matt. xi, 28, "Come Unto Me." This was a sermon of great power, and was closely followed by the great audience.

At 10:30 Rev. Dr. Watchorn, assisted by the other ministers on the grounds, administered the Holy Communion, as is the custom on the last day of camp. It was very largely attended.

At 3 p. m. Rev. Dr. Jones gave his last lecture on "The Divine Library," from the Book of Galatians. Seldom, if ever, have the people had as great an opportunity for effectual Bible study, as under the instruction of Dr. Jones.

At 6:15 the young people held their closing service. Their temple was over-crowded. The leader, Rev. P. L. Carpenter, delivered the address on "Conflict With Sin." Prof. Miller conducted a delightful song service. The meeting closed with the Chataqua Salute.

Another Babbitt organization that is praised all over the land, is the exchange of wrappers, or trade marks from Babbitt Soaps and Cleansers. For handsome, useful presents. Families or persons who save Babbitt Trademarks not only get the best soap value possible, but also articles of every description, with which to adorn the person or furnish the home.

Salunga
Miss Martha Eby is on a visit to friends in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Miss Miriam Kendig is on a visit to Miss Arline Stauffer at Leola. Mr. Frank Hackman of Lima, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

The Misses Wahl of Virginia are visiting Misses Mary Kendig and Bess Hiestand.

The families of Jacob Newcomer and Albert Brosey have an increase of a girl baby each.

Jordan Kline and wife and Melvin Newcomer, wife and children visited York county friends.

A party delivered horses on the Sabbath Day to Amos Gans and one of them created considerable excitement by breaking loose and doing pretty generally as he pleased.

Mr. David Strickler of town is the possessor of two pairs wooden socks fifty years old. The wool was clipped from sheep raised on his father's farm. We do not know whether Mr. Strickler has worn the socks every winter or not.

On Monday the 12 o'clock trolley car Mount Joy bound had quite a severe jolt from a collision with the work car, about 100 yards west of the rotary. The crash was so severe that the noise could be heard all over town. The motorman jumped, and we think just in time, as it is probable he would have been killed had he remained on the car. One man of the work car had several ribs broken while another received a bad cut on the chin. Dr. J. S. Kendig attended the injured. It is evident some one blundered and life and limb were imperiled.

There is a wrong impression among the readers of a certain Mt. Joy paper with regard to the Haecker triplets. There was no disposition on the part of Dr. John Watchorn to drive the parents or triplets from the grounds as reported, but only to stop the sale of photographs on the grounds on a Sunday. Hymnbooks, it is true, are sold at cost to aid the singers and not for the profit that might seem to be in the business. No one is allowed at any time to sell anything on the grounds without permission from the board of control.

LANDSVILLE CAMP CLOSED
Several Thousand People Attended the Final Services

The closing service of the camp was a great success, for in the presence of two thousand people, one of the greatest camps in the history of Landisville came to a close, in the midst of a burst of glory.

The different leaders, as their meetings drew to a close, were shown in different ways how much they were appreciated.

Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson, of the Twentieth street M. E. Church, of Philadelphia, preached the closing sermon from Matt. xi, 28, "Come Unto Me." This was a sermon of great power, and was closely followed by the great audience.

At 10:30 Rev. Dr. Watchorn, assisted by the other ministers on the grounds, administered the Holy Communion, as is the custom on the last day of camp. It was very largely attended.

At 3 p. m. Rev. Dr. Jones gave his last lecture on "The Divine Library," from the Book of Galatians. Seldom, if ever, have the people had as great an opportunity for effectual Bible study, as under the instruction of Dr. Jones.

At 6:15 the young people held their closing service. Their temple was over-crowded. The leader, Rev. P. L. Carpenter, delivered the address on "Conflict With Sin." Prof. Miller conducted a delightful song service. The meeting closed with the Chataqua Salute.

Another Babbitt organization that is praised all over the land, is the exchange of wrappers, or trade marks from Babbitt Soaps and Cleansers. For handsome, useful presents. Families or persons who save Babbitt Trademarks not only get the best soap value possible, but also articles of every description, with which to adorn the person or furnish the home.

Salunga
Miss Martha Eby is on a visit to friends in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Miss Miriam Kendig is on a visit to Miss Arline Stauffer at Leola. Mr. Frank Hackman of Lima, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

The Misses Wahl of Virginia are visiting Misses Mary Kendig and Bess Hiestand.

The families of Jacob Newcomer and Albert Brosey have an increase of a girl baby each.

Jordan Kline and wife and Melvin Newcomer, wife and children visited York county friends.

A party delivered horses on the Sabbath Day to Amos Gans and one of them created considerable excitement by breaking loose and doing pretty generally as he pleased.

Mr. David Strickler of town is the possessor of two pairs wooden socks fifty years old. The wool was clipped from sheep raised on his father's farm. We do not know whether Mr. Strickler has worn the socks every winter or not.

On Monday the 12 o'clock trolley car Mount Joy bound had quite a severe jolt from a collision with the work car, about 100 yards west of the rotary. The crash was so severe that the noise could be heard all over town. The motorman jumped, and we think just in time, as it is probable he would have been killed had he remained on the car. One man of the work car had several ribs broken while another received a bad cut on the chin. Dr. J. S. Kendig attended the injured. It is evident some one blundered and life and limb were imperiled.

There is a wrong impression among the readers of a certain Mt. Joy paper with regard to the Haecker triplets. There was no disposition on the part of Dr. John Watchorn to drive the parents or triplets from the grounds as reported, but only to stop the sale of photographs on the grounds on a Sunday. Hymnbooks, it is true, are sold at cost to aid the singers and not for the profit that might seem to be in the business. No one is allowed at any time to sell anything on the grounds without permission from the board of control.

LANDSVILLE CAMP CLOSED
Several Thousand People Attended the Final Services

The closing service of the camp was a great success, for in the presence of two thousand people, one of the greatest camps in the history of Landisville came to a close, in the midst of a burst of glory.

The different leaders, as their meetings drew to a close, were shown in different ways how much they were appreciated.

Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson, of the Twentieth street M. E. Church, of Philadelphia, preached the closing sermon from Matt. xi, 28, "Come Unto Me." This was a sermon of great power, and was closely followed by the great audience.

At 10:30 Rev. Dr. Watchorn, assisted by the other ministers on the grounds, administered the Holy Communion, as is the custom on the last day of camp. It was very largely attended.

At 3 p. m. Rev. Dr. Jones gave his last lecture on "The Divine Library," from the Book of Galatians. Seldom, if ever, have the people had as great an opportunity for effectual Bible study, as under the instruction of Dr. Jones.

At 6:15 the young people held their closing service. Their temple was over-crowded. The leader, Rev. P. L. Carpenter, delivered the address on "Conflict With Sin." Prof. Miller conducted a delightful song service. The meeting closed with the Chataqua Salute.

Another Babbitt organization that is praised all over the land, is the exchange of wrappers, or trade marks from Babbitt Soaps and Cleansers. For handsome, useful presents. Families or persons who save Babbitt Trademarks not only get the best soap value possible, but also articles of every description, with which to adorn the person or furnish the home.

Salunga
Miss Martha Eby is on a visit to friends in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Miss Miriam Kendig is on a visit to Miss Arline Stauffer at Leola. Mr. Frank Hackman of Lima, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

The Misses Wahl of Virginia are visiting Misses Mary Kendig and Bess Hiestand.

The families of Jacob Newcomer and Albert Brosey have an increase of a girl baby each.

Jordan Kline and wife and Melvin Newcomer, wife and children visited York county friends.

A party delivered horses on the Sabbath Day to Amos Gans and one of them created considerable excitement by breaking loose and doing pretty generally as he pleased.

Mr. David Strickler of town is the possessor of two pairs wooden socks fifty years old. The wool was clipped from sheep raised on his father's farm. We do not know whether Mr. Strickler has worn the socks every winter or not.

On Monday the 12 o'clock trolley car Mount Joy bound had quite a severe jolt from a collision with the work car, about 100 yards west of the rotary. The crash was so severe that the noise could be heard all over town. The motorman jumped, and we think just in time, as it is probable he would have been killed had he remained on the car. One man of the work car had several ribs broken while another received a bad cut on the chin. Dr. J. S. Kendig attended the injured. It is evident some one blundered and life and limb were imperiled.

There is a wrong impression among the readers of a certain Mt. Joy paper with regard to the Haecker triplets. There was no disposition on the part of Dr. John Watchorn to drive the parents or triplets from the grounds as reported, but only to stop the sale of photographs on the grounds on a Sunday. Hymnbooks, it is true, are sold at cost to aid the singers and not for the profit that might seem to be in the business. No one is allowed at any time to sell anything on the grounds without permission from the board of control.

LANDSVILLE CAMP CLOSED
Several Thousand People Attended the Final Services

The closing service of the camp was a great success, for in the presence of two thousand people, one of the greatest camps in the history of Landisville came to a close, in the midst of a burst of glory.

The different leaders, as their meetings drew to a close, were shown in different ways how much they were appreciated.

Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson, of the Twentieth street M. E. Church, of Philadelphia, preached the closing sermon from Matt. xi, 28, "Come Unto Me." This was a sermon of great power, and was closely followed by the great audience.

At 10:30 Rev. Dr. Watchorn, assisted by the other ministers on the grounds, administered the Holy Communion, as is the custom on the last day of camp. It was very largely attended.

At 3 p. m. Rev. Dr. Jones gave his last lecture on "The Divine Library," from the Book of Galatians. Seldom, if ever, have the people had as great an opportunity for effectual Bible study, as under the instruction of Dr. Jones.

At 6:15 the young people held their closing service. Their temple was over-crowded. The leader, Rev. P. L. Carpenter, delivered the address on "Conflict With Sin." Prof. Miller conducted a delightful song service. The meeting closed with the Chataqua Salute.

Another Babbitt organization that is praised all over the land, is the exchange of wrappers, or trade marks from Babbitt Soaps and Cleansers. For handsome, useful presents. Families or persons who save Babbitt Trademarks not only get the best soap value possible, but also articles of every description, with which to adorn the person or furnish the home.

Salunga
Miss Martha Eby is on a visit to friends in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Miss Miriam Kendig is on a visit to Miss Arline Stauffer at Leola. Mr. Frank Hackman of Lima, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

The Misses Wahl of Virginia are visiting Misses Mary Kendig and Bess Hiestand.

The families of Jacob Newcomer and Albert Brosey have an increase of a girl baby each.

Jordan Kline and wife and Melvin Newcomer, wife and children visited York county friends.

A party delivered horses on the Sabbath Day to Amos Gans and one of them created considerable excitement by breaking loose and doing pretty generally as he pleased.

Mr. David Strickler of town is the possessor of two pairs wooden socks fifty years old. The wool was clipped from sheep raised on his father's farm. We do not know whether Mr. Strickler has worn the socks every winter or not.

On Monday the 12 o'clock trolley car Mount Joy bound had quite a severe jolt from a collision with the work car, about 100 yards west of the rotary. The crash was so severe that the noise could be heard all over town. The motorman jumped, and we think just in time, as it is probable he would have been killed had he remained on the car. One man of the work car had several ribs broken while another received a bad cut on the chin. Dr. J. S. Kendig attended the injured. It is evident some one blundered and life and limb were imperiled.

There is a wrong impression among the readers of a certain Mt. Joy paper with regard to the Haecker triplets. There was no disposition on the part of Dr. John Watchorn to drive the parents or triplets from the grounds as reported, but only to stop the sale of photographs on the grounds on a Sunday. Hymnbooks, it is true, are sold at cost to aid the singers and not for the profit that might seem to be in the business. No one is allowed at any time to sell anything on the grounds without permission from the board of control.

LANDSVILLE CAMP CLOSED
Several Thousand People Attended the Final Services

The closing service of the camp was a great success, for in the presence of two thousand people, one of the greatest camps in the history of Landisville came to a close, in the midst of a burst of glory.

The different leaders, as their meetings drew to a close, were shown in different ways how much they were appreciated.

Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson, of the Twentieth street M. E. Church, of Philadelphia, preached the closing sermon from Matt. xi, 28, "Come Unto Me." This was a sermon of great power, and was closely followed by the great audience.

At 10:30 Rev. Dr. Watchorn, assisted by the other ministers on the grounds, administered the Holy Communion, as is the custom on the last day of camp. It was very largely attended.

At 3 p. m. Rev. Dr. Jones gave his last lecture on "The Divine Library," from the Book of Galatians. Seldom, if ever, have the people had as great an opportunity for effectual Bible study, as under the instruction of Dr. Jones.

At 6:15 the young people held their closing service. Their temple was over-crowded. The leader, Rev. P. L. Carpenter, delivered the address on "Conflict With Sin." Prof. Miller conducted a delightful song service. The meeting closed with the Chataqua Salute.

Another Babbitt organization that is praised all over the land, is the exchange of wrappers, or trade marks from Babbitt Soaps and Cleansers. For handsome, useful presents. Families or persons who save Babbitt Trademarks not only get the best soap value possible, but also articles of every description, with which to adorn the person or furnish the home.

Salunga
Miss Martha Eby is on a visit to friends in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Miss Miriam Kendig is on a visit to Miss Arline Stauffer at Leola. Mr. Frank Hackman of Lima, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

The Misses Wahl of Virginia are visiting Misses Mary Kendig and Bess Hiestand.

The families of Jacob Newcomer and Albert Brosey have an increase of a girl baby each.

Jordan Kline and wife and Melvin Newcomer, wife and children visited York county friends.

A party delivered horses on the Sabbath Day to Amos Gans and one of them created considerable excitement by breaking loose and doing pretty generally as he pleased.

Mr. David Strickler of town is the possessor of two pairs wooden socks fifty years old. The wool was clipped from sheep raised on his father's farm. We do not know whether Mr. Strickler has worn the socks every winter or not.

On Monday the 12 o'clock trolley car Mount Joy bound had quite a severe jolt from a collision with the work car, about 100 yards west of the rotary. The crash was so severe that the noise could be heard all over town. The motorman jumped, and we think just in time, as it is probable he would have been killed had he remained on the car. One man of the work car had several ribs broken while another received a bad cut on the chin. Dr. J. S. Kendig attended the injured. It is evident some one blundered and life and limb were imperiled.

There is a wrong impression among the readers of a certain Mt. Joy paper with regard to the Haecker triplets. There was no disposition on the part of Dr. John Watchorn to drive the parents or triplets from the grounds as reported, but only to stop the sale of photographs on the grounds on a Sunday. Hymnbooks, it is true, are sold at cost to aid the singers and not for the profit that might seem to be in the business. No one is allowed at any time to sell anything on the grounds without permission from the board of control.

LANDSVILLE CAMP CLOSED
Several Thousand People Attended the Final Services

The closing service of the camp was a great success, for in the presence of two thousand people, one of the greatest camps in the history of Landisville came to a close, in the midst of a burst of glory.

The different leaders, as their meetings drew to a close, were shown in different ways how much they were appreciated.

Rev. Dr. Robert Johnson, of the Twentieth street M. E. Church, of Philadelphia, preached the closing sermon from Matt. xi, 28, "Come Unto Me." This was a sermon of great power, and was closely followed by the great audience.

At 10:30 Rev. Dr. Watchorn, assisted by the other ministers on the grounds, administered the Holy Communion, as is the custom on the last day of camp. It was very largely attended.

At 3 p. m. Rev. Dr. Jones gave his last lecture on "The Divine Library," from the Book of Galatians. Seldom, if ever, have the people had as great an opportunity for effectual Bible study, as under the instruction of Dr. Jones.

At 6:15 the young people held their closing service. Their temple was over-crowded. The leader, Rev. P. L. Carpenter, delivered the address on "Conflict With Sin." Prof. Miller conducted a delightful song service. The meeting closed with the Chataqua Salute.

Another Babbitt organization that is praised all over the land, is the exchange of wrappers, or trade marks from Babbitt Soaps and Cleansers. For handsome, useful presents. Families or persons who save Babbitt Trademarks not only get the best soap value possible, but also articles of every description, with which to adorn the person or furnish the home.

Salunga
Miss Martha Eby is on a visit to friends in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Miss Miriam Kendig is on a visit to Miss Arline Stauffer at Leola. Mr. Frank Hackman of Lima, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

The Misses Wahl of Virginia are visiting Misses Mary Kendig and Bess Hiestand.

The families of Jacob Newcomer and Albert Brosey have an increase of a girl baby each.

Jordan Kline and wife and Melvin Newcomer, wife and children visited York county friends.

A party delivered horses on the Sabbath Day to Amos Gans and one of them created considerable excitement by breaking loose and doing pretty generally as he pleased.

Mr. David Strickler of town is the possessor of two pairs wooden socks fifty years old. The wool was clipped from sheep raised on his father's farm. We do not know whether Mr. Strickler has worn the socks every winter or not.

On Monday the 12 o'clock trolley car Mount Joy bound had quite a severe jolt from a collision with the work car, about 100 yards west of the rotary. The crash was so severe that the noise could be heard all over town. The motorman jumped, and we think just in time, as it is probable he would have been killed had he remained on the car. One man of the work car had several ribs broken while another received a bad cut on the chin. Dr. J. S. Kendig attended the injured. It is evident some one blundered and life and limb were imperiled.

There is a wrong impression among the readers of a certain Mt. Joy paper with regard to the Haecker triplets. There was no disposition on the part of Dr. John Watchorn to drive the parents or triplets from the grounds as reported, but only to stop the sale of photographs on the grounds on a Sunday. Hymnbooks, it is true, are sold at cost to aid the singers and not for the profit that might seem to be in the business. No one is allowed at any time to sell anything on the grounds without permission from the board of control.

LANDSVILLE CAMP CLOSED
Several Thousand People Attended the Final Services

The closing service of the camp was a great success, for